Future Planes To Be Air Mamoths
Here is the description of this huge bird:
"The machine will appear like a vast bird containing many motors, tanks, equipment passengers and freight. That is to say that this bird will be sufficiently spacious to permit the liberal circulation of passengers and their baggage within it."
"This huge bird will have three bodies—the central body containing navigation equipment and room for pilot and command, and the lateral bodies containing lobbies, dining halls, saloons and first-class cabins."
"The freight compartments could be set at the rear of the machine and the propellers would be found back of the single plane. The lower cabins would be within the forward part of this plane."
"The total weight would be about 55 tons, the dead weight of the apparatus being about 30 tons, the additional weight of essential equipment and gasoline leaving some 14 tons for the passengers and their baggage."
"The commercial speed of this machine would be about 140 miles an hour and its radius of action would be about 2500 miles."
Thus the dream of some modern thinkers for a sort of floating island in the middle of the Atlantic, as a refueling station for future airplane transports, is surpassed by the non-stop ocean flyer of Louis Brueat.

ABOUT TOWN
IN HOLLYWOOD
HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Filmdom has many bizarre haunts where only recognized nations are allowed to enter. They include exotic tea-rooms, loggias, parlors and Oriental bath-rooms. Hollywood is a veritable cornucopia of duplicated anywhere.
Recently, Madame Helpho, stately woman of the black outfit, opened a distinctive tea-room within the gates of one of the leading screen plants. Her job is to feed a selected group of actors and actresses with the particular victuals required to preserve their physical charms, their chief stock in trade. Here are most of her restricted clientele, and their favorite nourishment:
Jack Mulhall: Radishes, spinach and greens.
Lloyd Hughes: A complete old-fashioned New England boiled dinner.
Cohen Moore: Hand-fed turkey with dressing, marmalade and sherbet dessert.
Charles Murray: Corned beef and cabbage.
Hugh Allan: Peas, a variety of them.
Dolores del Rio: Avocados.
Rita Carewe: Mushrooms.
Lewis Stone: Breast of the guinea.
Joyce Compton: Biscuit and oranges.
Anna Q. Nilsson: Rhubarb.
Blanche Sweet: Orange marmalade, squash on toast.

ROSCOS "FATTY" ARBUCKLE is not the has-been in the film business that is popularly supposed. The obese comedian is directing comedies under a nom de plume, at salary envied by many other megaphone artists and stars.

YOUTH ENJOYING ICE SKATING HERE
In spite of the sunshine of the past few days, skaters are still enjoying good sport on the upper lake in Litchia Park. This morning there were six or seven young men gliding about over the ice. They reported the ice to be about four inches thick, and although a trifle rough, they declare it furnishes splendid skating.

SCOUT MANUAL SELECTION OF U. O. TEACHER
WASHINGTON—A lot of patriotism mixed up in the controversy over the relative greatness of the late Col. Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson.
It doesn't seem as if the validity of a dead man's claim to the honor of a national memorial ought to be regarded as depending on whether he was a Republican or a Democrat, but apparently that's the way Congress looks at it.
At any rate, Congress members are divided mainly along party lines on the Roosevelt-Wilson memorial proposition.
If it were a question of the memorial alone, two memorials would settle the matter. But, as was pointed out recently, both groups want the same site.
As Washington is planned just one unoccupied spot remains in Potomac Park, where an imposing monument will show to the very best advantage.
The Rooseveltians thought they had this spot pre-empted and had their plans all drawn but now the Wilsonites are making a strong drive to upset the arrangement.
A surprising degree of bitter-

TOKYO, Jan. 9.—(AP)—Ten thousand at present lonely Japanese bachelors in Mexico and South America will be made happy with mates from their homeland next year if the plan being worked up by Mrs. K.
