SHIPS CRASH IN BAD FOG ON PUGET SOUND

No Deaths Result From Bad Crashes on Northern Harbor

WORST FOG OF YEARS

Two Ships, Boats Pile on Rocks As Heavy Fog Settles Over Straits

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 10.—(U. P.)—Shipping casualties mounted up during the night, following 48 hours of the heaviest fog banks which have been experienced on Puget Sound and in the Straits of Juan de Fuca for years.

The ocean going tug, the Sea Monarch, was sunk during the night, in a head on collision with the French steamer Zenon, off Port Townsend, Wash.

The Sea Monarch crew was taken aboard the Zenon and are in good condition, after their exposure to the cold weather.

Earlier in the evening, the steamer Texas, in the straits of Juan de Fuca, off Duwamish light, scraped the American-Hawaiian liner Admiral Dewey. Some damage was done to both ships, although the vessels continued on their respective routes. Passengers on each ship were thrown into a frantic by the crash.

The Pacific passenger steamer Kathleen, with nine hundred persons aboard, went ashore on Hospital rock, but freed herself later, although considerable damage was done to the underwater plates. The steamer Otter, a ferry boat, went ashore on Pender Island, but later was removed by the Salvage Queen.

"Dad" Provost is Back Home After Long Vacation

P. Provost, familiarly known to his friends, and they are legion, as "Dad" returned yesterday from a three months trip which took him over a 20,000 mile route around the rim of the United States.

"Dad" left Ashland early in August for Montreal, Canada. He stopped over at Quebec, Canada, Springfield, Mass., New York, Washington, Philadelphia and several of the other large eastern cities, and then started on his return trip over the southern route, which took him through New Orleans, across to Los Angeles, and thence up the coast, back to Ashland.

While in California, he visited with several of his sons and daughters, who reside in the south.

Last night and this morning, "Dad" was on the streets and at the Elk's Club, greeting old friends, who were happy to welcome him home after his long trip.

THE WEATHER

Oregon and Washington
Generally fair, moderate temperature. Light west and northwest winds.

Russia's Booze Line Grows Longer Each Day

MOSCOW, Oct. 10.—Public demand for alcoholic stimulant, after eleven years of partial prohibition, still is so great that each dawn finds long lines of people in front of the wine shops and grocery stores selling the newly legalized 40 per cent vodka.

Moscow's legions of vodka drinkers, who for long have had to be satisfied with a crude home distilled spirit, with the fear of arrest constantly upon them, have been on a convivial rampage since last Sunday, when the pre-war drink made its reappearance.

Statistical experts estimate that thus far this week more than five million quarts of vodka have been consumed throughout Russia.

150 FATHERS, SONS, ATTEND TWO BANQUETS

More than 150 fathers and sons attended the two father and son banquets held at the Baptist and Presbyterian churches last night, an increase of almost 50 over the attendance at the banquet held last year.

Superintendent Mischler of the Grants Pass schools, R. E. Yount, Portland boys secretary of the Y. M. C. A., and the Lithian quartette appeared at both meetings, while each meeting also had individual speakers.

Mischler took as his topic "The Advantages of Modern Days," and around this he wove a story which was almost fairylike. He compared the lives of boys of the past, when they had none of the advantages of modern scientific appliances, either for their comfort or enjoyment, with the lives of boys of the present age, who have almost everything they wish with which to enjoy life.

In his talk of the advantages of Y. M. C. A. work, Yount explained some of the work which has been done in Portland during the past few years. He praised the efforts of a group of business men in building up a Y. M. C. A. organization here.

At the Baptist church, Rev. S. J. Chaney, pastor of the Methodist church presided. At that meeting, V. O. N. Smith gave a short toast to the sons, while at the Presbyterian church banquet, Wirt M. Wright presided, and Y. D. Miller gave a toast to the sons. Phillip Bryant responded to Miller's toast with a toast to the fathers.

EVANGELIST TO BE SPEAKER IN CHURCHES HERE

N. Wayne Phelps, author, lecturer, and evangelist, representing the World's Purify Federation, will speak in the churches of Ashland in a series of lectures next week.

Phelps has been interested in the fight against white slavery, or the commercial sale of women, for the past 18 years. He has worked and lectured on the subject in many states throughout the country, and comes to Ashland with a sufficient fund of knowledge to make him worth hearing, it is said.

The following are the subjects and places for the lectures, all of which will start at 7:30 p. m. Oct. 12—First Presbyterian church—"Losing Our Grip on"

STRATEGY WINS

Stanley Harris, youthful pilot of the Washington Senators, who showed rare judgment in shifting his players in the seventh inning today. Harris last year, in his first season as a big league pilot, nosed his team home ahead of the Giants in the worlds series. This year his team is leading the Pirates 2 game to 1.

Escalon Has Hard Time Providing Homes for Citizens

ESCALON, Cal., Oct. 10.—(U. P.)—This is one town that has reason to be contented with itself—every house in town is occupied.

