 No society reports will be published in The Daily Tidings until Monday, October 13, when a change in policy and handling of Society Notes will become effective when the first installment under the new plan will be published.

Last year, due to the lack of space to properly handle the Society Notes in three installments each week, a change was made whereby the Society was published each day. Within a short time The Tidings will make several improvements which will permit more space for Society and hereafter, instead of publishing a small amount of Society Notes in each issue, longer and more detailed reports will be published twice each week.

These reports will be in the Monday and Thursday issues of The Tidings, starting with the issue of October 13.

The Tidings management is also glad to announce that arrangements have been made whereby Mrs. Grace Andrews, who is recognized as the premier
