PRAYER: -O Lord, our days are passing swiftly by, but we look to Thee, and the fear of the Lord is the crying of wisdom. Miss Adena Joy, State Champion Club Work Girl, Ashland, Org., Dear Miss Joy: Ashland is proud of you, and the whole city is happy to hear that you have been awarded a trip to Chicage as a result of your efficiency in club work. Southern Ore- gon and Ashland especially, is becoming pretty well known as the result of the activities of yourself and your team mates. The prune bread baking championship seems to have settled in Ashland, for now two years in succession, Ash- land teams have won the title. It won't be long before Ashland prune bread will be as well known as Ashland lithia water, and instead of living in the Granite City, we will be living in the prune bread city. Mr. W. G. Sander, Proprietor, Ashland Flower Shop, Ashland, Oregon, Dear Bill:

time before that score is equalled.

I understand you are to have a chrysanthymum show in the near future, and that all Ashland people are invited to look over your splendid exhibit of 'mums.

Ashland people have always been lovers of flowers. We are situated here in Southern Oregon, with a climate, conducive to the production of an abundance of beautiful flowers. We are all interested in flowers, interested in them to a much greater extent than the people of other This city has long been noted for its beautiful flow- OUT OUR WAY cities.

ers, and there are several amateur flower fanciers in the city who produce wonderful blossoms. They do it for the love of the flowers, and for the beautification of their homes.

You have one of the finest collections of 'mums in the state, with your 10,000 blossoms of over 20 different varieties. I wish you a lot of success with your show. And know you will have it, for Ashland is always interested in such an exhibit.

> Sincerely yours, Auntie Ashland.

All Ashland People, Ashland, Ore., Dear Folks:

The Tidings now has features for every one of the members of its family. For the older folks, The Tidings presents the United Press wire service, supplying the news of the world, a full coverage of local events, Great Mothers of the World, by Mary Greer Conklin, Bert Moses' premier column, Sap and Salt, comic feature, Tom Sims Says, a full service of illustrations of the big news stories of the day, and other features which interest the grownups.

And for the kiddies, The Tidings is now presenting comics in abundance. From these the youngsters will obtain a lot of enjoyment. And I am willing to waget a little that plently of the older folks are just as much inerested in the doings of Mom 'n Pop and Mr. and Mrs. Tyte, and Everett True, and the foks in Out Our Way, as are the kiddies.

The Tidings is trying to give you folks just as good a newspaper as is possible, and I know that you are back

> Sincerely, Auntie Ashland.
