for the gorgeous flowers.

Mrs. Pemberton made the presentation, in a happy little speech to which Mr. and Mrs. Rinabarger replied, voicing their appreciation of the lovely gift.

After the distribution of the presents, cards on which little Christmas trees were drawn were given out but which had been cut in parts, and by means of these, correctly matched, supper partners were chosen.

There were 25 present to enjoy the delightful evening which had as its closing feature delicious sandwiches, coffee and cake.

The class plan an all-day meeting in January, but announcement of the date will be made later.

Delphian Meeting Postponed

The meeting of the Delphians which was scheduled to be held the 29th, at the Civic Club house, has been postponed on account of the holiday season.

The Delphian Chapter is to supply the program at the Civic Club at its meeting on January 5, the opening meeting of the new year.

This program will be an especially interesting one and every member of the Civic Club is reminded to keep the date open so that all may be present to enjoy it.

Dinner at the Lithia Springs Hotel

The local forces at the telephone office were guests at a delightful dinner given at the Lithia Springs hotel Tuesday evening, when covers were laid for eight at the beautifully decorated table.

Holly was used in the centerpiece and unique favors afforded much amusement at the four course dinner, with turkey the pièce de résistance.

Those who enjoyed the dinner and social hour together were the Misses Hattie Burnett, Mildred Erickson, Bessie McMillan, Margaret Dayhoff, Mr. Atkins, wire chief, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Davis and Miss Myrta Otterdale.

The dinner was in compliment to the personnel of the local office.

Entertain At Dinner

Honoring the Misses Arlene Butler and Alta Knaps of Medford and Miss Mildred Crain of Ashland High, the Misses Laelle and Thelma Parozki were hostesses at a most attractive dinner party Tuesday evening. All guests and hostesses, are from the same school, U. of O.

Entertained At Dinner

Captain and Mrs. F. M. Moore, who are house guests at the home of Mrs. Moore's mother, Mrs. D. McCarthy, were all entertained, Sunday last, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Strange in Medford. Tuesday, December 22, Mrs. Herbert McCarthy was hostess at a delightful dinner celebrating two birthdays, which came on the same day. The honored guests were Capt. and Mrs. F. M. Moore and Mrs. D. McCarthy. Christmas Day there will be a wonderful family gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Evans in Bellview. At this gathering there will be the immediate Evans family, Captain and Mrs. F. M. Moore, Mrs. D. McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert McCarthy and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Foster of Klamath Falls.

Hawthorne and Annex Entertain

Beginning at one o'clock Wednesday afternoon the different rooms at Hawthorne and the Annex gave Christmas programs to capacity audiences. Standing room was at a premium, but every one was happy for the programs given, merited highest praise.

Children were happy for they were helping stage an entertainment so well worth while; teachers, because programs ran without a hitch and everyone well prepared. The parents and friends were happy for they were witnessing programs, well balanced, interesting and of unusual attractiveness.

The sixth, fifth and fourth grades held their exercises at the Annex in Miss Schmidt's
