A RENEWED COVENANT — "And he dreamed; * * And behold, Jehovah said, the land whereon thou liest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed; * * and in thee and in thy seed shall all the amilies of the earth be blessed." Gen. 12-14. PRAYER:—"We blen Thee, our God, for thy mercy which is from everlasting to everlasting; upon them that fear thee and unto children's children, we keep Thy covenant."

Mr. T. A. Raffety, Chief, State Traffic Dept., Salem, Ore.,

Dear T. A .: There is something that has been bothering me for quite a while, and you, being head of the traffic department of the state, should be able to answer the question for me.

Your traffic officers are in charge of enforcing the traffic laws. There are those who violate these laws, and are put under arrest. That is all as it should be.

But here is where the kick comes. Why it is that your traffic officers, even though they arrest law violators in this city, or even perhaps south of the city, force that man to travel to Medford, to appear before Justice of the Peace G. O. Taylor! It is done times without number, in this end of the state.

One striking example was brought home yesterday afternoon. An Ashland real estate man was arrested for driving with his brakes in bad shape. He admitted his fault and was ready to pay the penalty. What he did object to was being made drive 13 miles to Medford, to appear before a Justice, and then return 13 miles, when he could have appeared before a Justice in Ashland just as easily. The arrest was made in Ashland, the traffic motorcycle probably got officer, J. J. McMahon was in Ashland and could have idea from a jass band. made it much more convenient for the violator.

This is done many times, and McMahon is the worst offender. He will not bring a man before Justice of the Peace L. A. Roberts of this city unless it is absolutely sumption is ten times worse. necessary, and he sees to it many times that it is not absolutely necessary.

Why is it that your men will not bring their viola- shable, but you can get along Yet the mayor of the city is tors before Judge Roberts! Is it, as has been rumored, better on a good digestion. that they refuse to do so because Roberts will not "hit them hard enough," that he insists that his decisions be based upon good judgment and common sense! Is it be- braggin' about the elimate, the see a Christmas tie we envy cause he will not allow "back room" decisions to be made average Chamber o' Commerce this North Dakota man with greational elections are in sight their city-Vienna has for before he decides upon the penalty which he metes out! makes little headway."

You are in a position to correct this evil. Your department has received some pretty hard knocks through OUT OUR WAY the actions of certain of your men in this section of the state, and a little effort on your part might aid in giving it the prestige it should have. What one poor officer does overshadows what twenty good ones do.

Think it over, T. A. sincerely yours, Auntie Ashland.

Mr. R. G. Fowler, County Agent, Medford, Ore.,

Dear Bob: Well, you put it over in grand shape. That meeting of farmers' here during this week was a wonderful one. and forever put into the discard the belief that farmers will not attend these meetings if they are held in Ashland

Those who attended the gatherings were rewarded by hearing some fine speakers, men who know their business thoroughly, and men who are able to teach what they know, to others.

I am sure the farmers obtained much good from their attendance, and are all thankful that they were given the opportunity to attend.

Now that we have killed the old bugbear of no attendance in Ashland, I hope we can have meetings here nore often.

Yours truly, Auntie Ashland.
