SOCIETY NOTES

Entertained at Luncheon—Mrs. Ruth L. Reed entertained her Sunday school class, the Phi Alpha Chi girls of the Methodist Sunday school, at a one o'clock luncheon, recently, with violets and spring blossoms adding their beauty to the table, where covers were laid for fourteen.

The members of the class are: the Misses Veeda Glendon, Helen Pemberton, Irma Beck, Jeanie Baker, Bernice Carter, Gilda Selby, Celia Kelschert, Emma Cook, Frances Green, Roberta McDev, Alice Pratt, Ruth Green, Virginia Frost and Thelma Hervey. Miss Thelma Perceat who is now a student at the University of Oregon is also a member.

Glee Club Organized—The Glee Club of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles, California will present a program at the Presbyterian church on Monday evening, April 27th, at 8:00 p. m.

M. B. A. Meets—The M. B. A. will have its regular meeting, Wednesday, March 31, at the I. O. O. F. hall. Since this is initiation of candidates, every member is reminded of that fact and to make special effort to be there.

Ashland, Oregon, March 23, 1926.
TO THE MEMBERS OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF ASHLAND, OREGON:
YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED, that on the 4th day of April, 1926, at the hour of 9 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, a meeting of the members of the First Baptist Church of Ashland, Oregon, a corporation, will be held at the Bungalow, being the usual place of worship of said members of said church, for the purpose of changing the name of said corporation from the First Baptist Church of Ashland, Oregon, to some other suitable name.

LUCILE GILMORE, Secretary. 171-10

James Morgan, Administrator. 174-5 Mon.

Daughters of the Nile Benefit—The Daughters of the Nile will have a benefit dance for the Patrol the first of April at Grants Pass.

It is planned to augment the fund for outfitting the Patrol. Many from Ashland will be interested in the affair and doubtless will plan to attend.

Entertained at Bridge—Mrs. Clyde Costale entertained a few of her friends at bridge Wednesday afternoon.

Guests were invited from twenty until five. The hours passed rapidly in the fascinating pastime.

As a pleasant close, Mrs. Costale served a delicious luncheon.

Guests at Dinner—Mrs. Clara G. Asson, who is State Superintendent of Bible School work in the Christian church, was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. G. W. Benedict and his daughter, Miss May Benedict, Thursday.

In the evening, Mrs. Asson met the Sunday school workers of the church and gave a most helpful and inspiring talk.

Mrs. Asson also visited the Medford church and went from here to Eugene. She spent Thursday and Friday here, where she has many friends who were glad to greet her.

Ashland Study Club Meets—The Ashland Study Club meets at the home of Mrs. E. V. Carter, for the Monday session. The half hour period will be used for the selected topic and the book review for the hour. Current Events is the "Roll Call."

There was a large attendance, between thirty-five and forty, of the members of the Social Circle on Wednesday, with Mrs. V. K. Allison hostess, at her home on the Boulevard.

An interesting program had been arranged by the committee in charge, which added much to the pleasure of the afternoon.

Games were played and those who wished were busily engaged in galaxy needlework. With all these happy plans, and the visiting that goes with a gathering of this sort, the afternoon passed all too quickly, until the hostess with a number of ladies assisting her, served lovely refreshments. Mrs. Edwin Dunn is hostess April 14, at her home east of Ashland.

Edna's Ladies Card Club—Another of the pleasant gatherings of the Edna's Ladies Card Club occurred Thursday afternoon at the club room.

There were twelve guests from Medford, and a large attendance of the membership present to enjoy the afternoon.

Nine tables of cards were played; seven of bridge and two of five hundred. Mrs. Quisenberry of Medford was the fortunate one to make high score in bridge and Mrs. L. A. Roberts in five hundred.

Mrs. Roberts of Medford talked on the drive for the girls' hospital fund, presenting the matter to the organization for its consideration.

