THANKSGIVING OBSERVED IN FAMILY GATHERINGS

Mrs. S. A. Carleton Entertains—
 One of the large family home comings, of which there were many in Ashland yesterday, occurred at the Carleton home when sons and daughters and their families, to the number of nineteen gathered for the happy festival.
 A six o'clock turkey dinner was the culmination of the merry home visit, with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carleton and son Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Carleton, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Carleton and son, Clark, of Prospect, Mrs. Lottie Van Scoy of Eagle Point, Mr. and Mrs. Dom Provost, and little Buddy, the Misses Lela and Gertrude Carleton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Carleton, Harriet Carleton and the hostess, Mrs. S. A. Carleton, seated about the hospitable board.

Thanksgiving At The Miller Home—

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller were host and hostess at a delightful one o'clock turkey dinner, with all the delicacies which accompany that royal bird.

Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hamilton and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gowland, and the host and hostess Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller. The afternoon was spent in a jolly home visit, the good cheer enhanced by gay music and the laughter of happy little folks.

With Relatives In Medford—

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Wheeler and Mrs. Mary L. Mathews will have with them, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Andrews of Logan, Kansas, who are spending the fall in Medford and Ashland and Mrs. Grace E. Andrews of Ashland for Thanksgiving Day and dinner. Just a quiet family visit, with covers laid for ten at the mid-afternoon repast.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Winter Have Family Gathering—

The hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Winter was the scene of another family gathering with Mrs. Ann H. Russell, Miss Nellie Russell, Mrs. H. L. Walter of Portland and her daughter, Miss Ruth Walter, who comes from Los Angeles, where she is attending Bible Institute, to be with her mother and relatives here. To this group were added Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Woods and daughter, Lorraine, and Miss Ruth Fleming of Jacksonville, who, with host and hostess and Paul Winter, gathered about the beautifully appointed table, with its lovely yellow chrysanthemums, the soft light of yellow candles and dainty nut cups and favors. Some of the courses emphasized the dominant color in the decorative scheme and Oregon Grape was shown in the rooms.

Have Dinner At Model Cottage—

A group of friends enjoyed a delightfully prepared and elaborate six o'clock dinner at the Practice House Thanksgiving Day. The football game and a jolly visit preceeded the Thanksgiving feast.

Covers were laid for Miss Beryl Jarmon, Miss Ethel Temple, Miss Juanita Tarr, Miss Irene Berg, Miss Gertrude Haan, Miss Edna Goheen and her brother, Paul Goheen, who is visiting in Ashland.

Mrs. Sarah Walker Entertains—

Mrs. Sarah Walker was hostess at a dinner party of nine, Thursday, largely relatives, who gathered to spend the day and enjoy with her the delightful dinner prepared.

Those present were: Mrs. Elizabeth Van Sant and the members of the Mrs. Henry Applegate and Roscoe Applegate families.

Dined At Hotel—

Among those who enjoyed the elaborate Thanksgiving dinner, served at the Lithia Springs hotel, were: Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Dodge and Mr. Will Dodge, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Peil.

Dinner At The Weren Home—

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Weren entertained at a six o'clock Thanksgiving dinner at their pleasant home yesterday when Mrs. E. Weren, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Wallsten and Mr. Sam Cherry of eastern Oregon were guests at the delightful repast, with turkey the piece de resistance, and all the delicacies that go with it. The football game gave all wonderful appetites to enjoy the family feast that followed that exciting event.

Thanksgiving Dinner—

Mr. and Mrs. Jack R. Edwards

were host and hostess at a four course six o'clock turkey dinner with covers laid for twelve guests at the attractively appointed table, graced with lovely cut flowers.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Simpkins, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Briggs, Miss George Coffee, Mrs. Clarence Dayhuff and children, Miss Margaret Dayhuff and Mr. Ike Butler.

Neighborhood Bridge Club—

The Neighborhood Bridge Club were entertained very delightfully by Mrs. J. M. Hughes, Saturday evening. Mrs. Herbert McCarthy secured high honors and Mrs. Hile consolation prize in the games played during the pleasant evening, at the close of which a two course luncheon was served.

The members present on this occasion were: the Mesdames J. H. McGee, Frank Dean, K. P. Nims, P. S. Provost, George Rose, George Kramer, E. F. Storm, Don Whitney, Amos Nininger, Anna Hile, Herbert McCarthy, and the hostess, Mrs. J. M. Hughes.

This club have their meetings fortnightly at the homes of the members, usually Friday or Saturday evenings, and have most enjoyable times.

I know they'll be perfect—the things I bake with Sperry Drifted Snow Flour.

That's the joy of using Sperry Drifted Snow Flour—I can be sure of perfect results every time.

In the 12 years I've baked with it, every sack I have used has been of the same wonderful blend. That uniform goodness is Sperry's greatest pride.

I've seen with my own eyes how they protect it—with scientific laboratory control—with special methods in their big modern mills—and then they test it every hour of the day by our method—baking.

I suggest that you use Sperry Flour—for results you can be sure of every time.

P. S.—Have you any cooking problems you'd like help in solving? Looking for some new menus? Or party "ideas"? Would you like a set of the wonderful Sperry Master Recipes? Write, telling me just what you want, and I'll help you, free.
