Art Club Meets Monday Night—The Art Club will hold its regular meeting Monday, December the fourteenth featuring a covered dish supper.

The usual business meeting will be held, with the social hour, the ladies are occupied in faintly needle work.

This organization meets the second and fourth Mondays instead of the first and third, which dates used to obtain, hence the mistake in announcement last week.

Neighbors of Woodcraft Meet—On Monday evening of this week the neighbors of Woodcraft held an experience social and covered dish supper at the I. O. O. F. Hall.

Prior to the meeting each member had been requested to earn fifty cents for the flower fund. They were each to tell in rhyme just how they earned it.

These experiences were enjoyed heartily, both in the goodly sum gained, and in the jolly evening spent in listening to the rhymes.

One of these, written and read by Mrs. Ed High occasioned much mirth. The jolly take off of the different members and the amusing story told of her efforts, as compared with what others could do, was very interesting to the members.

Owing to the length of the compilation in the social columns but it will be found elsewhere in today's paper.

Valley View Community Club Meets—Next week is scheduled a splendidly arranged program for the Valley View Community Club, with Mrs. James Lennox at the head of the program committee.

At this meeting, there will be read by Mrs. Violet Chaney, a paper on "The History and Growing of Pears." This is in line with a study plan on fruits and at each meeting a different kind of fruit is discussed and its history given.

Other than the study indicated, a book or play review is prepared by some member. At this meeting, Mrs. William Glenn will present "The Ten Commandments."

The roll call is always interesting. For this program, each member will tell her favorite author and why, and a vocal solo by Mrs. W. A. Stratton completes a program of more than usual interest.

Mrs. J. R. McCracken and Mrs. James Lennox have charge of the refreshments for this meeting.

Entertained for Mr. and Mrs. Countryman—Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Tucker were host and hostess at a delightful dinner party, with covers laid for thirteen at the beautifully appointed table.

The dinner was given, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Countryman and Mrs. Countryman's mother, Mrs. Whitmore of Belknap, Washington, who were on their way south but who stopped in Ashland, their old home, to visit old time friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Countryman and Mrs. Whitmore lived here many years ago, and usually stop on their way through. They found many changes in Ashland since they lived here and many improvements.

A Reunion of Ashland Folks—A reunion of formerly of Ashland people occurred in Berkeley, California, with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth King as host and hostess, who entertained a group of Ashland friends most delightfully the afternoon and evening of December sixth.

The happy reminiscent visit of old friends, music and at the close delicious refreshments, filled the hours to overflowing with good cheer.

The guests on this pleasant occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Minuth and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. King, Miss Elsie King of Wisconsin, Mr. Jay Withrow, Miss Schrader, Miss Helen Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fraley and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill who were married recently are planning to spend the holidays in Ashland.

Mrs. Kenneth King is remembered very pleasantly as Miss Alice Vandersluis who has many Ashland friends interested in news of her in her California home.

The account of this delightful reunion came through the courtesy of Mrs. Earl Fraley, formerly of Ashland, but now of Alameda, California.

Past Noble Grands' Club Meets—The Past Noble Grands' club are entertained Friday, December 11 by Mrs. J. E. Gowland and Mrs. Frank Nelson, at the I. O. O. F. Hall. This club have wonderfully pleasant meetings and this one promises to be no exception to the rule. A large attendance is expected.

Wednesday Club Meeting—Yesterday the Wednesday club, the social organization of the Presbyterian church held its regular meeting in the church parlors, with a good attendance.

There was an especially pleasing program, with Mrs. J. R. Robertson heard in a number of beautiful piano selections and Mrs. Spanker of Medford favoring the guests with several songs which were well received.

The earlier part of the afternoon was spent in the short business meeting, with its reports and plans. Later, all assisted in finishing a comfort which the club have been making.

At the close of the pleasant social hour, the hostesses, Mrs. Peterson and Mrs. Cook served dainty refreshments.

