B PART: - Small furnish-

ME BALLE OR BEET-Mod beautiful view; large and small

ACREAGE ON HIGHWAY

STAPLES BRALET

BOR SALE: - Limited numof fine building sites cheep.

so strictly modern 7-room house ady and 5-room house funt artius. Buy terms. Just south Normal subcol. Phone 4521. 128-261 FOR SAXE-A limited num

POR SALE-Distant able and chairs. 114 Oak St.

MINORIA NEOUS

IsieT Sigma Kappa sprorify Alida street. M. C. Mills. ambda '16 engraved on back of in. Return to Vic Mills. WANTED By responsible par-building 50250 seet ball on sin street in Ashland; suitable general machinist work and miring. Will take lease for mber of years. Write Box B. care of Ashland Tidings.

164-3

ing delivery.

8. PHNNISTON, Manag 178 Bast Main

or limited to eye, ear, nose an areas. X-ray including tooth fice hours, 10 to 12 and 2 to 5 wedenburg Bldg., Ashland

ARE AND CABINE

Designs in Coal, Wood, Packing Storage. Long dist

AUCTIONBER

W. T. BLACKWELL

ERTON E. THOMPSON Painter and Decorator

Paper Hauging Tiuting a Specialty Furniture Religiated

Phone 98 or 75 PAINTING AND TINTING If you appreciate a first class jet of paletting or tinking figure with SWENNING & SEAR the Depondable Painting Contractors.

Phone $15-12 70 68-1 mo.

PEHIGE'S TRANSPER

767 Oak St

Portland; R. N. Marston, Portland; F. I. Allys and wife, Portland; G. A. McDenald, Portland; A. W. Wilch, Sallsbor; Alt. Brickson, Sallsbor; Dewey Templer and wife.

the leader, Thursday evening at 7:80 o'clock.

Thursday, February the twenty tifth, the Elks' Ladies will enare invited to come and share the good time with them.

Table ; reservations may made by phoning Mrs. George Gillette. Committees are charge who are planting a very delightful evening.

French Club-There will be no meeting o the French Club Monday evening. It was to have met at but has been postponed until Monday, March 1. It will hold its session at the home of Mrs.

W. M. Poley, Gresham street. The same lesson will doubtless be discussed that had been as signed for tonight's meeting.

Invited To Medford-The Civic Club and the Ash and Study Club are invited attend a benefit given by Greater Medford Club, at Methodist church at eight o'clock

Priday evening of this week. The Copeo Films will be shown, and a play given. Every one interested in forwarding the movement to secure a community club house is asked to at-tond. The entertainment win well worth attending, and it is opportunity to assist the Medford club in swelling its club house fund.

Past Matrons' Club Meets Friday Eveningthe Past Matrons' Club which meets at the Civic Club house,

Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The usual time for meeting is Thursday evening, but on account of conflicting engagements, the date was changed. Prize Winning Poem-

The following is clipped from the Sunday Book Page of the Oregon Journal It speaks In contradistinction attention is called to a posm which was published in Journal of February seventh.

It is written by Miss Winifred Watson of Ashland. Miss Wat-son has been an active member club study circles in Ashland during her residence here, and her literary achievements are well known to a large circle of friends. It is with pleasure we print the poem for her friends to enjoy.

GOLD O' DREAMS

"For many months, President Wilson, simply because he had said, 'League of Nations' pisinly and clearly, was the greatest man on earth."—H. G. Wells.

We like our Lincoln homespun tested stuff. That suits our daily uses; brown and rough work-stained hands, warm and kind as they. It yields such comfort as known loved things may. But fairy-fabrics, shot with o' dreams, We find unfit for common west. Not only style, but Maxi-Such textile, woven on the loom of thought By one who sat alone, aloot, Once to our mart; we have none of it. him. Repulsed and tered, bit by bit, He watched the fabric.

Within its warp and wood found, against.,
Had grown a dim and for

thing, fergot Because men's blood had it white as snow

And light that never shone

seer's rapt gase, Glimpsing tomorrow through day's dense hase)-

This stuff was laid aside. out of sight, Thus sharing the same As he who dared to Gold o' dreams, We have no use for that, wise world deems! But yet temorrow dawns, times do change;

What once men sanctioned So may his dream come that martyr-sage,

Who had the vision of WINIFRED WATSON.

Valley View Club house the scene of a jolly neighborhood party last Saturday ni young and old, to enjoy the sic, the games and dancing, in which the hours were spent.

