A Meal Surprise—
Mrs. Elizabeth Reid was the victim of a happy surprise by the members of the Royal Neighbors, a lodge of which she is the musician.

About twenty-five assembled, laden with baskets containing wonderfully appetizing viands for the informal little banquet which brought to a close an evening of enjoyment for involuntary hostess and her guests.

As a mark of appreciation, for her services as musician, Mrs. Reid was presented with a beautiful lodge pin.

There was music, of course, and games were played, visiting too—all making for one of the pleasantest evenings of the many that this group of friends have enjoyed.

At a late hour good nights were said, the hostess acknowledging for once she was really surprised and all glad for the happy hours together.

Wedding Announcement—
A wedding announcement of considerable interest to friends in Ashland is that of Dr. Wilfred Carr to Miss Ava Chula Wolff of Asheville, North Carolina.

Dr. and Mrs. Carr will make their home in Greensboro where Dr. Carr is established in the practice of his profession.

It will be remembered that Wilfred Carr lived in Ashland for a number of years. His mother was with him a part of the time, later returning to her old home in Greensboro.

From Ashland he went overseas with the first who went from here, and after the war closed he went back to his former home.

His many friends are glad to know of his happiness and offer congratulations and good wishes.

Bethany Class Have Party—
Bethany Class of the Methodist Sunday school had a birthday party in the M. E. church parlors, Tuesday afternoon. The occasion was the celebration of seven of the birthdays of its members.

Since it was a birthday party, of course there were several birthday cakes; delicious, delicate and which fairly melted in one's mouth. Coffee too, fit for a king, or queen, was served.

The afternoon passed as happy as any afternoon could be when good friends are gathered together. There was a large attendance, the room being well filled with the membership. This is one of the very large classes of the Sunday school.

At four o'clock the delightful luncheon was served and at this time were present two extra guests, who appreciated the honor and the delicious viands very much.

Mrs. Allen is the efficient teacher of the class.

W. E. C. Dinner and Social—
Monday, February 22, the W. E. C. held its "Pot Luck" dinner and social at the I. O. O.

The bell-shaped sleeve, as shown here from a gown worn by Alcoa Mills, Paramount star, is the latest detail for evening wear. This model is embroidered heavily with crystal beads and pearls.

F. hall. At this event, the members, their families and the G. A. R. were present as guests.

Dinner was served at twelve and promptly at that hour the assembled company, to the number of 125, were invited out to the dining room, where the tables fairly groaned with the burden of good things brought for the feast; for feast it truly was—nothing lacking and more than could possibly be eaten, had there been many more present.

Potted plants were used in decorating the tables and the Executive Committee was in charge of the arrangements, which were so successfully carried out in every detail.

After dinner adjournment was made to the lodge room where a fine program, prepared in honor of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln was presented.

The feature of the afternoon was an address by the Rev. H. F. Pemberton of the Methodist church, dealing with the two great heroes of America—George Washington and Abraham Lincoln. It was a splendid effort and well received.

Other numbers of the program were a piano solo, by Mrs. Agnes Herndon; a reading each by Mrs. Hattie Moore and Mrs. Robertson. Miss Lois Lyman played a saxophone solo. She was accompanied by her sister, Gladys Lyman. All the program numbers were especially prepared and appropriate to the occasion. All brought enthusiastic applause, the audience enjoying the selections very much.

Mrs. Warten Cook was in charge of the program.

Bellview P. T. A.

The feature of the meeting of Bellview P. T. A. Thursday night was the address given by Mrs. Louis Dodge, state vice president, P. T. A. Mrs. Dodge had attended the P. T. A. convention in Portland in her official capacity and brought a splendid report for those present to enjoy.

Six pupils from Mrs. Kenneth McWilliams' room presented a little play which was given well deserved praise and applause.

An old time community sing brought the company together in a very happy fashion.

It was a fine meeting with a large crowd and deep interest was shown in the program and plans for the betterment of school and community.

Mrs. East Smith, Mrs. Clapp and Mrs. Jones, were hostesses and served delicious cake and coffee at the close of the social hour which is always a part of these gatherings at Bellview.

Alpha Club—
Mrs. S. B. McNair and Mrs. H. C. Stock were hostesses at the Tuesday afternoon meeting of Alpha Club.

There were many present to enjoy the pleasant afternoon spent in gaily needlework, at the close of which light but delicious refreshments of coffee cake, date bars and coffee were served.

At the business meeting, it was decided to hold a food sale April the third, just before Easter.

The hostess for the next meeting will be Mrs. F. F. Whittle and Mrs. L. S. Brown.

Encouraging Report of Bellview Club House Plans

Five hundred and seventy dollars is the splendid sum now totalled for the Upper Valley Community Club house to be located upon the grounds donated by Bellview district, just north of Bellview school house.

Since the sum has grown to such encouraging proportions, the plans have changed somewhat, in that it will be possible to have a more commodious and thoroughly modern club house. The building plans will be in keeping with the surroundings. It is stated that the work will start in August.

Those in charge are urged to keep on giving the entertainments which have met with so much favor and it is thought that it will be done. It is announced that Mr. Jack Milton, manager of the Jackson Hot Springs has offered the building to the club, to make all they can from another of the old fashioned dances which was such a success last Friday night.

Some of the special features of that entertainment deserve special mention.

In the old fashioned quadrille, so gracefully performed, those taking part were Mr. and Mrs. Horace Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Barron, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Tucker, Mr. Johnny Murphy and Mrs. Cora Dodge.

In the French Minuet, a group of young girls, some attired as boys in overalls and straw hats and the girls in gingham dresses and sunbonnets went through the dainty steps of the graceful dance as precisely as if they had lived in their grandmothers' time when minuets were danced as an artistic performance to be done with seriousness as befitting its merit.

