NATATORIUM CLOSED FOR WINTER SEASON
The Ashland Natatorium, which has been operated during the summer season by Messrs. Sletten and White, has closed for the winter, according to Mr. Sletten, who stated he was going to Klamath Falls to enter business.

The Nat, which had been closed for several years, was greatly improved by Messrs. Sletten and White, and a successful season was enjoyed by the operators. It is probable that the Nat will be reopened next summer, as it has proved a popular recreation center during the past season.
