was manifested by the grave attention of the entire Camp Fire group. The Guardian, Miss Edna Goheen presided. The fire was lighted by three members who represented "Work" "Health" and "Love." Two new members, Hazel Duncan and Jeanette Stearns were taken into the camp. Portions of Scripture appropriate to the Camp Fire law were given by the members. Other members made im promptu speeches on the various duties of a Camp Fire girl, and the importance of living up to the law.

Jean Cadzow gave a short interesting talk on "Seek Beauty" and Frances Cooper sang a solo, that was impressive and in keeping with the occasion. In closing the group sang a few Camp Fire and patriotic songs. The two guardians, Miss Goheen and Miss Nora Ward, accompanied the group to the place selected for the Ceremonial. Pendleton - Umatilla Pro-

Civilization In some countries, wives pull plows.

Then, between-times, they do the housework. Even now, in the year 1926.

In other parts of the world, electricity does the housewife's work of sweeping, washing, ironing. An electric wire fetches the fuel for cooking and heating. Electricity lights the lamps. The extent to which we use electricity zation. It takes some degree of civilized culture to appreciate that we should employ our time better than in merely doing heavy is a fairly accurate measure of our civili-chores. And it takes highly civilized ingenuity and management to make and deliver electricity so cheaply that it will run a sewing machine for less than half a cent an hour.

Electricity is the cheapest service you can buy.