Those chosen for this were: Audrey Brown, Margaret Churchman, Dorothy Chappell, Edna Wilson, Gertrude Ahlstrom, and Marjorie Crouch.

The Charleston which was to have been danced by a couple who had practiced for it but at the last minute found it impossible to go on with it, was given by Mr. Goodwin and Miss Fay Templeton who were present and kindly consented to put on the dance as a favor, to show the great contrast between it and the old dances.

Everyone there reports a delightful time. The number present, five hundred, and the lateness of the hour in leaving attested to the enjoyment of the guests.

Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Counter were host and hostess at a delightful reunion at their home west of town, honoring the forty-ninth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Ashcraft, Sr., the parents of Mrs. Counter.

Those enjoying the happy gathering and who offered congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ashcraft on this memorable occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Merle Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Ashcraft, Sr., and Mrs. W. C. Counter and their son and daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashcraft have enjoyed several reunions within recent years, the largest being that of some little time ago when the children from far and near gathered for the family visit while the son who is a missionary in China was home on furlough.

Art Club Meets

Monday night the Art Club met at the usual hour at the Club house with Mrs. Cliff Payne and Mrs. Fred Cushing as hostesses.

After a brief business meeting, the evening was spent in the usual way, many projects of cards, as best planned the guests.

Washington's birthday was noted in the dainty patriotic place cards at the luncheon which closed the evening's enjoyment, and to the delight of guests did full justice.

Invited To Medford—
Ashland club women are invited to attend the entertainment in Medford given tomorrow night at the Methodist church. It is sponsored by The Greater Medford club, which is raising funds for a club house.

Fancy Cuff

Ambitious indeed, is the wide flaring cuff that finishes this white kid glove. The decorative effect is achieved by working shades of black and white into the cuff in a series of closely set, thin, wavy, decorative lines, and with a very plain background.

Patriotic Entertainment at Junior High

In all the grades of Ashland's schools Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays were observed in more than ordinary way.

In the lower grades in both buildings, especially pleasing programs were given with appreciative listeners in visiting parents and friends.

In Junior High, the program was given in the auditorium of the building and Junior High grades and sixth grade presented the program.

This program was one of the most constructive that could be arranged for the occasion. Plays, pageants, dramatizations, all portraying some phase of school activity.

The planning for the different program numbers had taken hours of preparation; teachers and pupils had made many of them; others had been borrowed from those who had the old fashioned garments that would help out in the character represented.

Few realize what it means to prepare pageants, wigs, gowns, be-ruffled garments and all the regalia needed in an elaborate performance.

Early history was relived with the pupils who personified with earnestness the characters chosen in pageant and play and dramatization.

In spite of the early hour, ten o'clock, many parents and friends were there to enjoy the well prepared and well presented program.

Too much credit cannot be given to teachers and pupils who have worked for weeks in preparing a program which would do credit to children of much larger growth.

No report has been obtainable at this time from Hawthorne but judging from the interesting Lincoln program which was given, this last anniversary was observed with fitting and well selected exercises.

One feature among the many commendable features stands out especially and that was the recitation of Lincoln's Gettysburg speech in unison by a class of girls and boys, who, from the way in which it was recited will never forget it. Many other numbers there were all interesting and all well worthy of praise.

Guild Quarterly Banquet—
The quarterly banquet of Martha Gillette Chapter, Westminister Guild will be held in the Junior room of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday, March the second at 8:00 p. m.

All members and friends of the Guild are cordially reminded of this event. Come prepared to enjoy it, and the social hour which follows. Each one coming is to bring a covered dish.

A short program is planned and the report of the nominating committee will be made. Mite bags also are to be brought, since the last payment for the year's allotment is to be made at this time.

A full attendance is urgently requested. Announcement will probably be made of the program for the regular meeting of the Guild.

"Who Do" Class—
The "Who Do" class of the Methodist Sunday school had its quarterly covered dish luncheon on Friday last, at the home of Mrs. Ralph Billings. She was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Vestal.

There were thirty-five present to enjoy the delightful luncheon and the splendid program and afternoon which followed.

Miss Carol Mitchell favored the company in two interesting readings honoring Washington's birthday.

A business meeting preceded the regular Bible study, which is conducted by Mrs. A. A. Madden. This study has been of deep interest to the class this winter. Memory verses in which each member took part was a part also of the afternoon's study.

The former teacher, Mrs. Dews, was present on this occasion and a number of new members. In both membership and interest the class shows marked progress.

"Most delicious!" he said.
"And I made it in five minutes," she replied.
(Sounds like a miracle to many Women)

WHAT sounds like a miracle to many women is the fact that the most delicious mayonnaise you ever tasted can be made with Mazola in five minutes.

Just as a test, why not take the Mazola you have in the pantry (or you can phone your grocer for a can) and follow this recipe. It will surprise you to learn how easy it is to make mayonnaise.

1 egg Yolk
1 Egg Yolk
1/4 teaspoon Sugar
1/4 teaspoon Salt
1/2 teaspoon White Pepper
1/2 teaspoon Lemon Juice or 1 tablespoon Vinegar

Beat egg yolk thoroughly and add Mazola two teaspoons at a time until you have a firm creamy mixture, after which Mazola may be added more rapidly, then add your seasonings and lastly the lemon juice or vinegar, beating all well together.

AND, of course, you know that home-made mayonnaise is good because you know the eggs in it are fresh.

Another pleasant surprise will be your discovery that Mazola blends so readily with the best imported oils that may be used. You no longer wonder why Mazola is America's most popular salad oil.
