

DAILY TIDINGS

After a short business session, Mrs. Ralph Williams told of the club work, explaining the advantages and its progress up to the present time.

The address "Vocational Training," about the able leadership of Mrs. Good was very interesting and instructive. The Vocational Training class for 7-B boys has been in Junior High for two years. It meets the first period after noon.

For the boy of today, who is the man of tomorrow, vocational training has four aims: comfortable income, joy in his work, opportunity for growth and a chance to serve others.

To be successful one must not only make good in a financial way but must also have a social life. More than half the boys of the United States quit school before finishing eighth grade.

The question is, "What Shall I Be?" a job, a position or a work to love and put your intense soul into its accomplishment? Glad work is not measured in a financial way alone.

Much of the unrest of today is caused by misfits or folks who have missed their calling. A broad foundation is needed before specializing. These are only a few of the many good points brought and the mothers who attended although it was a rainy day felt well repaid for their effort in coming.

Home Missionary Meeting—About forty ladies of the Methodist parish, members of the Home Missionary Society, gathered on Friday afternoon to share the hospitality of Mrs. H. J. Van Posen, at her home on North Main St.

The meeting opened with a Victoria selection "Open the Gates of the Temple," a beautiful and appropriate solo. The devotional part of the meeting was led by Mrs. Powell, and was followed by a business meeting, when reports were read and it was voted to change the opening hour of future meetings from 2:00 p. m. to 2:30 p. m.

It was also decided to purchase and present to the Public Library several volumes on "Temperance."

A song by Mrs. Pemberton was a prelude to its study hour. Mrs. Kelsey gave a most interesting and detailed account of the activities of the Chinese Girls' Home in San Francisco, with individual histories of several cases cared there. Mrs. Frazier had general charge of the lesson on "Bible Worship in America" and was assisted by several ladies who reviewed various aspects of this topic.

"During the social hour which followed, the hostess served delicious refreshments appropriate to the festive occasion, and a most pleasant evening was enjoyed by all present."

Officers installed at this time were: Queen, Mrs. Alice Winch; Princess, Mrs. Mabel Montgomery; Medford, Princess Pirie; Mrs. Lorena McFar, Ashland; Princess Bessie, Sallie Lundberg; Grants Pass, Princess Keesler; Sophia Baker, Grants Pass; Princess Barker, Frances Eckman; Medford, Princess Marshall; Ethel Boggs, Medford; Princess Chaplain, Caribel Boyce, Medford; Princess Musicians, Pearl Marks, Grants Pass. Appointive officers, Georgie Guley, Sumner Older, Blanche Stinebaugh, Grace Malone, Margaret Whittle, Amelia Britt, Louise Lee.

The Queen's Attendants were Gladys McAdams and Florence Middle, Grants Pass.

Those who attended from Ashland were the Mesdames C. E. Vaseg, F. F. Whittle, J. E. Beteman, W. M. McNair, C. A. Malone, Tony Franco, Purvis, Belle Schwein, Will Loomis, and J. C. Poor.

Dinner Dance A Successful Affair—The dinner dance given at the Lithia Springs hotel was an altogether delightful affair, with many guests present to enjoy the fun.

For the old fashioned dances planned, Mr. Clarence Lane acted in the capacity of director calling the figures danced.

Mr. Frank Jordan presided at the organ and this with a violin and guitar composed the orchestra which furnished the music during the evening.

Every thing was in keeping with the Valentine thought and the setting was especially attractive.

Social Circle Meets—The Social Circle were entertained Wednesday last, at the home of Mrs. A. Sherard. There was a splendid attendance of the membership, considering the stormy day.

A short devotional service, with "Faith" for the central theme, at which each one gave her favorite quotation on faith, opened the meeting.

Fancy work engaged the attention of guests during the social hour. At its close delicious refreshments were served. Delicate cakes and dainty sandwiches and coffee, with the thought of Valentine's Day carried out in decoration and in the refreshments were much appreciated by the guests.

Those assisting Mrs. Sherard were, Mrs. Haucke, C. C. Crowson, Will Loomis, Sanford and Sargent.

The next meeting will be at the parlors of the church, February the 24. At this meeting the officers will be elected. Mrs. Mitchell is chairman of the entertainment committee. She will be assisted by Mrs. W. E. Moore, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. C.

Daughters of the Nile Meet—A one o'clock luncheon was the pleasant preliminary to the session of the Daughters of the Nile which was held in Grants Pass, Saturday.

Since this was installation, there was a splendid attendance. Past Queen, Mable McGowan, of Medford, was installing officer, and the beautiful ceremony of installation was given by her, and the installing Princess Marshall, Mabel Bateman.

Lovely corsages were presented each officer by Queen Belle Schwein in appreciation of her efficient service and loyalty during her reign, and as a token of esteem.

The members of the patrol presented to their retiring Queen, Belle Schwein, a beautiful basket of pink carnations and rosebuds. Flowers and a jewel were also presented to her from the Temple, with earnest appreciation expressed for the loyalty and devotion given to the work during the time she has been chief officer of the organization.

The newly installed officers were given beautiful bouquets also. A pleasing little incident occurred just as the installation of the new queen, Mrs. Alice Winnetron of Grants Pass, was ended. Her little six year old son brought her a basket of peas from the own field.

The husband quite touched the mother and those who witnessed it.
