HEARS OF OREGON WHILE ON VOYAGE

The fame of Oregon as a goal for homeseekers has been carried on the waves of the Southern seas.

This is the story that was told in the Land Settlement Department of the Portland Chamber of Commerce and the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce a few days ago when John Rogler and his son Paul came in and said that they were looking for an Oregon poultry ranch and small dairy.

Mr. Rogler and his son were formerly from Tomahawk, Wisconsin and have recently returned to the United States from a sojourn in Brazil, South America. While on board ship, as they plowed through the tropic seas, they heard of Oregon.

Their informant was T. C. Oliver, an American from Louisiana, who had spent some years in South America and was returning to the States. He told his interested listeners that he had been in correspondence with the Land Settlement Department of the Portland and Oregon State Chambers and he gave them some of the Oregon literature that he had received.

The result was, that as the tall peaks of the Andes faded away from the vision of Oregon came closer and closer, the vision of Oregon came closer and closer to that group on shipboard con-

How you feel all morning depends largely on what you eat for breakfast.

Thousands have unenergetic forenoons because of wrong breakfast eating.

To feel right, you must have a well-balanced, complete breakfast ration. At most other meals—lunch and dinner—you get it. But breakfast is a hurried meal, often badly chosen.

Thus Quaker Oats, containing 16% protein, food's great tissue builder, 58% carbohydrate, its great energy element, plus all-important vitamins and the "bulk" that makes laxatives seldom needed, is the dietetic urge of the world today.

It is food that "stands by" you through the morning. Food that should start every breakfast in your home.

Quick Quaker cooks in 3 to 5 minutes. That's faster than plain toast. Don't deny yourself the natural stimulation this rich food offers you.

BIG SAVINGS