Not alone that, it was pointed out, but there's a waiting list for larger quarters.

Arley Wilhelm soon is to move into a new home. And when he vacates his quarters someone is going to move into them, and someone else is going to make another move, all along down the line, but still there won't be any vacant houses.

Relief is in sight, however. Two new houses are to be built by persons now renting.

KLAMATH AND LOCAL TEAMS CLASH TODAY

The Klamath high Pelicans are this afternoon entertaining Coach Walt Hughes' Ashland high squad in the first game of the season for the locals. The Pelicans have had three games so far this season.

Hughes and his squad left for Klamath at eight o'clock this morning by automobile, and should have had a good rest before the game opened.

It is a tossup as to the winner, although the Klamath fans are backing their team to the limit. This is the first year in some time the Klamath folks have been able to look at a team capable of coping with the remainder of the teams in the Southern Oregon section, and they are putting for a string of victories.

Although they dropped a 21-0 game to Medford some time back, the Pelicans are rated a first class team, and Ashland has a battle on her hands today, fans believe.

Hughes' team is green, and since it has had no games this year, it has been impossible to get a line on the outfit.

LOYD WILL HANG AT SALEM NEXT MONTH

DALLAS, Ore., Oct. 10.—(U. P.)—W. R. Lloyd, 25, was sentenced to hang at the Salem penitentiary on November 13, at 10 a. m., by Judge Ramsey here today. Lloyd killed Clint I. Baun, an Independence taxi driver, on September 1, between Albany and Independence.

Salem—New Oregon board of mining survey, authorized by last legislature, will organize October 14.

Portland—Contract let for 350,000 girls' home at Elwood Station.

Light Testing Law Is to Be Put in Effect

Not more than 35 per cent of the motorists in Jackson county have had their lights tested so far, and the new testing law has been in effect for more than a month, according to State Traffic Officer C. P. Talent.

Talent declares that leniency was shown the motorists during the first month, since the light testing stations were crowded far beyond their capacity with the initial rush. Now these stations have caught up with their work, and are capable of caring for any motorist's lights.

"We are going to start enforcing the law at once," Talent declared today. "If any motorist drives at night now without having a certificate showing that his lights have been tested, he is liable to be arrested and brought into court," he continued.

There are four light testing stations in Ashland at the present time, the Park garage, the Claycomb Motor company, Murphy's Electric and the Ashland Electric which are capable of taking care of all motorists. Talent pointed out, and unless these motorists have their lights tested at once, they are liable to have a fine assessed against them.

T. A. Rafferty, state traffic department head, has instructed his men to enforce the law to the letter, and to commence enforcing it at once.

Wilson Hoped to Spend Last Days With His Friends

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—Woodrow Wilson hoped in vain to spend his last days quietly in Virginia, with his books, his friends and his grandchildren.

This was revealed here by Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson, his close friend, in speaking to a group of the late President's admirers, who plan to establish a birthplace memorial to him at Staunton, Virginia. The war president, Admiral Grayson said, told him of this hope during their last automobile ride together.

ALL MEASURES ON MEDFORD BALLOT PASS

Medford, Oct. 10.—By an overwhelming majority of nearly three to one Medford voted for the new water bonds, the new city hall, and passed every other measure on the ballot at the special city election Thursday. It was probably the most decisive result in any municipal election ever held here, in which there was active opposition.

Not only did every measure pass, but every measure passed in every precinct of the city, an unheard of result heretofore.

When the down town precincts came in strong for the bonds, it was expected this lead would be cut down by the outlying districts, but instead the lead was sustained and in some instances even increased.

Another surprising feature of the election was the extension of the city limits, repeatedly defeated either in the city or outside in the past, but passed by overwhelming majorities throughout the city and in every outside precinct in the election Thursday. The people were apparently in an aggressively affirmative mood.

About fifty per cent of the registered voters went to the polls which is slightly above recent averages in special city elections. At the last local primary less than a thirty per cent vote was cast. There are over 4,000 registered voters in the city and over 3100 voted Thursday.

The only large addition is Siskiyou Heights which is approximately a mile square going as far north as the city reservoir, as far east as the W. G. Drew residence and as far south as the Dr. F. H. Johnson residence.

GREAT PINCH PITCHING BY FIRPO MARBERRY WINS FOR SENATORS IN THIRD GAME

With Team Leading 4-3. Marberry Hurls Two Scoreless Innings. Strategy by Stan Harris Responsible for Win. Sam Rice Makes Greatest Outfield Catch Ever Seen in World's Series Game, Grabbing Ball off Smith's Bat Just as it is Entering Stands. Both Starting Pitch Good Ball, Although Both Are Wild.