Civic Club Luncheon Mrs. F. D. Wagner, Mrs. M. Poley, Mrs. E. A. Woods Miss Grace Chamberlain were complimented guests at an attractive luncheon at the Civic Club house, with the Executive Board, members of standing past officers present to enjoy luncheon and the pleasant afternoon together. The table was lovely, graced with baskets of fragrant swee peas, at which covers had been laid for twenty four guests.

Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, Read This president of the Civic Club acted as toastmistress, and intro-duced those who took part on Then Judge for Fourself Miss Grace Chamberlain, president when the Club House was built, spoke first; a few happily expressed sentences, concerning the work at that time and exsing her pleasure at being present on this special occasion. Two delightful readings by Mrs. Poley, a well told clever story by Mrs. P. D. Wagner and a Swedish Folk song, sung in the original language and in English, by Mrs. E. A. Woods, made up the very happy program numbers.

Place cards, with bright and pertinent messages were read, occasioning many a hearty

Mrs. A. H. Pracht and Mrs. W. L. Maxey, members of the Social Committee with Mrs. H. E. McGee planned the delightful luncheon and dainty table decora-

A pretty feature was a surprise birthday cake made by Mrs. MacCracken in honor of Mrs. Pracht's birthday. All enjoyed her surprise and the lovely cake very much. After luncheon, a number of the guests had to leave to ful-mum comfort in our shoes. OVERLAND

Men's Shoes And

Kodak Finishing DEVELOPING PHINTING DNLABOING

FILMS - TODAK ALBUMS Darling Studio & Art Store PORTRAITS THAT PLEASE

Main street, was hostess at make their bonie. Ladies Aid society of the Meth- Indws here; saving odist church.

iting, Mrs. Ambrose called the Tell the Story," opened the de wenty third pealin in concept. World War, and has be

A short business session preceded the program, of which Ers. Ralph Billings had charge. This was of a patriotic nature. honoring Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays.

ginia," was played on the Victrols as an opening number. An entertaining reading of Lincoln and Washington and a sketch Tarbell, Ralph Billings. "The Little Red Postage Stamp with Washingtoh's Picture on It," by Mrs. Kelsey and a description of "How George Washington Dressed." by Mrs. Coder were pleas ing numbers. Humorous stories and interesting bits from the lives of Washington and Lincoln were told by a number of others. "The Stars and Stripes Forever," on the Victrola, closed the enjoyable program. Delicious refreshments of sal ad, wafers and tea were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. King. As a delightful closing treat, Mrs. J. E. RichmoHnd sang. Mrs. Richmond, who formerly lived in Ashland sang at the Methodist church yesterday.

Announcement comes to friends of the marriage of Alan Ken Trusier's Remnists Tables, have been tried and tested thirty years. When used for Rheumatism, Neuvitis, Constibution and Nervousness they prove satisfactory and bring results. Trusier's Tebiet is a regetable composited sold and guaranteed by Bruggist. Trusier's Tables.

ler's Tablets come in two sises, 30c and $1.00 per package. Keep a package in the home, take a tablet-now and then and many ills that may prove

McNAIR BROS.

Carefully

SICK ROOM SUPPLIES

Last Thursday, the Elks?

WINCHESTER

Garden Tools

Blades and Tines-High

HANDLES

are extra select second growth, white ash, polish-

Carbon Steel.

ed and waxed.

Every comfort and convenience for the shut-in. PROMPT DELIVERY

SERVICE

World's Largest A Stage Line From Ashland

Fare Ashland-Portland 38.90

SCHEDULE

Direct Connections at Roseburg for Coos Bay Points TRATEL ST. BOTOR

dashty refreshments at

Delicious Cakes For All Occasions

FRANKLIN BAKERY

Notice to Gas Consumers Using Quarter Meters

After March 1st., no gas is to be stored in quarter meters. If any gas is stored at present time, it should be used before that date as meters will be turned back at that time.

SOUTHER OREGON GAS CO.

HEAT

Children scream when they play in the dark

That's something for parents to think about - and think seriously. Dark rooms are peopled with fearsome ghosts. Real ghosts!

Dark corners are hiding places for andowy apparitions. They're real-to any normal Switch on the lights! Banish these spectres of the derk. Electricity is plentiful, and so reasonable, here in our fown, that no one need count the cost of a cheery, wellhighed home where children love to play.

is the cheapest service you can buy. THE CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER COMPANY

Craum d'une, O