 derful feast, having every thing ready by their return.
 The surprise was a complete one; every one enjoying the amazement of Mr. and Mrs.

 this occasion were Mr. and Mrs.
 G. S. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. A.

Mrs. Louis Dodge Elected to Vice-Presidency of State P. T. A.— Portland papers brought the pleasant assurance that Mrs. Louis Dodge, (who, with three other ladies from Ashland were in attendance at the state meeting of P. T. A.) was elected to the first vice presidency of the state organization.
 Mrs. Dodge has been very active in P. T. A. circles both locally and in the state and the honor conferred is a deserved recognition of her effective work for the schools through that organization.
 At the opening session, Tuesday evening, Mrs. Dodge was presiding officer and made one of the addresses. Ashland feels justly proud of its representative in the state council of the Parent-Teacher Association.
 Mrs. Humphrey, Mrs. Powell and Mrs. W. Herndon represented Ashland P. T. A. Circles.

Brotherhood Party—
 November sixth, after lodge meeting, the Fraternal Brotherhood plan a party, with many of the Halloween features. There will be games and music and dancing, with pumpkin pie and cider for refreshments. The members and invited friends are anticipating a very pleasant evening.

Martha Gillette Chapter Meets—The Martha Gillette Chapter of Westminster Guild will meet Monday evening, 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Robertson, 219 Boulevard. The meetings are now held twice a month.

Baked Bean Supper a Success—The Baked Bean Supper, which was sponsored by the Junior High P. T. A. was a decided success in every way. In point of financial returns, everything was sold out and it is understood it netted between forty and fifty dollars, which will go far toward needed equipment for the play ground.
 By way of entertainment and in point of satisfactory menu, the evening was well spent for a pleasant happy crowd waited in turn to be served with the baked beans, steamed loaf, salad, ice cream, pies of many kinds and coffee with which the tables were loaded.
 Happy Halloween touches had been given in decoration and the spooky greeting at the entrance was quite shivery and added interest to the affair.

Upper Valley Community Club
Meets—
 The Millinery Class of the Upper Valley Community Club met at the home of Mrs. Jackson on Iowa street, Thursday. It was an all day meeting and there was a good attendance.
 Miss Ada Brewster was present and brought with her flowers and new trimming for hats which she showed the members of the class how to make.
 A number succeeded in finishing the hats upon which they were working; others partially finished those begun, getting them to a place where they could be finished at home.
 At noon luncheon, of one hot dish, sandwiches, salad and coffee was served, when work was resumed.
 There will be another all day meeting, Nov. 17, at the home of Mrs. Homer Barron. At this tie-dyeing work in wax and other interesting things will be discussed. Miss Brewster will be present.

Civic Club Luncheon—Tuesday's meeting of the Civic Improvement Club features a "No Hostess" luncheon, at the Lithia Springs Hotel, at 12:30 preceded by an Executive Board meeting at 11:30.
 An interesting program is planned for the afternoon and the noted artist, Mr. McClosky, is principal speaker at the luncheon.
 As previously announced, tickets for the luncheon may be obtained at the Lithia Springs Pharmacy.

Miss Elizabeth Stearns Entertains— Miss Elizabeth Stearns was hostess at a Halloween party, with the members of the Christian Endeavor society guests for the evening. This was a masquerade party, the young people coming in costume and much merriment ensued over the characters taken.
 Games in keeping with the season, were played and chorus singing in which all joined was a happy one.

As the guests departed, they were greeted by a ghastly figure in the hall. The rooms were in Halloween's own colors and made a pretty setting for the gay assembly of boys and girls who enjoyed so thoroughly, the jolly evening. Refreshments, quite in keeping with the season were served and proved a popular feature of the entertainment.

W. F. M. Society Meets—The W. F. M. Society of the Methodist church will meet Friday, November 6, at the home of Mrs. Harry Yeo at 3:00 p. m., with Mrs. Marske, Mrs. Billings and Mrs. Eagle bringing reports from the Branch meeting at Salem, as the principal feature of the afternoon's program.
 A large attendance is expected to enjoy the interesting digest of the convention.

Dr. Shaw Entertains—Dr. Mattie Brown Shaw entertained with a card party, on Wednesday evening, honoring Lieutenant T. L. Sorrell, who has recently joined his family in Ashland.
 A most pleasurable time was spent with the many present, all of whom enjoyed meeting Lieut.
 Sorrell and learning of his trip abroad, and in viewing the many souvenirs and relics brought home by him, included among which, was an idol from New Zealand, some centuries old, carved by hand with stone.

Beta Chapter Delphian
Society Meets—
 The Beta Chapter of the Delphian society held the first chapter meeting on Tuesday afternoon, October 27, at the Civic Club House. The attendance was excellent and the interest shown speaks much for the benefits to be derived from the work undertaken by the society.
 The club room was charmingly decorated with bouquets of lovely flowers. Mrs. D. S. Whitney was hostess for the afternoon, assisted by Mrs. George Rose and Mrs. Herbert McCarthy.
 Mrs. Gordon MacCracken was a guest of the chapter for the afternoon.
 The meeting opened at two o'clock with the president, Mrs.
 F. G. Dean, presiding. Mrs. V.
 Mills, National supervisor conducted the first hour's work which was history. Ancient history and literature constitute the first year's work of the society and gives great promise of being very much worth the time and effort given it.
 The program for the afternoon was a most interesting and inspiring one, and a wealth of valuable information presented.
 An interesting feature was the exhibition of two pieces of Egyptian art work brought from Egypt by a sister-in-law of Mrs.
 Gordon MacCracken and tendered by her to the society for the afternoon.
 Ancient Egypt: its topography, by Mrs. John Finerman; The Old Kingdom, by Mrs. C. A. Malone; Architecture, by Mrs. H. C.
 Gale; and the Celebrated Book of the Dead, by Mrs. D. S. Whitney, constituted the first part of

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS in "DON Q, SON OF ZORRO" the program. Mrs. D. Perozzi spoke on Egypt Today.

Mrs. Karl Nims gave a review of the book, Uarda, by George Ebers, followed by a short Parliamentary Drill by Mrs. Perozzi.
 Mrs. J. H. Fuller presented very interesting Current News of the day. The Political and Economic situation of the world today, by Mrs. O. E. Daws and the review of the play entitled,
 "The Show-Off" by Mrs. M. B.
 Shaw closed the program.

Each one presented her topic ably and splendidly, and the meeting adjourned with everyone present feeling that this, the first Chapter meeting of the society was a wonderful success.

W. R. C. Entertains—Mrs. J. C. Stanton, 762 B. street, was hostess for the members of the W. R. C. at their recent meeting.
 The home was prettily decorated in Halloween colors and games appropriate for the season were played.
 There was a large attendance present to enjoy the social hours and the delicious pumpkin pie and whipped cream which was served by the hostess, Mrs. Stanton, assisted by Mrs. E. D. Jen-ings.

 Mrs. Edwin Dunn Entertains
Social Circle—Many cars, filled with the membership of the Social Circle of the Christian church, drove to the beautiful country home of Mrs. Edwin Dunn, Wednesday afternoon for the social meeting of the circle.
 At the business meeting plans were formulated for a bazaar to be held during the holidays.
 A short musical program preceded the social hour, in which delightful numbers were given by Mrs. R. L. Burdick, Bobby Burdick, Mrs. W. E. Sanford, Miss Helen Sanford and the hostess, Mrs. Edwin Dunn.
 The afternoon was spent most happily, and at its close, delicious cakes and ice cream were served by the hostess with a number of ladies assisting her.
 The Social Circle added four new members to its roster at this meeting, making a total