Mrs. Harris Dean and Mrs. C. J. J. Porter were hostesses and served dainty refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

Social Notes From Valley View—Mrs. Everette Bostwick entertained about fifteen of her lady friends at a thimble party at her home Friday afternoon, March 26. A most pleasant social hour was enjoyed, after which dainty refreshments were served, part of which was a lovely birthday cake, made by Mrs. Harry Weagant for the hostess.

Miss Rosina Gallatin has been home from O. A. C. for a few days' vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Gallatin.

Mrs. L. H. Gallatin who has been ill for several weeks is improving slowly. They hope that the removal of her teeth and some bad teeth will improve her condition.

On March 22, little Mrs. Muriel Morse enjoyed a Melchior party with Miss Phillis Sparr of Ashland. Both girls were nine years old on that day.

Birthday Party—Agnes Nerves, assisted by her sister, Thelma, entertained a few of her friends Friday evening, March 26, at 371 Mountain Ave., in honor of her birthday. The guests present were:

When it isn't raining, the Social Circle has a very attractive party luncheon.

During the business session, the following officers were installed: Mrs. Fred Eagle, president; Mrs. J. W. McCoy, vice-president; Mrs. J. M. Wagner, recording secretary; Mrs. F. E. Hammond, corresponding secretary; Mrs. G. G. Eubanks, chairman; Mrs. S. B. McNeil, treasurer; Mrs. E. C. Ferguson, guard; and Mrs. W. H. McNeil, organist.

Games were played on the lawn during the happy playtime and at its end, a luncheon of delicious ice cream, tiny cakes, little baskets filled with candy and tiny Easter eggs, with a lovely birthday cake, succeeded in the appropriate number of candles, delighted the hearts of the little guests. Yellow and white were used in the pretty table decorations. The young hostess received many pretty gifts from her little friends, all reporting as goodbyes were said, the best time ever.

The guest list numbered: Dorothy Arnold, Lily Avery, Frances Eastburn, Alice Coggins, Margaret Delaman, Adell Gaudet, Ruth Hardy, Dorothy Huff, Peggy Gulley, Irma Jensen, Elizabeth Miller, Gladys Linsger, Agnes Miller, Norma Peterson, Wilda Peterson, Shirley Myer, Gertrude Myers, Phillis Sparr, Charlotte Mitchell, Jean Neff, Frances McCoy, Margaret Broff, June Stewart, Marguerite Ivin, Mrs. Edwin Ivin, Mrs. Frances Stein, Mildred Dunn, Betty Jean Dunn and Mrs. L. C. Dunn.

Annual Dinner—The annual congregational meeting and dinner of the Presbyterian church will be held Wednesday evening, March 31, at 8:30 p. m.

The Ladies Aid Society and the Wednesday Club will have charge of the arrangements for the dinner.

At this meeting the heads of the different departments will present written reports of the year's work.

All members and families in the congregation are urged to be present for the dinner and business meeting which follows. Baskets filled with good things are to be brought for the banquet.

Miss Anderson Entertains—Miss Jean Anderson was hostess at a delightful two o'clock dinner Sunday, with covers laid for the following: Mrs. Reed and Miss Ethel Reed, Mrs. Bruner, Miss Hazel Bruner, Miss Cora Mason, Miss Olga Anderson, Miss Ada Hartley, Mrs. Blair and the hostess, Miss Jean Anderson. Setting blossoms were used in decoration and the afternoon was spent in the pleasant visit of friends.

Miscellaneous Shows—A really truly surprise party occurred Saturday night, when the Misses Edna Gohsen and Gerlie Haas were the happy recipients of a shower planned by the teachers of Junior High.

Miss Haas and Miss Gohsen had but just become nicely settled in their new home on Palm avenue when their friends decided to surprise them in this delightful fashion.

Games were played, stories told and the dainty gifts presented in a very happy way.

Ice cream and cake were served at the close of the pleasant evening.

The invited guests were the Misses Ila Myers, Ethel Reed, Nell Carter, Gladys Morton, Nora
