Flag Bearer, Eva Louise Jones; Inner Sentinel, L. A. Roberts; Advisor, Hattie L. Moore; Managers, Mrs. Josephine Crocker, Mrs. Mary R. Shuttis, and Mrs. Wm. F. Stennett.

After the initiation of candidates, delightful refreshments were served. Beautiful red carnations were used as a centerpiece at the table. Those on the committee to plan for the refreshments were: Mrs. Ed High, chairman, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Stennett. They were assisted by Mrs. Hicks and Mrs. Prescott.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Smith Entertain—

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Smith entertained a number of friends last Wednesday, commemorating their eighth wedding anniversary and also the birthday of two of their friends, Mr. John Rigg and Mrs. Eric Weren.

The table was lovely in its colorful holiday decorations. In the center, a beautiful red basket held fruit and nuts, and red nut cups and place cards bearing the cheery polka-dots graced the place of each guest. "Red candles gave cheerful light.

A unique feature was the placement of two tiny birthday cakes, lighted by candles beside the plates of each of the honored guests and a beautiful anniversary cake, decorated in the appropriate number of candles was brought on to the satisfaction of all concerned.

Covers were laid for twelve at the delicious chicken dinner served with the following gathered about the hospitable board: Miss Jean Anderson, Miss Hazel Bruner, Miss Isabella Wattenberger, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gunter, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Weren, Mr. John Rigg, Iris Deter and Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mark.

Miss Hazel Bruner, Hostess—

Miss Hazel Bruner was hostess at a very delightful three-course luncheon, given during the holidays. A tiny Christmas tree, with red candles gave holiday air to the pretty table with its burden of delicacies.

Those enjoying this pleasant affair were: Miss Beulah Husey, Miss Ethel Field, Miss Minnie Beaver, Miss Wattenberger, Miss Jean Anderson, Mrs. Gerald Gunter, Mrs. E. O. Smith, Mrs. Eric Weren, Mrs. Rheinhardt Krugel, and little daughter and the hostess and her mother, Mrs. Bruner.

Upper Valley Community Club Meets—

The Upper Valley Community Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Homer Barron, next Tuesday, January 12. This will be an all day meeting and every member and others interested are urged to come.

It will be an angel food cake demonstration and will be most helpful. Miss Ada Brewster, county home demonstration agent will be present with her advice and assistance.

Westminster Guild Meets—

The Martha Gillette Chapter, Westminster Guild will hold its meeting at the home of Miss Eva Poley, on next Monday evening.

Mrs. Randall Woods is chairman of the program committee, and she announces that there will be an interesting program as well as the social hour.

The book review on "Looking Ahead with Latin America" will be given by Mrs. J. C. Merzler and a paper will also be read on "Korea."

During the social hour fancy work will engage the interest of those present. Refreshments are served at the close of the evening.

Wednesday Club Meets—

The Wednesday Club will have its meeting on January thirteenth next Wednesday afternoon at the Presbyterian church.

Pleasant plans are made for the afternoon by the hostesses Mrs. M. B. Riley and Mrs. J. R. Robertson.

Ladies of the congregation and friends are cordially welcomed at these meetings. Strangers are especially invited.

F. T. A. Meetings—

Hawthorne Circle P. T. A. will hold its meeting on Friday afternoon, three thirty, at Hawthorne building.

It is planned to have girls to take care of the small children so that mothers with little ones may come and enjoy the meeting and feel that the little people will be well taken care of during the meeting.

All members are urged to be present.

Junior High Meets—

Junior High Circle P. T. A. holds its meeting at the Junior High building Wednesday, January 13, at 3:15 p. m.

The subject for discussion will be "Home Life." Mrs. Cadzow will talk on "The Social Life in the Home" and Mrs. H. A. Stearns will present "Love of Home and Loyalty to Each Other."

All members of the organization and all interested in the schools are asked to be present to enjoy the meeting Wednesday afternoon.

High School Circle Meets—

The High School meets at the Library, Monday, January 11, at 2:30 p. m. Every member is urged to be present.

Many things of interest will be presented for discussion and a full attendance is desired.

Series of Dinners Being Given—

On Friday last, Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Swendenburg entertained a number of their friends at a Swedish New Year's dinner.

