RUSSIAN REFUGEES TO BE SENT TO SOUTH AMERICA

By HENRY WOOD (United Press Correspondent)

GENEVA (United Press)—With the establishment both at Buenos Aires and Rio de Janeiro of high commissions of the International Labor Bureau for the permanent settlement of Russian refugees, the League of Nations hopes to settle finally the last of the great refugee problems that grew out of the war.

It will be the finishing of the great task that the League began at its first assembly with the repatriation of prisoners of nearly all the belligerent nations that remained scattered through Russia, Siberia and other nations.

Of the million Russian refugees that have permanently remained in Europe since the advent of the Bolshevik regime about four-fifths of them or 800,000 have been more or less absorbed in the various countries where they have found hospitality. At least they are regarded as being on a self-supporting basis.

This, however, seems to be about the limit that Europe is able to absorb economically, and it is hoped that the remaining 200,000 can be permanently settled in the South American countries.

In conformity with the project worked out by Colonel Proctor on behalf of the International Labor Bureau during his trip of investigation in South America last summer, the two high commissions at Buenos Aires and Rio de Janeiro will work in conjunction with the governments there, various local organizations and the labor market generally in finding permanent places of settlement for the Russians.

In the meantime the Labor Bureau and League of Nations organizations in Europe will undertake to find the necessary funds to pay for the transportation of the Russian refugees to South America together with sufficient capital to insure their being established on a self-supporting basis.

The 200,000 unemployed Russians who still remain in Europe and for whom permanent homes are being sought largely in South America are now distributed in the different European countries as follows: Germany 83,000; Poland, 42,655; Serbia, 19,300; Bulgaria, 8,800;

THIS OLD SPORT HAD MODERN VIEW

SAN FRANCISCO (U.P.)—Captain William W. Armstrong, Olympian swimmer, returned to swim in the Columbia river when he was 70 years old. Since then he has swum 100 times approximately 53,000 times. At the age of 80 he swam a day, that was his last day, which figure is not approximate, but correct.

To exercise, of which swimming is an adequate and pleasant form; to moderation in all things, but abstinence in eating in particular; to the plain pasture variety of good old home ways in conduct of self and life, Captain Armstrong states his advanced years. To his observance of these rules he pins the faith that his greatest ambition is to be realized. His ambition is to get the boys together on his hundredth birthday, with himself at the head of the table pouring or something.

Armstrong has been a member of San Francisco's Olympic club

Boy Who Stole Oranges Sends Money To Store

OREGON CITY, Ore., March 23—(U.P.)—"Stolen fruit" is supposed to taste better than any other kind, but it turned bitter to the mouth of a little boy who formerly lived here.

This became known when a merchant received a letter with 10 cents enclosed to pay for fruit stolen some time ago.

The letter read: "Dear Sir: I am a little boy who did live near your city and while there I did you a wrong. I took two oranges from your store, and I am sending you 10 cents for the same and ask you to forgive me, as Jesus has saved me and forgave me for my sins. Respectfully."

The merchant did not reveal the lad's name.

Ashland, Oregon, March 23, 1926. TO THE MEMBERS OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF ASHLAND, OREGON:

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED, that on the 4th day of April, 1926, at the hour of 9 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, a meeting of the members of the First Baptist Church of Ashland, Oregon, a corporation, will be held at the Bungalow, being the usual place of worship of said members of said church, for the purpose of changing the name of said corporation from The First Baptist Church of Ashland, Oregon, to some other suitable name.

Back Lame and Achy?

The Advice of This Ashland Resident Help You To Get Well

Do you suffer nagging back-aches? Peel dizzy, nervous and depressed? Are the kidney secretions irregular; breaking your rest? Likely your kidneys are at fault. Weak kidneys give warning. You have backache; rheumatic twinges. You feel weak, tired, all worn-out.

Heed the warning. Don't delay! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Your neighbors recommend Doan's.

Here is an Ashland case. Mrs. A. Sberard, 841 E. Main St., says: "I had a lame aching back that kept me feeling miserable all the time. My work tired me easily and I had frequent headaches. My kidneys acted too frequently, too. Doan's Pills relieved the backaches and regulated my kidneys."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy; get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Sberard had. Foster-McBarn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

RHEUMATISM

Use Trunk's Prescription because it is a shame to suffer with rheumatism! This prescription does not ruin the stomach, it does not depress the heart, neither does it require dieting to make it effective. Trunk's Prescription does not contain any mercury or narcotics; but it does combine the essential medical elements necessary in the successful treatment of rheumatism and gout, according to well informed present-day medical opinion. Uric acid solvent and liver medicine. Trunk's Prescription sells for $1.75 at McNair Bros.

Pictures That Pay

Your mind registers hundreds of pictures every day. Faces on the street, people in a doorway, a tray of watches in a window, ribbon on a hat. Interesting or amusing, maybe, but of what actual value are most of them to you?

Yet a vast number of pictures that can affect your daily living are waiting for your glance. Advertisements show you better things to ride in, eat, wear, enjoy—honestly pictured for you. Pictures that pay! Such pictures make you familiar with the newest, most improved things you can buy. The soap, hosiery, fountain pen that mean most to you. Familiar with their color, way they are wrapped, name on the package. You can recognize them at once, link them at once with their advertised facts, know all about them before you buy. You don't have to test them. They have been tested for you. The watch widely advertised links in thousands of pockets. The skillet on the printed page is used on a thousand stoves. Pictures in advertisements are pictures of good things enjoyed in countless homes.

Look at advertisements and their pictures. They let you choose the best
