THE SAVING BLOOD—In the tenth day of this month they shall take every man a lamb. And they shall take of the blood, and put it on the two side-posts and on the lintel. And the blood shall be to you for a token, and when I see the blood I will pass over you. Ex. 12.3-7-13.

PRAYER — O Lord, "There is power, power, wonder-working power. In the precious blood of the Lamb."

ASHLAND'S PROSPECTS

From all present indications the current year promises to be an eventful one in the history of Ashland. The civic, business and industrial awakening is in no sense a boom. It is but the natural and gradual culmination of dreams and prophecy.

Street and sidewalk improvements promise to play a leading part in civic progress during the months which lie ahead. The city administration is committed to this program of improvement. The chamber of commerce, through its board of directors, recently announced such improvements would comprise its major program during the year. With these two agencies working hand in hand there is every reason to expect substantial and gratifying results.

The improvement of the auto tourist camp through the construction of slightly cottages is by no means an insignificant part of the building program for Ashland during the present year.

Other activities of even greater importance of an industrial nature are also contemplated within the next few weeks. The revival of the mining industry promises to add materially to the Ashland payroll and general prosperity. A new sawmill will soon rise within the city limits, giving employment to men and converting the virgin pine and fir into money. Other big developments are being planned and are expected to be announced within the next few weeks.

Already there are indications of considerable building activity here during the year. There is both room and need for more dwelling houses, and these will be built. The reopening of the normal school will bring young men and women here from many parts of the state and likewise will draw families here to reside permanently.

So, from every possible standpoint, it can be truthfully said that Ashland is on the eve of an important awakening. Developments now in progress as well as those projected mean growth and prosperity. The fates are being kind to Ashland because Ashland is quick to grasp the door of opportunity.

EVERYBODY SHOULD VOTE

Every member of the Ashland chamber of commerce should vote his choices in the primary election now being conducted to select the ten nominees for directors. The chamber of commerce is representative of the entire community, and for that reason its directors should be representative of the chamber.

In other cities of Oregon the primary system of nominating and electing chamber of commerce directors has been a dismal failure. Other cities which have tried it have returned to the old convention system. The fact that it is a success in this city is proof that the members are taking an active interest in the affairs of the organization. It is to be hoped that this interest will be maintained in the election now being conducted.

The Tidings' prohi poll showed that Ashland is dry in its sentiments, while police records disclose that it is likewise dry in practice.

The red fez was boss of the streets here all day Saturday. And every shriner seemed to be having a good time.

You'd really enjoy spring a lot more if you didn't have to work.

It's about time for the boys in congress to be sending our annual supply of garden seed.

STEWART'S WASHINGTON LETTER

By CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—A badly scrambled senatorial situation is developing in Pennsylvania, and it's of national consequence, because it involves not only a senatorship, but the political future of Governor Pinchot, who's a national character.

Pinchot is the drierest man, of his caliber, that the Republican dries have got.

If he gets into the Senate, he's bound to figure as a presidential possibility, on a platform favoring Volstead law enforcement, at any cost and above everything else.

It hasn't looked hitherto as if anybody could beat President Coolidge out of a renomination, but things may change before 1928. Pinchot would be in the running anyway.

However, if his own party in his own state turns him down for the Senate, as it turned him down for a place on the Pennsylvania delegation to the last Republican national convention, he'll be about through.

In the first place, he'll have to lick Senator George Wharton Pepper, who wants to be re-elected next fall.

He'll have the opposition of the Washington administration, which hates him on account of the accusations he's made against it of indifference toward prohibition enforcement, besides liking Pepper better on general principles.

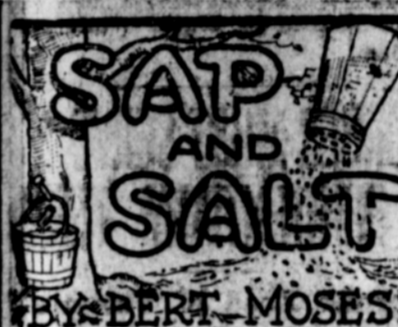

Perhaps he'll have to lick Congressman William S. Vare, who hasn't come out definitely for a toga, but who may do it yet.

Last, but not necessarily least, it's clear now that he'll have to lick Ralph Beaver Strassburger, the very man who thumped him for a place on the Pennsylvania delegation to the Cleveland convention in 1924.

Honesty: A fifty-fifty compound of courage and common sense.

Blunder: What happens when you let your brain tank run out of gas.

Tragedy: Hearing a funny story the third time by the same man.

Poker: Something that supplies a man with hard luck in wholesale quantities.

Civilization: An arrangement that invents new ways to hide our natural cussedness.

Respectability: A destination that can be reached only by working your own passage.

MED-O-LAND BUSY PLACE ON SUNDAY

Many People Spend Day at Golf Course, Sports Tables Open for Play

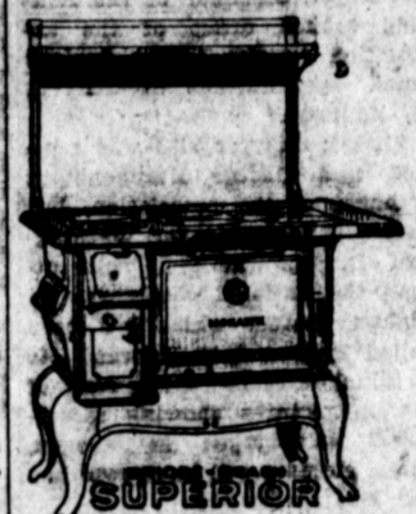

It seemed that all roads must have led to Med-O-Land Sunday judging by the number of people who drove out to the links. Seven temporary holes are open for play and it is estimated that more than a hundred players made the circuit during the day. The green of the alfalfa meadows, the abundance of wild flowers on the hills, the cool breezes along the brook all had their appeal for the visitors, many of whom brought their lunch and picnicked in the woods.

A crew of men have been at work the past week improving the fairways and sand greens. The work will continue to be pushed this week so that those who come next Sunday may look for still better accommodations. Work has commenced on the barn which is to replace the old barn. The new barn will be placed in the ravine out of sight of the links and the removal of the old building will greatly improve the appearance of the grounds.

No charge for playing will be made until the course is in better condition. Sets of clubs are now available for rental and the clipping of the fairways with the power mower now going on will do much to reduce the percentage of lost balls.

Among the guests at the Lithia Springs hotel are—

John A. Barnes, Jr., Chicago; B. H. Mallory, Los Angeles; C. M. Snow, Los Angeles; James F. Carlin and wife, St. Louis, Mo.; J. H. McKnight, San Francisco; C. Buck and wife, Oakland; J. H. Hanners, Portland; H. S. Burpur, Portland; Frank Vaughan and wife, Astoria; Thomas Parkinson, Dillard, Oregon; Claude Miles, Butte Falls.
