Delightful Afternoon
Guests at the social afternoon at the Parish House, last Thursday, given by the Trinity Guild, spent some very pleasant hours with hostesses and friends.
The rooms were beautiful in their bright autumn coloring. Entertainment had been provided, with bridge and five hundred claiming the attention of the majority of those present.
Mrs. Frank Merrill secured high score in bridge and Mrs. McRae won honors in five hundred. It is hoped to have these pleasant social gatherings once a month.
Dainty refreshments were served by the hostesses as a happy finale. The affair was well attended, guests anticipating the next afternoon with much pleasure. The next meeting will be Thursday the fifth of November, which is a business session primarily, with that of the third Thursday of a social nature. Mrs. J. M. Wagner and Mrs. J. E. Gowland were hostesses for the afternoon.

Open Meeting
The Missionary meeting scheduled to be held Friday evening, October the 23rd at the Presbyterian church has a splendid program planned. A pageant, readings, special music, a talk on Alaska, a message from Miss Dorothy Abraham, a former Junior High teacher, but who is now a missionary in China are the numbers of an evening of much interest to every one.
All are invited to listen to these excellent numbers, and are assured that those attending Friday evening will feel well repaid in the varied and entertaining program.

Loyal Maids Give Supper
The Loyal Maids, a class of the Christian Sunday school under the leadership of their teacher, Mrs. Grace Putman, furnished the supper, which was given Wednesday night at the Christian church. These suppers are a Wednesday night feature, and are given to help finance the big undertakings of that church. They are especially well patronized and with the supper there is always entertainment provided.

Study Club Meets
Mrs. T. J. Malmgren was hostess for the Ashland Study Club Monday afternoon. With the exception of two members who were out of town, the full membership were present, four cars going down to the delightful home of the Phoenix member of the club.
The regular program was followed, roll call of current topics.

Ladies Aid Meets
The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church also met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. D. Jillson, 105 North Pioneer avenue. This society have splendid meetings with a good attendance and a good program.
It is promised that the Tidings may have a report from this meeting from the press chairman, which will be interesting to a great many.

Social Meeting
A social meeting at which the members of the Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors and their families are guests is arranged for Friday night.

A selected subject given by Mrs. V. V. Mills, and the book review by Miss Blanche Hicks.
However as always happens when the club are guests at the hospitable home of Mrs. Malmgren, a hard and fast rule of the club is bent pretty badly, for the hostess served delicious coffee and cakes at the close of the program. In this club the meetings are entirely occupied in study, the serving of refreshments being confined to definite social meetings.

Elks Ladies' Card Club Meets
The Elks Ladies' Card Club enjoying its regular meeting this afternoon with Mrs. A. E. Kinney and Mrs. F. D. Wagner hostesses. The election of the officers for the ensuing year will be held and a report given in the next issue.

Alpha Chapter Entertains
Two hundred guests were present at the social function given by Alpha Chapter Tuesday night honoring the Past Matrons and Past Patrons of the order. Sixteen Past Matrons and six Past Patrons were present. Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Carter being senior in point of service of the number.
After the regular meeting a beautiful floral drill was put on with the presentation of lovely chrysanthemums to the honored past officers. Music, the Rose Song of Portland, sung by Mrs. Fred Nell, with Mrs. Harry Harrison at the piano which was heartily enjoyed and the gracefully worded lesson by the Worthy Matron, Mrs. E. F. Whittle added much to the pleasure of the occasion.
From the reception, guests proceeded to the dining room, in its colorful Halloween decorations and where a special table awaited the honored guests. The Hon. E. V. Carter, whose gift as an after dinner speaker, is well known spoke appreciatively concerning the banquet, which was in keeping with the thought of Halloween.

Mrs. Louis Schwein was chairman of the refreshment committee and Mrs. Emma Oeder in charge of decoration in the hall, which glowed with garlands of fall blossoms and autumn leaves.
There were visitors from many California and Oregon towns, one, an officer from Hood River, who was so pleased with the drill put on, that she expects to duplicate it in her own chapter. Officers, special guests and membership all feel that Tuesday evening's function was a most successful one. It is expected that the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Caroline Lewis, will visit Alpha Chapter officially on November 14th.

Shower for Miss Hodges
Mrs. Clyde Young and Mrs. Elwood Hedberg were hostesses at the former's home Tuesday night; the occasion being a miscellaneous shower in compliment to Miss Harriet Hodges, a young bride elect, whose wedding to Walter Scott Yordon will be an event in society annals in the near future.

Entertaining games occupied the earlier evening when the guests were given opportunity to draw a number. One was accounted "lucky," in that its fortunate holder became the possessor of a gayly decorated basket, in black and yellow, with yellow magnolias whose bright beauty was a graceful touch. Needless to say, Miss Hodges drew the "fortunate" number, and the dainty basket with its burden of pretty packages became hers, to open and enjoy and love, not only for their own beauty but for the messages each bore from the giver in loving thought and preparation.

A two course luncheon followed, served at beautifully appointed tables, each carrying out in flowers the yellow motif employed in the rooms. At the tables the fortunes were read, affording much amusement and conveying interesting information.

The guest list at this pleasant function were, Miss Harriet Hodges, Miss Gladys Applegate, Mrs. Lynn Slack, Mrs. Milton Fraley, Mrs. Gerald Wenner, Mrs. Dean Scott, Miss Marguerite Hammond, Mrs. Clark Rawlings, Miss Margaret Van Dyke, Miss Doris Kleinhammer, Miss Caryle Van Dyke, Mrs. Dan Kay, Miss Jessie Guthrie, who, with the hostesses Mrs. Elwood Hedberg and Mrs. Clyde Young made this an evening, the remembrance of which will bring to mind friendly faces and happy memories of pleasant hours spent together.

Bellview P. T. A.
Bellview P. T. A., has its Halloween party and entertainment Friday evening at the school house. It is expected that everyone will be there since it is planned to be a get-acquainted meeting, and there are many new people in the neighborhood.
Bellview has a reputation to sustain for friendliness and all who live in Bellview are urged to be present at this gathering. Needless to say after once attending social functions in Bellview, no one needs further urging to be present.

Goose Dinner
Miss Beryl Jarmon was hostess Sunday, at a two o'clock dinner, with geese as the piece de resistance, the toothsome bird having been sent from Miss Jarmon's home to grace the feast.
Covers were laid for the Misses Ethel Templin, Juanita Tarr, Helen Holtan, Mildred Crane, Edna Goheen, Gertrude Haan and hostess, Miss Beryl Jarmon. Lovely roses were used in decoration. The guests spent the afternoon with Miss Jarmon at the practice house.
