This will be of interest to many, for Miss Panny has addressed Ashland audiences and many met her here.

Endeavor Had Service—
The Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church presented an interesting program Sunday evening at the church service, in the absence of the pastor.

Special musical numbers were given by the young choir, Marie Davies, Lorraine Sparr, Letha Miles, Lorraine Brookmiller, Emily Taylor and Doris Hitchcock.

Letha Miles appeared in a clever little reading, and Minnehaha in costume, made her plea sweetly in song which was answered by the choir and audience.

A play "Religion of the World," was presented by four characters, representing "Confucianism," "Buddhism," "Mo-hammadanism," and a "Christian" Missionary.

These characters were presented by Frederica Brom-mer, Stephen Merger, Warren Dorems and Marie Davies. All were dressed appropriately for the characters represented and played their parts especially well.

Miss Doris Hitchcock presided at the meeting.

and Mrs. Lorraine Brookmiller gave the Scripture lesson.

W. R. C. Social—
The W. R. C. had a most delightful afternoon Monday when the "membership" assembled in I. O. O. F. hall for their test-nightly social.

The hostesses on this occasion were Mrs. Jessie Peering, Mrs.
Aisameta Carleton and Mrs.
Maudie White. There were other hostesses and assistants who assisted to serve, but illness prevented their attendance.

Delicious sandwiches, cakes and coffee were served to the guests and brought to a close a very happy afternoon, spent in real old-fashioned visiting.

Next Saturday, March the twentieth, is the regular business meeting of the organization. It is also held in I. O.
O. F. hall. Members are asked to attend, if possible.

French Club Meets—
The French Club held its scheduled meeting at the home of Mrs. F. D. Warner with a large percentage of the members present.

The teacher, Mrs. T. J. Malin-gren, who has been ill was able to be present and lead the class.

Mrs. W. M. Foley is hostess for the club next Monday evening.

Mr. Milton of Jackson Hot Springs has offered his dance hall to Bellview and Upper Valley. We will make a lot if you'll come out. Admission 50c each.
Coffee and home made cake, 15 cents. Thursday, March 18.

BENNY LEONARD IN ATTEMPT COMEBACK

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

Benny Leonard's half-promised intention of coming out of retirement this summer will show little interest in the lightweight division and invigorate the other classes.

Tex Rickard says that when the heavyweight and lightweight champions are not active, business is slack in every class. Jack Demsey certainly hasn't been active and Leonard's retirement left the lightweight division in a hole and business has been anything but good.

It is not certain that Demsey will fight this year and it is not a sure thing that Leonard will return to competition. They both say their plans are dependent upon the public will.

Leonard who is in the middlewest on a vaudeville tour has been telling all who asked him about his plans that he would return to the ring if the public demanded it. The public might not demand it but there are enough customers interested in him to make it worth while for him to return to the ring for a few fights.

It is doubtful that Leonard, if he does come out of retirement, will return to the lightweight class. He would have to fight Rocky Kansas to get back his title and there would be very little money in that fight. It would be more profitable and easier, from a physical standpoint to return to the welterweight division.

Very little steam would be needed to put over a match between Mickey Walker, the welterweight champion, and Leonard for the title and it would mean a lot of money for both.

Advertising Pays You- Advertising brings to millions, at reasonable prices, comforts and conveniences that without advertising would be luxuries that only a few could enjoy. America is an advertising nation. This is one reason why the man with moderate means here enjoys more comforts than most wealthy men abroad. Because thousands on thousands of people ask for a certain article by the same name, which they have read in the same advertisements, it is possible for the advertiser to sell this item at a minimum of effort. It is therefore possible to manufacture and to distribute this product at a saving which you share with the advertiser. When you figure the number of these items in your daily life built by advertising, you can appreciate that advertising does pay you! ADVERTISING IS THE ONLY WAY TO BUY BETTER THINGS AT LESS COST
