SMALL CHANGE PONZI MAKES APPEARANCE
LOS ANGELES, Dec. 22—(U. P.)—A "small-change Ponzi" has been unearthed here and his financial activities aired in court. Operating on the theory that a monopoly of all the small change in the county would enable him to amass a fortune, Louis Deveroy opened his operations downtown in Los Angeles, according to his testimony at a lunacy hearing before Superior Judge Walter S. Gates. His manipulations were interrupted by police. According to detectives De-very presented large bills for small purchases and demanded his change in "chicken feed." When taken into custody his pockets bulged with $425.19 in nickels, dimes and quarters. "If I had all the small change," the defendant pleaded, "rich people would have to pay me a bonus." The plea won him parole to the psychopathic officer.

CLIMBING LADDER WORSE THAN FIGHT
PASADENA, Cal., Dec. 22—(U. P.)—Chasing Mexican bandits, fighting Indians, or even braving the intense cold of the Klondike aren't to be compared with climbing a step-ladder. The first are mild forms of amusement as compared with the last in the opinion of Dr. Frederick Mosen, F. R. G. 3, who has done all of them. The adventurer came to this conclusion when he fell two feet from a step ladder in his laboratory here, and sustained severe injuries.

New Athens-Kamela branch, Walls Walls-Baker toll telephone line, will cost $8,500.

Oregon taxable property is $1,084,537,618, $25,000,000 more than last year.

REX BEACH'S "The Goose Woman"

Innocently she put him in the hands of the police, furnished the evidence, fitted the noose about his neck—she, his own Mother. It's a picture that's different, thrillingly, emotionally dramatic.
