HARTLEY IN HOT
WATER OVER BOOKS
OLYMPIA, Dec. 22.—(AP)— Mrs. Josephine Gorlin Preston, state superintendent of public instruction, today launched another offensive against Governor Harley's stand on the matter of printing free text books by the state printer. She put a printed report on the desk of every legislator, ridiculing the governor's statement in his first message that the state could save $500,000 annually by printing free text books. She said the average cost of the free text books for the last five years was $371,529.21 annually.