Study Club Meets—Mrs. Fred Engle was hostess at Monday's meeting of the Ashland Study Club. Mrs. G. G. Eubanks completed the review of "A Passage to India," and Mrs. Gordon MacCracken gave as her selected topic a biography of Calixta Thaxter. The roll call brought out many interesting items.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Louis Dodge.

Flower Growers Meet—The Flower Growers of Ashland are asked to meet at the library at eight o'clock tonight to discuss the formation of a Flower Growers Society; to plan for the flower show to be held next season and with that also to plan for seeds and bulbs to be ordered.

Every flower grower and exhibitor of flowers are asked to be sure to be present at this meeting.

French Club Meets—The French Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Clara Beebe on Avery street, Monday evening, next. A new assignment of lesson was made in the absence of Mrs. T. J. Malmgren, who was ill and could not be present at the last meeting.

Social Evening of Royal Neighbors—The Royal Neighbors enjoyed a social evening Monday, December the seventh. There was a large attendance and an especially pleasant time.

During the business session the following officers were elected: Past Oracle, Millie Sherard; Oracle, Nellie Madden; Vice Oracle, Tyla Beck; Chancellor, Anna Hodgkinson; Recorded Alice Turner; Receiver, Fern Randles; Marshall, Margaret McNabb; Musician, Elizabeth Reid; Inner Sentinel, Nellie Randles; Outer Sentinel, Aurelia Peabody; Managers, Abbie Hood, Arthur Madden and Mollie Barasa; Captain of Degree Staff, Lillian Greubemer.

The hostesses on this occasion were Mrs. Elizabeth Reid and Miss Margaret McNabb. William Greubemer acted as toastmaster and the new officers responded in clever little speeches.

The meetings are at Moose Hall, convening at 7:30 p. m.

A New Club House Planned—In keeping with the forward looking plans of the Upper Valley, announcement is made that a new Community House is planned, with the Upper Valley Community Club and the Bellview P. T. A., squarely behind the movement.

In November, a piece of ground adjoining Bellview school grounds and facing the street running north, was asked for and the request granted by the district, thus giving ample and suitable grounds for the building. The men of the community promised to donate their labor.

With the ground secured, the labor promised, and in each organization a substantial sum already accumulated, enthusiasm runs high, for the Community House seems quite assured.

To augment the sum already in the treasury, a series of entertainments are planned.

The first is to be the annual Christmas entertainment. This annual festival of fun is looked forward to, not only by those in the community but there is always a large crowd from Ashland who never fail to attend.

The announcement of something doing at Bellview school house under the auspices of the Upper Valley organizations is sufficient to insure a crowd of enthusiastic spectators.

Knowing the object for which the entertainments are to be given, will but give added interest.

It is planned to have a food and candy sale in connection with the Christmas play. The date of the entertainment is not set but will be shortly before Christmas.

The plans for the Community House include a building fifty by thirty, with a kitchen, a stage and dressing rooms. It is to be rustic in design, architecturally artistic, and quite in keeping with the beautiful woody surroundings.

The Civic Club especially and the community at large congratulate the organizations who are sponsoring the erection of this building and await with interest its accomplishment.

Upper Valley Community Club Meets—The Upper Valley Community club held its meeting Tuesday of this week at the home of Mrs. C. A. Brown in Bellview. It was an all day meeting with Miss Ada Brewster present to supervise the making of delicious candies.

The morning was spent in candy making, with quite a number there to assist. Others came in the afternoon. Lunch was served at noon following the usual plan.

At this meeting it was decided to donate to the community house fund the money from the sale of the candy at the Christmas entertainment. Every one present was enthusiastic over the prospect of building a Club House and entered heartily into the plans looking toward that end.

The next meeting will be in January with another all day meeting featuring the cooking of winter vegetables, breads and angel food cake. Miss Brewster will be present.

Marriage Announcement—The marriage of Mrs. Blanche E. Daugherty and Mr. Rolfe J. Rinabarger was solemnized Monday afternoon at half past four o'clock at the Methodist Parsonage. The Rev. H. F. Pemberton officiated.

The wedding was a very quiet affair, there being, other than the contracting parties, only Mrs.
