CONT. CONT. DAY TO SEE THE CONT. CON	THE RESIDENCE OF THE PROPERTY
LL ME COURT AS	Reblished in 1876
TO CI PURCHASEL STATES	Brealing Except Sunday by
THE ASE	PRINTING CO.
Greer	Edito
Madden Green	Business Manage
Perkins	News Edite
AL CHY PAPER	Telephone 3
	The state of the s

Six Months One Year THE THE DEPLAKE ADVERTISING RATES Yearly Contrac

DONATIONS No depations to charities or otherwise will be made in advertising or job printing — our contributions will be in cash.

rd of Thanks

WHAT CONSTITUTES ADVERTISING ... "All future events, where an admission charge is made or section taken is Advertising,"
No discount will be allowed Religious or Benevolent Orders

A SURE DELIVERER — "And Moses said unto the peo-Fear ye not, stad still, and see the salvation of Jehovah. " Jehovah will fight for you." Ex. 14: 13-14.

PRAYER - Dear Lord, I will not be afraid

THE CHAMBER PRIMARY

As a result of the poor response of chamber of com merce members in the primary election which closed Tuesday evening, it is the belief of The Tidings that some other wethod should be adopted in the selection of nonmees for the board of directors.

Out of approximately 300 members, only 65 voted for directors. And more startling still as the fact that 112 names were suggested by those who cast their ballots for the 12 nominees. A canvass of the votes discloses that 14 votes out of a membership of 300 were sufficient to nominate a director.

The Tidings believes that the 12 men who were nominated are representative of the community, and any six of them, or any of them for that matter, are fully competent to aid in directing the affairs of the chamber. But it must be admitted, nevertheless, that an election which brings a response from but 30 percent of the post be up for consideration, the deble voting strength of the second

Other chamber of commerce organizations have attempted the primary system of balloting and have found it to be a failure. There is not the interest that is mani- Congressional Record, in which fested in the method of nominating from the floor at a general meeting of the entire membership.

The primary system, no doubt, would prove entirely lower house, against lugsing feasible and would arouse the needed interest if there the liquor question into discuswere some plan by which members could or would announce their candidacies prior to the primary election.

The Newcomers' club, whoever they may be, aroused chatter is that it accomplishes whatever interest was manifested in the primary election withing. Neither side ever makes this week, and it is worthy of note that five of their six in converts. Nothing is settled, this week, and it is worthy of note that five of their six in converts. Nothing is settled,

The Tidings suggests that the new directors, when nounce one another—it can't be they are elected, give serious consideration to some schematic and argument—everlast-sible and workable, plan whereby more interest will be tagle.

THE HONEYMOON TOWN

It was a yenerable old-timer who made the suggestion yesterday that the chamber of commerce and Their Tidings might do a bit of good work by advertising Ashland to the world as the "Honeymoon Town."

This suggestion came as the results of the testimonial of Scott Howatt, young Southern Pacific civil engineer, who selected Ashland above all cities of the Pacific coast, as the place to bring his southern bride on their brief!

"Ashland appealed to me as being the ideal place for lovers? the happy Mr. Howatt declared while here. And so it is. With her peach and pear and apple blossome, the beautiful Lithia Park with nature's appealing and amazing handiwork, with her azure skies and clear, crist all. Ashland, indeed, is a delightful trysting place for bride and groom.

It might be well for the chamber of commerce to broadcast Ashland as the "Honeymoon Town." We feel sure that ME Howatt and his windome bride will be the first to come forth with testimonials that are substantial and worth while. googgest

According to reports from Klamath Falls, the dis-graceful Oregon avenue entrance to The Dalles-Califor-nia highway is to be paved. It is understood that the bootleggers demanded the improvement because they are breaking too many bottles over the present impassable

Easter rabbits are beginning to appear in the show windows, and the price of eggs, providentially, it seems,

s on the down sand frend.

The city administration evidently means business on

WASHINGTON LETTER "F

NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON - Wet-anddry talk is getting to be so nearly continuous in Congress especially in the House of Representatives, that its interfering seriously with other business. No matter what subject may hate generally desenerates into

To prove that there's no exaggeration about this it's only necessary to turn to the March 6 appears the tigorous protest of Congressman John Q. Tilson, Republican floor leader in the sions wholly unrelated to it.

Another thing, in Congress as

Mom and Pop

outside it, prohibition doesn't seem to be a topic when it's possible to discuss moderately.

