THIS PROMISES TO BE BIG YEAR FOR AUTO BUSINESS

The automotive business in Ashland during 1926 promises to exceed that of previous years, with several new agencies and arrangements operating here.

The dealers now offer a representative list of automobiles. The agencies and the automobiles sold are as follows:

Automotive Shop, Chevrolet.
De Bon Auto Company, Nash and Marmion.

Claycomb Motor Company, Fords, Fordses and Lincolns.
A. C. Wilhite, Pontiac and Oakland.

Park Garage, Oldsmobile, Studebaker and Rickenbacher.

Armstrong Motors, Inc., Hudson and Essex.

The new agencies which have located here since last summer De Bon Motor Company and A. C. Wilhite. The Park Garage has also added the Studebaker since last summer. This list of agencies offers practically any type and price automobile one could want.

In the way of parts and replacements, Ashland is also fortunate in having two parts dealers, Leedom's and Western Auto Supply company, as well as The Claycomb Motor company, which has a complete line of Ford parts.

The only change in the gasoline service station business was the leasing of the Ashland Service from Dr. W. Oeser by Cliff Jenkins, who is an experienced man in this line of business.

The garages offer expert mechanical service and the tire dealers offer a wide range of tires.

At the Armstrong Motors, Inc., in fact the autoist does not have to go out of town for any kind of equipment or service.

WESTERN AUTO SUPPLY CO. OBSERVES 10th ANNIVERSARY

Ten years ago this march, the Western Auto Supply Company opened its first store on the Pacific coast. Today over one hundred and twenty-five stores throughout the west carry the Western Auto banner.

The company has always been very careful in the selection of store managers and in the selection of locations for their stores.

In March 1925 the Ashland store was opened, after a very careful survey of the field had been made, which convinced the company's representatives that Ashland offered a splendid opportunity for the upbuilding of a successful automotive stores' business. The results has proved the survey made was correct.

In the selection of a manager for the local store, the company was fortunate. Randall J. Woods, who has been associated with the Walla Walla, Wash., store, was given the opportunity to manage the Ashland store. LEEDOM ANNOUNCES CHANGE IN POLICY

Leedom's, Tires and Replacements, has announced a change in the agency by which the firm hopes to give better tire service to its many customers in this territory.

Heretofore Leedom's has handled several brands of tires, but Leedom stated today he would hereafter specialize in United States tires, believing them the best tire on the market. He stated he had tried several brands and had investigated in the open market and had come to the conclusion that the United States Royal Cords were the tires he wanted to handle.

The United States Rubber company, Mr. Leedom stated, has probably the largest supply of rubber, owning several large rubber plantations which insures them a plentiful stock of raw rubber and enables them to put out the best grade tire at the cheapest price.
