

A Page of Special Interest to Women

Ashland Study Club News
 Nineteen of the members of the Ashland Study Club enjoyed the attractive and satisfying four course luncheon which was given at the home of Mrs. Louis Dodge on the Boulevard.
 Dainty spring-like touches shown in the party favors, which had added to their soft gray coats bits of brightness in "fit" hearts that looked like tiny crescents. Heart-shaped place cards were used.
 Mrs. G. G. Eubank was in charge of the entertainment feature, and games appropriate to the occasion, which deserve more than passing mention, occupied the afternoon.
 A sack of candy hearts, given each guest, played quite a part at luncheon and later in a game. Valentines and mittens were much in demand during one game. An animated heart-hunt and intelligence tests kept guests alert during their progress.

New High Crown

Here is an example of the new high crown which is being worn by women. It is shown in the new mounted brows of softest felt.

Other games there were and all filled an afternoon with merriment and fun.

This was one of the social numbers on the program which occurs during the club year. For the most part, the weekly meetings are confined entirely to the study programs.

Elks Ladies Card Party
 On February 13, the Elks Ladies will give a card party. Their friends are invited and a good time is assured every one attending.

No pains are spared in making these social affairs a success. Those who wish to attend are to phone Mrs. George Gillette for table reservations.

Yanahawiah Group

Saturday, February 13, was made memorable in the annals of Yanahawiah Group of Camp Five Girls by a Valentine party given at the Beaver home at which the majority of the girls were present.

Many amusements helped to make the afternoon a most happy one. Valentines were there for all, many times over; for a wonderful Valentine box yielded its fruit. Games were played and pictures taken and last, but not least, refreshments of ice cream chocolate sundaes and peanut butter were served, thus bringing to an end the happy afternoon.

The girls composing this group are: Naomi Leedom, Iris Atterbury, Hazel Hudnell, Ardis De Armond, Elizabeth Joy, Lois Goetz, Audrey Dodge, June Wolcott, Gladys Crosby, Helen Hirt, Helen Kinnasto, Leah De Haas, Constance Willard, Dorothy Spater, Sylvia Provost. Their guardian is Miss Helen Helton.

Junior League Entertained

The Junior League of the Methodist church was entertained Tuesday evening at the church by their leaders, Miss May Van Hardenburg and Miss Nadine Swenning. They were assisted by Mrs. Van Hardenburg and Mrs. Hartly.

Under the direction of their leaders, games made heaps of fun until delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Those present to enjoy the jolly time were: Beulah Hervey, Anna Jean Van Hardenburg, Wayne Van Hardenburg, Velma Brown, Loye Bamrd, Sarah Ferris, Herbert Davis, Dorothy Leslie, Florence Schwahn, George Ferris, Gale Hamaker, Dorothy Bryant and Frank Pemberton.

Neighbors of Woodcraft Have Party

Neighbors of Woodcraft and their friends had a very delightful evening at cards, Monday, February 13, after the regular business session.

Tables of five hundred proved most entertaining with Mr. H. L. Moore securing first honors, the prize a lovely hyacinth, and Mrs. Doxford, receiving the consolation prize.

There were at least seventy members and guests present to enjoy the pleasant hours and the bountiful feast which was served at its close.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft meet at the I. O. O. F. hall, the first and third Mondays of each month.

Alpha Chapter Meets

Alpha Chapter No. 1, O. E. S., held its regular meeting Monday evening. A program of interesting numbers with cards and dancing, of the old-fashioned figures, ending with the lively Virginia Reel, made a social evening of unusual enjoyment. Alpha Club meets next Tuesday, Mrs. H. D. Stock and Mrs. S. B. McNair are hostesses for the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Briscoe Entertained

The members of the debating teams were complimented guests at a delightful dinner party Tuesday evening, given by Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Briscoe.

Covers were laid for eleven at the prettily appointed table, with its dainty place cards giving a note of color.