"Lut Fisk" or, as is known in English, "Stock fish" was featured in the altogether delightful dinner, with its delicious plum pudding, a satisfying dose.

Pink roses and chrysanthemums formed the artistic centerpiece at the beautifully appointed table, with covers laid for the following guests: Dr. and Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, and Mr. and Mrs. George Kramer.

Cards and the pleasant visit of friends made an evening of enjoyment for guests and host and hostess.

Dinner Sunday Evening—

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Briggs and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McNair and daughter Marjorie and Mrs. Charles Angie were guests at another Swedish dinner given by Dr. and Mrs. F. G. Swendenburg at their hospitable home.

Music, conversation and the delightful entertainment afforded by the accomplished little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McNair, made for a very happy evening.

Mrs. Verne Cary Surprised—

Mrs. Verne Cary was delightfully surprised at her home on Second street last Saturday, when a number of her intimate friends came in to spend the afternoon.

The hours were spent in conversation and dainty needlework. The delicious refreshments served had been brought by the guests.

Those present were: Mrs. Eric Weren, Miss Jean Anderson, Mrs. Everett Smith, Mrs. Gerald Gunter, Miss Hazel Bruner, Mrs. Rheinhardt Krugel, Miss Isabella Wattenberger, Mrs. Ross Elison and the hostess, Mrs. Cary.

Family Dinner at Grants Pass—

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Stearns and family spent Sunday in Grants Pass the guests of Dr. Ralph W. Stearns, at whose home the second of the family reunions held during the holidays occurred, the first being at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Stearns in Ashland, when there were twenty two present. At Sunday's dinner there were sixteen of the relatives there to enjoy the delicious dinner and the visit which followed.

Entertained at Dinner—

Mr. and Mrs. John Bonar and Mrs. Reid and Miss Ethel Reid were dinner guests at the pleasant apartment of the Misses Gertie Haan and Edna Goheen, Sunday.

Covers were laid for seven at the delightful little dinner, which all enjoyed with the pleasant visit which followed.

French Club Meets—

A majority of the membership of the French Club was present Monday evening at the home of Mrs. G. M. Green, where Mrs. T. J. Malmgren had been a dinner guest.

The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Wilmer Poley next Monday evening.

Mrs. Woodside Entertained—

Mrs. Vivian Woodside was the guest of honor at an informal luncheon, given for her last Saturday, by Mrs. Oeder. The afternoon was spent in playing Bridge, Mrs. Arthur Coggins winning the high score.

Mrs. Woodside has been spending the holidays with her husband at Klamath Falls, and on her return to her studies at the University of Oregon, spent a short time visiting with friends in Ashland.

College Club Meets—

Saturday, January the ninth, the Rogue River Valley College Women's Club will meet in Ashland in regular session.

This meeting is prepared by "No Hostess" luncheon, at the Lithia Springs Hotel, at 1:30 p. m. The luncheon is an annual affair, and college women, who are interested are welcomed.

Those who plan to attend are asked to send their names to Miss Beryl Jarmon, who is in charge of arrangements.

The program will be given in the ballroom, following the luncheon and college women attending the luncheon, if members of the club or not, are invited to enjoy the afternoon program with the club.

Lula Hilus Meets—

Lula Hilus Campfire Girls met at the home of Miss Edna Goheen, one of the Guardians, on Oak Street, Tuesday afternoon, December 29, 1935.

After the business meeting the afternoon was spent in delightful games. The social hour was in honor of the camp president, Miss Elaine Flackus, whose birthday was celebrated so pleasantly. Light refreshments were served. Signed, Scribe, Carol Clark.

The Ashland Study Club held the Monday's meeting at the home of Mrs. D. Perosi, convening at 8:30 p. m.

Roll call proved especially interesting in the discussion of "Men who accomplished things in later life."

The half hour was devoted to the review of a rather unusual book, "The Diary of a Forty-Niner," which was told very entertainingly by Mrs. H. O. Anderson.

Mrs. T. J. Malmgren brought "Quare Women," by Lucy Fruman, which has been running in the Atlantic Monthly, but is now published in book form, called "Quare Women." All enjoyed the splendid review and the amusing excerpts from the volume.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gordon MacCracken on Vista street.
