Thursday, December 24—Christmas exercises at the Methodist Congregational, Baptists, Presbyterian, Nazarene, Christian and a number of others.

Stunt Party A Success—

The Stunt Program put on by the Campfire Girls of the High School groups was a very successful entertainment and one that well repaid those who attended.

From the opening number until the close, interesting, beautiful or amusing numbers followed in rapid succession. To those who watched and listened, it was a matter of wondering comment, that such a variety of difficult presentations could be arranged in the short time in which this splendid program was prepared.

The girls are to be complimented and the leaders congratulated on the entertainment given Friday night.

Campfire Group Entertained—

Miss Elaine Flackus was hostess Saturday afternoon from two to five at a Christmas party given for the members of her troop of Camp Fire Girls.

With the leaders, Miss Edna Goheen and Miss Nora Ward, there were twenty-one present to enjoy the pleasant afternoon. Games were played, carols were sung and a jolly time generally obtained during the afternoon; at the close of which rather elaborate refreshments were served. During the afternoon, the girls enjoyed the opening of the packages brought for each other, and the plan adopted is to make some one else happy with the gifts brought.

Christmas in the Churches—

At all the churches Sunday Christmas sermons were heard, beautiful decorations were seen and lovely music brought the Christmas spirit very near. Great trees, soon to be laden with the treat to make little ones happy, beautiful wreaths, gay bells and flowers made glad the heart of all who saw them.

At the Presbyterian church, the men's quartet gave a number of beautiful selections with a solo by J. W. McCoy. Christmas carols were sung by the congregation, and a Christmas sermon was given by the pastor, the Rev. J. C. Mergier. At this church the Christmas entertainment will be Thursday evening at seven o'clock.

A Christmas Cantata was presented Sunday evening at the Methodist church to an audience of several hundred. The church was beautifully decorated in holiday greenery, a fit setting for the beautiful cantata which the listeners enjoyed most thoroughly.

Solos, duets, trios, quartets and choruses carried out the story of "The Christ Child" in song.

A Christmas sermon at the Congregational church was given Sunday morning. The church was beautifully decorated for the Christmas week. At this church, as well as at the Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist and a number of others, Christmas programs will be given Christmas Eve.

Valley View Community Club—Valley View Community Club held its meeting Thursday afternoon convening at two o'clock.

After the secretary's report and reports of standing committees, the opening number of the program was given, which was roll call, naming the favorite author and reasons for that favoritism.

Mrs. William Glenn reviewed the play, "The Ten Commandments" in a very comprehensive fashion. Mrs. W. A. Stratton favored the club in a solo of the Christmas time. A paper on pears, carrying out the plan in the study of fruits, was written by Mrs. R. A. Chaney but which was read by Mrs. James Lennox.

Mrs. Nettie Keith, a visitor from San Francisco, a guest of Mrs. William Glenn, was an interested visitor.

Mrs. James Lennox and Mrs. J. R. McCracken were the hostesses and served delightful refreshments.

Plans for the holidays have been changed because of the absence of so many of the members. Those who have gone or are going to California are Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weagart, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Glasgow and Mrs. Glasgow's mother, Mrs. Brandenburg, Mrs. W. A. Stratton and Jean and Frank.

Many of these named have already gone. Others will leave this week. Announcement will be made of the date of the next meeting.

Complimentary Luncheon—In compliment to Mrs. Naomi Montgomery, a bridge luncheon was given at the Hotel Medford Thursday, with covers laid for twenty-five guests at the beautiful appointed table with its attractive place cards and beautiful arrangement of carnations as centerpieces. An elaborate four course luncheon was served.

Mrs. Perry was hostess at her pleasant home for the afternoon of bridge, which followed luncheon. A beautiful silver sandwich tray was presented the guest of honor, Mrs. Montgomery, as a slight indication of the esteem in which she is held.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery are leaving for Corvallis soon, where Mr. Montgomery assumes the duties of ticket agent for the Southern Pacific. Those of Mrs. Montgomery's friends who attended from Ashland were: Mrs. Louis Schwin, Mrs. Hal McNair, Mrs. I. Bateman and Mrs. Wollers from Talent.

