KLAMATH OFFICIALS SERENADED BY TRIO

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Feb. 8.—A merry trio of musicians, a strummer and two fiddlers, hold forth in the basement of the county court house during the slack part of the day. In a tiny room in the northwestern part of the building, the musicians, their feet beating time, play two-step after two-step, the same sprightly tunes that used to furnish the music at dances here twenty and thirty years ago.

The trio are a county jail trusty, a deputy sheriff and a club leader. Silas Barclay, guitarist de luxe, is the trusty; Jo Kimsey the deputy sheriff, and Frank Sexton, the county club leader.

helpful nature. At the next it is hoped to secure a special speaker or speakers.

Announcement will be made, however, as to speaker and subject before the next meeting which is the first of March.

Theatre Party—A delightful Theatre party occurred Wednesday evening, last, when the girls of the Glee Club attended "Charlie's Aunt," then being shown at the Vining.

The merry group met at Dr. C. W. Hanson's waiting room, and went from there to the theatre. They were accompanied by the director, Miss Alleen Shepard.

The members of the club are: Dorothy Yeo, Jessie Baker, Betty Brown, Linda Oeder, Doris Hitchcock, Lydia Smith, Gertrude Ahlstrom, Lois Hanson, Calla Eaton, Sarah Say, Emily Taylor, Vera Landing, Eugene's Young, Helen Pemberton, Vera Wright, Dorothy Stevens, Lucille Carson, Madge and Marie Mitchell and Rosita McGee.

Berean Class Entertained—Mrs. S. A. Peters and Miss Caribel Mprehouse were hostesses entertaining the Berean Class of the Baptist church, at the home of Miss Morehouse, recently.

Lovely Valentine decorations, shown in hearts and red and white streamers, arranged artistically about the rooms, gave the festive note to the occasion.

Games and contests, with the Valentine motif afforded much enjoyment during the evening and the original stunts in which each one took part were most amusing.

Ice cream and cake were the satisfying refreshments served at the close of the delightful evening. A beautiful birthday cake, with the appropriate number of candles was brought in and presented to the Rev. Myron T. Woodworth, it having been discovered that another milestone was marked for him at this time.

Many were present, for the members of the class had invited their husbands to enjoy the pleasant hours with them.

The evening closed in community singing of the old and new songs, led by Y. D. Miller.

Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames V. D. Miller, Boyd, Frank Beawick, E. A. Denton, S. A. Peters, Sr., Noel Heard, H. O. Anderson, Wilkins, James, Philpott, Travis, Mrs. Alta Hanson, Mrs. Hinthorne, Mrs. Sedgwick, Mrs. Ward, the Rev. Mr. Woodworth, Mr. and Mrs. Morehouse and Miss Caribel Morehouse.

Mrs. Frank Beawick is the teacher of the Berean Class.