After dinner all gathered about the piano and sang for a time. The later evening was spent in cozy visit.

Those enjoying this pleasant hospitality were: Mr. H. W. Allison, Dick Joy, Ellen Galey, Nedra Bartlett, Lorraine Brockmiller, Veda Gilson, Myler Bovey, Warren Doremus and Roland Parks.

Civic Club Meeting

A program of unusual interest was presented Tuesday afternoon at the Civic Club, by Mount Ashland Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. An official board meeting had been called for 1:15 p. m. At this it was decided to donate the use of the Club House and to support a concert, which is to be given March the 31th or April 1, under the auspices of the Ashland Music Study Club.

At the business session later, reports were read and a communication from the Upper Valley Community Club expressed the appreciation of the club for the use of the Civic Club house January 29.

Mrs. C. W. Hanson, chairman of the "American Home" department was asked to read one of the filled out "Nation Wide Surveys on Home Methods" questionnaires. This proved a very interesting report.

At this time Mrs. MacCracken asked Miss Blanche Hicks, the Regent of the Daughters of the American Revolution to take charge of the program.

The flag salute was given, the "Star Spangled Banner" sung and the chaplain, Mrs. Elizabeth Van Sant led in prayer.

Mrs. Mary Dunn, pioneer of 1853, was then introduced and read a very interesting paper on "Early Reminiscences." This paper, giving as it did, historically correct events in which she or those whom she knew played a part, is of considerable importance and will be preserved.

Snake Skin Cuffs

These cuffs are made of genuine snake skin and are very comfortable to wear. They are available in various colors and designs.

Following this, Mrs. C. W. Hanson read an article written by the President General of the D. A. R., Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, "Service '35 Home and Country." This received close attention from the listeners.

Mrs. P. S. Provost sang "Love Sent a Little Gift of Roses," by Leslie Cook and John Openshaw; to appreciative applause, responding with "The Lilac Tree."

Mrs. Clara Beebe, in piano solo, played "Prelude" by Rachmaninoff, graciously responding with "Dancing Doll" by Poldini.

Miss Chamberlain then delighted the listeners, with an original monologue, "Lecture Heard by Mrs. Plankigan, Mother of Eight before the Mother's Club." To insistent demand, Miss Chamberlain gave "Fluffy."

In celebration of the birthday of Mrs. MacCracken, president of the Civic Club, Miss Hicks presented her with a beautiful basket of flowers, a gift from the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Civic Club.

Although a complete surprise, Mrs. MacCracken thanked the ladies in fitting phrase for their thoughtfulness in remembering her in so delightful a fashion.

Just at this point, Mrs. Dodge moved that the club give the D. A. R. a rising vote of thanks for the splendid program which all had enjoyed so thoroughly.

During the social hour, tea was poured by Mrs. Hammond and Miss Chamberlain. Just here another happy surprise was in store for the ladies when two fine birthday cakes made by Mrs. Provost and Mrs. Macey were served with the tea.

Elks' Valentine Dance

This event had been anticipated for some time. Elaborate plans had been made and the result was one of the most attractive parties of the season.

The Valentine thought was carried out in all the decorative touches that enhanced the beauty of the surroundings.

Heart shaped shields were used for the lights, and in the center was a dome-like arrangement of valentines. Red poppies and Valentines completed the decorative scheme.

The committees were dressed as valentines and certainly looked and acted their parts.

Two features were especially pleasing: Little Albert, McCune and Betty Kearney brought into the room a small decorated wagon. In it were dainty favors for every one present.

Another was the exhibit of the Charleston given by Dot Miller and Al Prentice. Punch was served throughout the evening.

The banquet room was beautifully decorated. Pussay willows, with their hearts strung were cutely springlike and gayly decorated kawytes adorned the tables.

Three hundred guests were seated at the festal board and enjoyed the elaborate banquet which ended the delightful affair.

