CONTEST FOR GOLF CLUB NAME STARTS

A contest was started this afternoon by J. L. Ketch, local realtor, to secure a name for the new country club and golf links, which is situated in the edge of the foothills a short distance beyond Talent. Work on the course was started yesterday. The winner of the contest will be awarded a charter membership in the club, Ketch announces.

LOCAL DAIRYMAN BUYS PUREBREDS

E. B. Poyer, well known local dairyman, recently purchased a young registered Jersey bull, son of Rinda Lad of Sunny Brook on his dam's side and tracing to Mawes and Rosaris Olga Lad on the sire's side, which he expects to place at the head of his herd of Jerseys.

During the same sale, Poyer purchased a three-year-old registered Jersey cow, with practically the same blood lines as the young bull.

BELLINGHAM SHERIFF FINED FOR CONTEMPT

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Jan. 7. (AP)—Sheriff A. L. Callahan was fined $10 and costs in the United States District Court here today for contempt. The case grew out of charges that Callahan allowed federal prisoners, committed to the Whatcom jail, freedom from the prison premises. Callahan admitted his guilt, but denied any intent to allow the prisoners to escape.

Are You Clever?

Prove it by submitting the winning name for the New Country Club and Golf Links situated in the edge of the foothills a short way beyond Talent. Drive out and look it over. Follow the arrows. Stroll over the course, get the superb view of the Rogue River Valley from the eighth tee. Then submit an appropriate name and win a charter membership in the Club for which others must pay one hundred dollars. This is going to be a Club of which Southern Oregon can be proud. Identify yourself with it from the start. Be its namer.

Seal your Country Club name in one envelope and your own name in another and hand them in together. The two envelopes will be given one number and the second envelope will not be opened until after the judging.

The contest closes on Feb. 10. At that time the best name will be chosen and the prize membership bestowed. Hand or mail your name to