GRIFFITH STADIUM, WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—(U. P.)—Fred (Firpo) Marberry, rated the greatest relief pitcher in baseball, conclusively proved his right to that title today, when, after Ferguson had gone out in favor of a pinch hitter, he went into the box and turned back the Pirates for two innings in their third assault upon the 1925 worlds series. The Senators won 4-3, thus going into the lead in the series, two games to one.

The Pirates led most of the game scoring in the first third and fifth innings, while the Senators scored in the third and sixth, before their big seventh inning rally, in which they punched over two runs and went into the lead, where they stayed until the game was over.

Scintillating fielding feats featured the game, McNeely and Sam Rice, Senator outfielders furnishing the big thrills. Rice puffed the greatest catch ever seen in a worlds series game, even outdoing the great catch by Harry Hooper. Red Sox outfielder in the 1912 series. In the eighth inning, Smith slashed a line drive into right field. The hit was labeled extra bases, and it looked as though it would go into the stands. There were two out, and Rice's catch retired the count.

In the ninth Marberry got into hot water, and it was only a remarkable catch by McNeely which pulled him out. Bigbee, hitting for Kremer, went out. Moore and Carey singled, however, and Cuyler was hit by a pitched ball, filling the bases with only one away. Barnhart popped out to Stan Harris at second. With the bases full, two out, and the count three and two, Traynor hit a line drive into center field. McNeely speared the drive near the stands and the game was over.

Alex Ferguson started for the Senators, and although he was unsteady and wild at times, pitched good ball, being especially effective in the pinches. Kremer, who went the full route for the Pirates weakened in the seventh, but otherwise pitched good ball.

Goose Goslin, Senator outfielder hit the daily home run, a terrific drive into the right field stands in the fifth inning. There were no men on base at the time.

Two hits, no errors.

Washington—Myer got a base on balls. Peck forced Myer, Wright to Moore. Peck was out in an attempted steal. Smith to Wright. Barnhart took in Ruel's fly. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fifth Inning—Pittsburgh—Moore struck out. Carey singled over second. Myer threw out Cuyler and Carey went to third. Barnhart fouled out to Judge. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Washington—Ferguson struck out. Rice beat out a roller to third. No play was made on him. S. Harris hit into a double play. Moore to Grantham. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Sixth Inning—Pittsburgh—Rice took Traynor's long fly as it was about to go into the center field bleachers. Peck took Wright's grounder and threw wild to first. Wright was safe. Grantham struck out. Smith singled into right field, and Wright went to third. Wright scored on Kramer's hit past S. Harris. Smith stopped at second. Moore Walked. Carey struck out. One run, two hits, one error.

Washington—Goslin got a home run into the right field stands. It was a terrific smash. Judge sent up a fly to Carey. J. Harris singled past Moore. Myer struck out. Peck singled into left. J. Harris stopped on second. Traynor took Ruel's single and touched third. One run, three hits, no errors.

Seventh Inning—Pittsburgh—Peck took Cuyler's grass cutter and threw him out. Goslin got Barnhart's fly after a long run. Traynor sent up a fly to S. Harris. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Washington—Liebold batted for Ferguson and walked. McNeely—running for Liebold. Barnhart made a beautiful catch of Rice's seeming hit, and McNeely had to race back to first. S. Harris cracked an infield hit to third. McNeely going to second. Goslin bunted, catching the Pirate infield flat footed. McNeely scored on Judge's sacrifice fly to Carey. S. Harris holding second and Goslin first. S. Harris scored on J. Harris' single to left. Goslin stopped at second. Smith went out and took Myer's bunt and touched him. Two runs, three hits, no errors.

Eighth Inning—Pittsburgh—Wright struck out. Two hits, no errors.

ASHLAND MAN GETS 60 DAYS, INTOXICATED

Because of his badly intoxicated condition on vanilla extract which caused his car to go off the Pacific highway three miles north of the city at about 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon and tilt in a dangerous angle in a ditch, whereupon he went calmly to sleep inside the car, Francis Adair, about 50 years old, an Ashland restaurant proprietor, was given a sentence of 60 days in the county jail, a $100 fine and had his driver's license revoked for one year, in Justice Roe's court at Jacksonville Thursday afternoon.

The arrest was made by Allison Moulton, assistant district attorney, in his capacity as deputy sheriff, although Chief of Police Adams of Medford was at the scene at the same time, but

Chautauqua Floor Being Raised to Aid Acoustics

A. L. Lamb, prominent local contractor, this morning started work in the Chautauqua building, which he believes will improve the acoustics of the huge structure. The work will be done practically free of cost to the city.

The floor of the building has been cap shaped, according to Lamb. Into this depression hundreds of loads of granite will be hauled, filling it up level, and thus preventing the sound going over the heads of the spectators in the building.

Lamb is obtaining the granite from the excavations being made on the new Brown garage on First street, between Main and Hargadine.

Lamb this morning declared that he was positive that the work would completely remove all echoes from the building, the bad feature during the past. The city will pay for the spreading of the granite, while Lamb will bear the expense of the trucking.