Covered Dish Luncheon

The "Who Do I Class" of the Methodist church will have a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Ralph Billings Friday, February 17.

Camp Five Girls Meet

"Camp Five" "Wawokwick" and "Wawokwite" groups of High school Camp Five Girls held their regular meeting immediately after school Wednesday, in the sewing room at the High school building.

During the meeting, several new members were considered and unanimously voted into the group. It was planned to invite these girls to the next regular Camp Five meeting.

Indian names, symbols, and Camp Five health charts were also discussed, as were plans for a Wawokwite party.

These groups have appointed a reporter, whose work it is to prepare the reports which are of much interest to everyone.

Auxiliary to Trinity Guild Entertained

Auxiliary to Trinity Guild entertained the membership and friends at an elaborately planned card party Monday evening at the Parish House.

Patriotic decorations, artistically disposed made the rooms very attractive. Tally cards, in the shape of little hatchets were used.

There were 21 tables played in bridge and five hundred. The prizes for the ladies were hand embroidered gifts and very lovely.

The fortunate ones in bridge were Mrs. J. M. Wagner and Mr. T. H. Simpson. Low scores came to Mrs. J. H. McGee and Mr. L. R. Coombe.

In five hundred, Mrs. Claude Babcock and Mr. W. A. Sobell scored highest and the consolation prizes were won by Mrs. Charles Robertson and Mr. Nathan Simpson.

During the evening, Mr. E. P. Niss sang, accompanied by Miss Margaret Hammond, kindly responding to encore.

A two course luncheon was served at the small tables. The delicious salad and home-made cakes proving a most satisfying close to a delightful evening.

The chairman of the different committees: Mrs. Ernest Wallin, refreshments; Mrs. Claude Babcock, decoration and service committee; Mrs. Domino Provost, table committee; Mrs. Nathan Simpson, prize committee, with Mrs. Jack Edwards, president of the Auxiliary and general chairman, deserve great credit for the success of the affair.

Bluebird Class of M. E. Church Entertained

Mrs. N. A. Clark entertained the Bluebird class of girls at her home on Ohio street, Saturday afternoon. The girls of the class and their teacher, Mrs. Patrick, and Dorothy Leslie were present. After a very pleasant hour spent playing games a delightful lunch was served by

Who says this world is heartless?

Who says this world is heartless? It isn't! At least the B. Y. F. U. O. B. But think so last Friday evening when they were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Anderson on the Boulevard.

Many games and stunts suitable to the Valentine season, were used. These were followed by an interesting program. An "Inverted Quizzes" featuring Messrs. V. O. N. Smith, V. D. Miller, H. O. Anderson and Mr. McLean, proved to be very amusing.

A sole by Mr. Anderson was exceptionally well rendered. A tabernacle consisting of four proposals done in pantomime, afforded much fun. The last

"This, indeed, is a pleasant surprise" — and it usually is to every woman who first tries it.

THE woman who finds real joy in cake making finds a still greater joy the first day she begins to use Mazola for shortening.

Perfect results: a better grained — a lighter — a richer cake — all assured with using Mazola for shortening.

Follow your own favorite recipe — using 54 to X less Mazola if the recipe mentions butter — no treading creaming in — no expensive butter — yet a cake so delicious that it will need no pleasant surprise.

Mazola, as you may know, is an absolutely pure vegetable oil — made from the hearts of full-ripened corn kernels — and is itself as good to eat as the corn from which it comes.

We suggest a cake recipe below — please try it — and we believe that you, like millions of other progressive housewives, will always prefer Mazola to expensive butter.

FOUND CASE: 1 Cup Sugar, 1/2 Cup Eggs, 1/2 Cup Milk, 1/2 Cup Butter, 1/2 Cup Flour, 1/2 Cup Baking Powder, 1/2 Cup Cocoa, 1/2 Cup Vanilla, 1/2 Cup Lemon Juice, 1/2 Cup Lemon Rind.
