Our Mrs. Hanson also gave an extemporaneous address on the subject of 'The Motherhood of Today' and the 'Motherhood of Tomorrow'.

A goodly number of the mothers were present with their little ones and the meeting was greatly appreciated by all.

After the business meeting, which included our adherence to the World Court in the minutes of the previous meeting, the program was turned over to the chairman of the mothers' meeting, Mrs. Frasier.

An excellent program on "Motherhood" was rendered. Two fine papers were furnished by Mrs. B. L. Powell and Mrs. J. C. Margier. The third was a carefully arranged and spirit-

The evening was spent very pleasantly in the visit of good friends, none enjoying it more than the one whose birthday was celebrated so happily.

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church held its usual meeting in the Junior room. There were the majority of the members present to go on with the work planned.

One of the most attractive and successful affairs ever given by the Lithians occurred Wednesday evening of last week. Too late for publication in Thursday's issue.

This function was given in honor of those recently married in their membership. The complimented guests being Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Young and Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kay.

Covers were laid for nearly one hundred at an elaborate banquet served at the Luthia Springs hotel. V. D. Miller presided as toast master.

Booths had been arranged to hold the gifts, which had been augmented by articles sent from Klamath Falls and other places and many hours had been spent in decoration—the result being a beautiful display room.

After the banquet, guests adjourned to the Japanese Gardens at Memorial Hall. As an opening number all formed for the Grand March, led by Mr. and Mrs. V. Y. Mills.

The grand march then changed to a waltz. A mock wedding followed in which C. A. Robertson officiated at the ceremony.

This occasioned much merriment as did many an other bit of fun that had place in the program of jollity and dancing which rounded out an evening, conceded by all present to be one of the most delightful of the many delightful ones given by this organization.

An innovation this evening however was the privilege extended the membership of inviting another couple to enjoy with them the pleasant affair.

Those on the committee arranging this successful banquet and dancing party were the Messrs. Millard Grubb, Jack Edwards, W. M. Briggs, V. Y. Mills, C. A. Robertson and Captain C. A. Malone.

Much credit is due this committee for its successful accomplishment.

Auxiliary to Trinity Guild Meets—Mrs. N. S. Simpkins and Mrs. J. R. Edwards are hostesses at the social evening of Auxiliary to Trinity Guild, which meets Wednesday evening, December the sixteenth.

Cards will furnish entertainment. No doubt many will bring their Christmas needlework.

Refreshments are served as a pleasant close by the hostesses in charge.

Basar and Food Sale A Success—The Basar and Food Sale given by the ladies of the Social Circle was an unqualified success netting the organization a goodly sum.

The room where it was held was a bower of loveliness, and it looked as if the ladies were Santa's own assistants, from the amount and variety of the articles suitable for gifts which were displayed.

Booths had been arranged to hold the gifts, which had been augmented by articles sent from Klamath Falls and other places and many hours had been spent in decoration—the result being a beautiful display room.

After the banquet, guests adjourned to the Japanese Gardens at Memorial Hall. As an which covered items of especial interest to the club. It was decided to again sponsor the furnishing of milk for undernourished children, as was done last year.

The next meeting will be in January, the second Friday at the usual hour.

Additional Society Notes will appear in tomorrow's Tidings.

Fortnightly Bridge Club Meets—The Fortnightly Bridge Club met Saturday evening, with Mrs. Walter Bevington as hostess.

Owing to the fact that a number of the membership were out of town but two tables of bridge were played.

A most delightful two-course luncheon served by the hostess brought to a close a very happy evening.

Those present were Mrs. O. W. Long, Mrs. A. Dyrud, Mrs. J. R. McRae, Mrs. Frank Merrill, Mrs. H. F. Gillette, Mrs. C. W. Wims, Mrs. G. W. Hedberg, and the hostess, Mrs. Bevington.

Mrs. O. W. Long secured first prize and Mrs. C. H. Hedberg consolation in the game played.

Trinity Guild Meets—Thursday of this week Trinity Guild holds its social afternoon. There will be pleasant plans for the afternoon. A food sale is also held the same afternoon, probably in the room formerly occupied by Mrs. Sugg's Millinery store. Announcement will be made later however as to place.

Hawthorne P. T. A. Meets—Hawthorne Circle P. T. A. held its meeting last Friday
