

MALARIA GERMS
Cannot survive three months in the rich ozone at Ashland. Pure domestic water helps.

ASHLAND DAILY TIDINGS

The Tidings Has Been Ashland's Leading Newspaper For Nearly Fifty Years
(United Press Wire Service)

ASHLAND CLIMATE
Without the medicine cure nine cases of asthma. This historical fact.

VOL. XLIX Successor to the Semi-Weekly Tidings, Volume 43 ASHLAND, OREGON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1926 NO. 120

BELOW ZERO WEATHER GRIPS ENTIRE EAST

Chicago Gripped by Sub-Zero Temperatures, Reported

FLORIDA SWELTERS

Hot Tropical Night in Florida Results in Many Moonlight Bathing Parties

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22—(U.P.)—A gigantic cold wave, with extreme low temperatures, will spread over the Atlantic and Gulf states tonight, bringing freezing weather as far north as Central Florida, the weather bureau predicted.

CHICAGO, Jan. 22—(U.P.)—Sub zero weather chilled the Middle West today. Chicago's loop thermometers registered five degrees below zero. In the suburbs, the mercury dropped as low as nine degrees below zero.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 22—(U.P.)—Virtually all Ohio is blanketed in snow. In some places the heavy fall has drifted into huge drifts. Near zero temperatures have been predicted for tonight.

DETROIT, Jan. 22—(U.P.)—Thermometers here registered four degrees above zero at 8 a. m. Colder weather has been predicted by the weather bureau.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22—(U.P.)—After a week of spring like days, the city was swept by a snow storm early today. The weather bureau said the cold spell would last until the first of next week.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 22—(U.P.)—Zero and below zero weather is expected in Northern Missouri today.

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 22—(U.P.)—Tourists and Floridians sweltered through a sticky, hot tropical night last night. Many moonlight bathing parties found relief from the hot weather which has gripped this section for several days.

DOG AT DORRIS, MAD, BITES THREE PERSONS

KLAMATH FALLS, Jan. 22—(U.P.)—A dog belonging to Elmer Marshall of Dorris, California, for years a faithful pet, went mad and bit three members of the Marshall family, according to word received here today. Serum for the treatment of rabies was sent from here. After the attack, the dog disappeared.

ASHLAND HOOPSTERS START 3 GAME BARNSTORM TRIP

With three of the toughest games possible to obtain lined up, Coach Walt Hughes and the Ashland High school basketball squad left this morning for Roseburg, where they tangle with the Roseburg five this evening. Tomorrow night the locals will meet with Albany, on the Albany floor, and on Monday night, the Salem quintet will form the opposition for the Ashland five.

Provide Petting Place for Poor Nellie and Joe

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22—Petting places for the poor were urged upon the National Recreation conference today by Ethelbert Stewart, commissioner of labor statistics in the department of labor, who pleaded for the opening of public spaces in American cities to the "blue jean" workers in great industrial plants.

JAEGER SAYS CITIES MUST HELP SELVES

Portland Chamber Leader Says Golf Course is Big Need
If the smaller community is bound to advertise nationally, let it advertise in the agricultural periodicals and magazines which appeal to the farmer. Is the opinion of Joseph Jaeger, chairman of the publicity and advertising committee of the Portland chamber of commerce.

Lithians Hope to Promote Pageant For Lithia Park

The promotion of a pageant, similar to Rosaria, put on in Portland each year, for Ashland, and the appointment of new committee heads, were the main items of business transacted at the meeting of the Lithians last night.

Mellon Before U. S. Senate Finance Committee

Secretary of Treasury submits plan for tax reduction in 1926. Left to right are, Senator Samuel Shortridge, of California; Senator William B. McKinley, of Illinois; Senator Robert N. Stanford, of Oregon, who is making an active fight for tax reduction as it affects the farmer; Secretary David A. Reed, of Pennsylvania; Senator Charles Curtis, of Kansas; Senator George F. McLean, of Connecticut; Senator Richard P. Ernest of Kentucky; Sarrand P. Winston, undersecretary of the Treasury; Andrew W. Mellon; Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah; Senator F. M. Simmons, of North Carolina; Senator Pat William H. King, of Utah; Senator Walter F. George, of Georgia.

BARNARD JOY IS HOME AFTER CONTEST TRIP

Local Youth Spoke Before Farm Bodies in North
Barnard Joy who won the state wide marketing contest held in Portland recently, returned home last night, after giving his talk on marketing before several groups of farmers and business men in Portland.

Lithians Hope to Promote Pageant For Lithia Park

The promotion of a pageant, similar to Rosaria, put on in Portland each year, for Ashland, and the appointment of new committee heads, were the main items of business transacted at the meeting of the Lithians last night.