Ordinarily the national lawmakers are as polite as Punch one another-"the honorable gentleman" this, "the distinguished member" that, "my abl colleague" so-and-so, all kind of stuff.

But the minute prohibition's ouched on the fur begins to fly.

For instance, who can imagine an individual like the devout There are really but two Congressman William D. Upshaw Forts of men-those slapping a man for an offensel growing out of anything but a ill-feeling engendered by such a debate could induce anybody to say-as this man did of Upshaw—that a crippled congressman was a fake cripple?

Well, a prohibition debate was what did it.

who have been putting off matches for the indoor season. were opened recently when the HarryGreb-Tiger Flowers middleweight championship drew more than $105,000.

Advertise In The Tidings

Angry men never give the sume ourselves, but a right we deny to others.

A girl can throw herself at a man more accurately than she can throw a brick.

Even women have their limi tations, but none except a fool tries to define them.

ose who already have plenty of money manage to get a lot

Hez Heck says: "In many an office the stenographer knows more about law than the lawyer

By Taylor

"Don't take such his spoonfulst Why did you throw that on the floor Look at your dress! You are eating like a little pig—what will the people think of you?"

She kept it up all during the meal and it wha highly uncomfortable for everyone, for the youngster began to cry and then act nasty, and she scoided and finally slepped the little kiddle with the remark: "You ought to be ashamed to act like that.
If you do that again you'll get a If you do that again you'll get good spanking."

ing to Grand Rapids, sat seress the table from her. He sympathized with the youngster, and her final remark made him explode: "Medam, if you had started teaching that child in your own home a long time age, neither you nor she would have to be sahamed."

Then be got up and stamped out, while there was absolute silence in the car.

DOING IT WELL

That sought relief and laughter

o only played a basic, be he played the bants well.

saw her washing dishes simple little cot. Her life was spent in tolling there upon the selfsame

Her face was furrowed, and each line a story had to tell. She only kept a household, but she kept the household saw him fire an engine in vast and grimy room, Phough it was hard to see him in the still and dusty gloom He watched each motion keenly as the pistons rose and fell.

He only fired an engine, but he fired the engine well.

saw him digging ditches with the mud upon his hands, with that steady motion that a digger understands. He claimed no fame nor for tune; only brawn he had to sell. He was but digging ditches but he dug the ditches well matters rather little what task one may choose to do long as it is honest and his purposes are true.

The years will ring his story far upon their golden bell If he will only do the thine he may be doing well.

MOTHER-TAKE NO CHANCES ON CROUP

Never put a croupy child t without having FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR right handy. It checks the sudden and terrifying onset of croup, relieves the strangling, cheking condition, cases difficult breathing and allows peaceful sleep. A friend writes: "I have long used FO-LET'S HONEY AND TAR for group. First, I gave it to all my children, and now to my grand-children, with the same good resulta." Reliable also for brou-chiar and "flu," coughs, sicklish throat and troublesome night

NOTICE TO CREDITORS

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the undersigned has been duly appointed Administratrix of the Estate of Chifford H. Nickerson, deceased, and all persons having claims against said estate are required to present
thus, duly verified, and with months from this date, to L Roberts, Attorney for said tate, at his office over the sone Bank of Ashland, Ashla

Dated March 4, 1926.

ing without what you want you can have what you think

Senator Borch might get a

in some towns they get their drinks free.

Jailed a Charleston dancer New York, but not because

THE FORUM

At present the dogs are taketable and flower gardens. On roaming through the park ogs not sllowed."

Why not have this apply to he entire city? Dogs are far more destructive than chickens, why not place them under the same restric

If the unlicensed dogs are in

Bring You Shoes To Agee's Shoe Shop for quick, satisfactory service

339 E. Main Street

P. J. CHENEY & CO., Tole

We have just installed

Hotel Ashland Electric Sign

> Call on us for Electric Service

XL ELECTRIC

Station Guy Good, Prop.

LEEDOM'S

U. S. Tires Fan Belts Axles Gears Rings

FOR EVERY CAR

REST IS ESSENTIAL for the mind, as for the body.

With jarring, clashing wall-paper, the mind can-not relax Choose Restful Wall-Paper for Your Home

And You May Rest - physically and mentally while we work, because we leave your home as we find it!

We do the worrying, the working, and the

SEE OUR NEW SPRING SAMPLEST

15c a Double Roll, and up

J. O. RIGG, Wall Paper and Paints