STEWART'S WASHINGTON LETTER
By CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON—in the belief that Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland is due to figure increasingly in the news for some time to come, I checked over to Baltimore the other day to find out for myself how he looks, talks and behaves, generally.

He does all three admirably. Governor Ritchie, in short, has a charming personality. He's a big man physically, he obviously has brains and he's a gentleman all over, somewhat of the southern type.

It was a tradition, prior to Ritchie's regime, that governors of Maryland had only one term apiece.

Ritchie's had two and now he bespeaks a third. It's his for the asking, on Maryland's part. This speaks well, and correctly, for his gubernatorial record.

Governor Ritchie is best known as a wet.

Well, he is in favor of modifying the Volstead law, but not, he says, because he's wet. He's in favor of it because he thinks the cause of temperance was gaining ground up to the time prohibition was enacted, and, in his opinion, prohibition prohibition gave it a bad name since then things have been going worse and worse.

He wants modification, not a wet measure, but as a guarantee out.

However, his advocacy of prohibition modification is only incidental to his main issue, which is State rights.