Polecat "To Get His'n" Predatory Week

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 22—Every dog has his day, but the California polecat is going to have a whole week. A meeting of state officials, cattlemen and representatives of sportsmen's organizations, it was announced here today, will be held in San Francisco next Monday under the auspices of the California Development association to discuss plans for a "predatory animal week" which, it is hoped, will focus public attention on the desirability of slaying the skunk, the coyote, the wildcat, the mountain lion and other animals unpopular with stockmen or poultry raisers.

TOMORROW IS FINAL DAY OF THRIFT WEEK

Campaign for Thrift in Country Ends Saturday
Tomorrow, "Pay Bills Promptly Day" is the final day of Thrift Week, which started last Sunday.

ROBERT WRIGHT IS CHOSEN AS BEAVER KNIGHT

Honorary Society of Sophomores Choses Local Boy
OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Jan. 22—Robert Wright of Ashland has been pledged to Beaver Knight, a vigilance society. He has been chosen as one of 54 freshmen to represent his class in upholding the traditions of the college, ushering at games, and acting as a disciplinary officer among the students.

EVIDENCE QUASHED IN OLMSTEAD CASE

SEATTLE, Jan. 22—(U.P.)—That many of the defendants in the Olmstead liquor conspiracy case will be freed of charges against them before the case goes to the jury was predicted today, as the case proceeded on its fourth day. Favorable rulings by Judge Neterer to the defense objections, caused a wave of optimism to sweep the lesser lights in the case.

CARDINAL MERCIER IS SINKING FAST

BRUSSELS, Jan. 22—(U.P.)—His life slowly dimming, and unable to take nourishment, Cardinal Mercier, dying Belgian prelate, was reported to have taken a turn for the worse today.

SALARIES OF INSTRUCTORS LOWER HERE

Churchill Reports Normal Instructors Hard to Obtain

FEW ARE LINED UP

Members of Board of Regents to be in City Next Week to Look Over Building
That it is impossible to pay salaries commensurate with those paid in the normal schools throughout the East, was the report of Superintendent of Schools J. A. Churchill, new president of the Southern Oregon Normal school, to the board of normal regents, at their meeting in Salem, Wednesday.

James Hartley Winner of Star Scout Badge

Nine Scouts from Troop Two journeyed to Medford last night to appear before the Court of Honor for this district and receive the badges showing advancement in Scout work. Six of these received the Second Class badges—Fred Cuthbertson, David Blake, Frank Pemberton, Everett Yeo, Loren Sewell and Wilson Torrance. Marion Frost and Lloyd High took First Class badges; James Hartley completed five of the merit badge tests and was awarded the Star Scout badge, the first to be awarded to any member of Troop Two.

SPANISH FLYER ON BUENOS AIRES TRIP

LAS PALMAS, Canary Islands, Jan. 22—(U.P.)—Commander Ramon Franco arrived here this afternoon on the first leg of his venturesome journey to Buenos Aires. He left Spain shortly before 8 o'clock this morning and completed the flight of more than 900 miles without a mishap. He arrived here at 4 p. m. in a dense fog. The whole population was gathered to meet him.

Record Fall

Private Stephen Boudreau, 21, dropped 3500 feet toward earth from the cockpit of an airplane before his parachute opened. He still had 1000 feet to go when the big umbrella broke his fall. His plunge before opening his parachute is considered a world record.

VOLT GIVING PUBLICITY TO SOUTHERN ORE.

"Midland Empire" Stressed in Latest Issue of Publication
What is being done by The California Oregon Power Company to attract new settlers and industries in this territory is explained at some length by this month's issue of the Volt which is now in its sixth year and has been aptly dubbed "America's most diminutive regular monthly publication." In this important work which is continuously carried on by The Copco concern two particular agencies stand out as accomplishing the greatest number of direct results. These are the New Industries Department and The Volt.

WILD LIFE INCREASING IN CRATER PARK SAYS REPORT

MEDFORD, Ore., Jan. 22—A census of the wild life in the Crater Lake National forest, recently prepared by forest officers, shows 3170 black tail deer at the head of the game list, 640 coyotes at the head of the predatory list and 900 martins leading the fur bearing animals. In connection with the census, a report on general game conditions is also made.

KIPP DECLARES GROWERS MUST BACK MANAGER

Editorial in The Tidings, Praised By Marketer

MEN RECOMMENDED

Portland Marketing Expert Declares New Man Must Have Full Backing
That the next manager of the Ashland Fruit and Produce association must have the support of the growers in fact, rather than in name only is the opinion of R. H. Kipp, manager of the marketing department of the Portland chamber of commerce.

THE WEATHER

Oregon and Washington
—Unsettled, followed by rain in the west portion and rain or snow in the east portion. Increasing southerly winds along the coast.

(Continued On Page Six)