Splendid Entertainment At Bellview—

Friday evening's entertainment presented by the Bellview P. T. A., and the Upper Valley Community Club—was an unqualified success. So much so that it will be repeated this evening.

"Fun on the Podunk Limited" was all that it suggested by the title for fun it was from start to finish. It was a one act comedy, somewhat over an hour, with not a dull moment.

The stage setting was a chair car on the "Podunk Limited," and here the fun took place. To appreciate it one must have been there. Those who took part certainly entered into the spirit of the characters assumed.

All sorts were there, the farmer, the Irish woman, the suffragist, the fat woman, the old maid, the deaf woman, the fat man, the woman with the baby, the Norwegian girl, the one who stuttered, the colored porter, the old grandma, and grandpa, the stylish young woman, the conductor and even the bride and groom.

Those who presented the different characters were Albert Thomas, Fred Homes, Mrs. Homer Baynes, Helen Johnson, Edwin Dunn, Mrs. Oscar Martin, Wilbur Tucker, Henry Homes, Mrs. Edwin Dunn, Mrs. Kenneth McWilliams, Gladys Johnson, Mrs. Fred Homes, Mrs. Norma Reeder, "Ebe" Dunn, Mrs. Dean Scott, Clarence Honess, Mrs. J. E. Gowland, Delta Martin, Bart Peachey, Mrs. Roy Hessebauer, the musicians, L. B. Tucker, Leonard Pettit, Mrs. Edwin Dunn, Miss Lolita Pierson, V. O. N. Smith; the director of play, Mrs. W. L. Moore.

Special numbers were given by the musicians, which were received with keen appreciation and heartily applauded.

Altogether, it was one of the most successful entertainments ever staged in Bellview. The splendid sum of $130 was added to the fund for the community house.

A clever work bag that every woman will like has made its appearance among novelties for Christmas. It may be used as a sewing bag or to carry one's knitting, or other pickup work, to the club or elsewhere. Nothing more unusual than an old straw hat crown, some figured silk and lamp shade or bead fringe is needed to make it. The straw bottom is lined with plain cotton and the top closed with a silk cord.

ed to the fund for the community house. Prior to and after the entertainment refreshments were sold that proved a popular feature.

Holiday Grooming

The Christmas holidays mean a rush of dances and dinners — of teas and informal reunions of friends!

Every woman during this gala period desires to look her best!

If she would do so, it is necessary to do a little extra grooming. When one's hours are so well taken up with social gaieties, special care must be given to hair, skin and nails!

Make your engagements well ahead of time, and assure yourself of a fresh appearance for every occasion!

W. B. A. Hold Card Party— "After a short lodge session at which the regular business was transacted, a card party was held by the Woman's Benefit Association on December 16, in the Odd Fellows Hall.

There was a large number present and progressive five hundred was much enjoyed. High score was held by Mrs. Tony Franco and Mrs. Cliff Payne, while Mrs. J. A. Ruger and Mrs. Robert Shaw were given the consolation prizes.

Lovely refreshments were served in the dining room about eleven o'clock.

The committees making this such a success, were Mrs. Ed High and Mrs. Cedric Myer, in charge of the tables and Mrs. Cliff Payne head of the refreshment committee, in Mrs. Stanton's place, who was ill. She was assisted by Mrs. Lena Nelson, Mrs. Callahan and Mrs. Hazel Haberly.

The W. B. A. will install officers for the coming year on January 6, 1927, when it is hoped every member will be present."

This interesting report was supplied by the press chairman of the organization. The editor appreciates very much the thoughtfulness that prepares these reports and will be glad indeed to have the different organizations appoint a press committee who will see that advance notices of meetings are in her hands in time for publication and a good report sent of the meeting when it is held.

Delightful Surprise— A surprise birthday dinner was given for Lee Pitfield, at his home on the Boulevard, Friday evening.

At this the members of both families were present and covers were laid for fourteen at a table burdened with its weight of good things provided for the family feast, for least it really was on this occasion.

Many remembrances of this anniversary were given the complimented guest and the hours sped all to quickly with the fun and jollity of the home visit. These present to offer congratulations and good wishes were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Moore, Misses Mabel and Marguerite Moore, Clyde Moore and baby Moore of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cleveland of Gold Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Adde, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Pitfield and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Pitfield.
