Millinery Meeting—
 Wednesday's work completed a millinery session held at the Parish House under the direction of the County Demonstration Agent, Miss Ada Brewster.

Those taking the work have attended the all day sessions held and feel that it was very worth while.

There were about fifteen or sixteen in the class held at this time. Miss Brewster is prepared to help by advice, direction or actual demonstration and is generous indeed in her campaign of helpfulness.

Music Club Meets—
 The Ashland Music Study Club met in regular session the evening of March twenty second at the studio of Carl Loveland.

The president, Mrs. J. H. Fuller called the meeting to order promptly at 7:45 and the members responded to roll call with interesting musical items.

Then followed discussions of business details of the concert to be given April the first at the Civic Club house. The music study club is sponsoring this concert and the artist, Mrs. Mildred Wright, California violinist, comes with enthusiastic press notices and recommendations.

The concert occurs tonight and those attending are promised a rare treat in violin music. The club is expecting a large audience of music lovers.

Mrs. E. A. Woods had charge of the study program which she handled in a very capable manner, presenting briefly the subject matter of Chapter VII of Brahms' "How To Listen To Music."

This chapter deals with the Opera and Mrs. Woods limited the discussion to Italian Opera and especially to Operas of Verdi.

Miss Imogene Wallace gave a brief sketch of Verdi's life and compositions.

Miss Blanche Hicks and Mrs. Glad V. Howell read very interesting articles giving glimpses behind the stage as well as before the foot lights.

Mrs. Robertson told the story of Il Trovatore most entertainingly.

The musical part of the program was very much enjoyed. Interpreting as it did the discussions which had preceded it.

Mrs. Fuller and Mr. Loveland sang the duet "Home to Our Mountains" from Il Trovatore.

with Mrs. J. C. Parson as accompanist. Mrs. Peter Haight played the "Carnation March" and told the story of Myerbeer's Opera, "Le Prophete."

Miss Alice Stevens sang the Intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana" with Mrs. S. A. Briscoe accompanist.

Mrs. Harold Atkins and Mrs. Alice Willis played as a piano duet the Quartet from Rigolotto. This closed one of the most interesting meetings of the year.

Congregational Meeting and Dinner—
 The coffee and dinner at the Presbyterian church at thirty third and the tables crowded to capacity with the members of the congregation to enjoy the feast of good things spread.

Tables were laden and from the abundance brought, many more could have been served. Beautiful spring blossoms gave the note of color to the scene of good cheer and friendliness.

After the supper, the business meeting was called and reports from all the activities of the different departments of the church were read. All showed a prosperous year, with obligations fully met and much accomplished.

The reports from the younger groups elicited hearty applause as the children read their business-like statements with their record of so much attained.

Election of members of the session and of trustees resulted in W. C. Lyman, Mr. Zimmerman and G. M. Frost as elders and J. B. Harner, W. M. Foley and Mr. Graham as trustees.

W. M. Wright was reelected superintendent of the Sunday school. The remaining officers of the Sunday school are named by the session.

An unusually large attendance marked the meeting and the survey of the year's work was a matter of encouragement and congratulation.

The Ladies A. J. and the Wednesday Club had charge of the annual dinner.

Joint Hostesses—
 Miss Lucile Voss and Miss Calla Eaton were joint hostesses at a very happy party given at the Eaton home on Maple street, Friday evening.

The spacious rooms were beautifully decorated with the Ashland High school colors, red and white, and cut flowers were placed about the rooms.

The evening was spent in playing games, in dancing and with music.

The color scheme was also carried out in the delicious refreshments, which consisted of punch and cakes.

The young hostesses' mothers, Mrs. Henry Voss and Mrs. Ethel Eaton, assisted in serving and acted as chaperones for the happy affair.

At a late hour the guests departed for their homes expressing much joy for the evening.

Those present were: the Misses Macke and Marie Mitchell, Dorothy Stevens, Lorraine Sparr, Adena Joy, Edna Wilson, Letha Miles, Sarah Fay, Lucile Voss

Section—
 Two letters were read: one from Miss Dorothea Abraham and one from Miss Elsie Howell, both former Ashland teachers in Junior High and both now teachers in the True Light School of Union, China. These letters have graphic description of their life and work with many interesting side lights on the political situation as it now exists.

The Guild membership was very glad to get these letters and to learn of the work first hand. Miss Abraham has been adopted by the Southern Oregon Federation and Miss Elsie Howell has been made a life member of the Westminster Guild of this church.

When business matters and program had been taken care of, the plans for the social hour matured.

Since two valued members of the Guild have but lately established their Lares and Penates in their own new home on Palm avenue, the organization planned a very happy surprise and it really was a complete one; in that not a hint of it had reached the ones most concerned.

After the delicious refreshments of ice cream and home wafers had been served by the hostess, Mrs. Van Sant, assisted by Mrs. Sarah Walker, the unconscious guests of honor, Miss Gertrude Haan and Miss Edna Gibson, were astonished to see, being placed before them, a large receptacle filled to the brim with neatly arranged packages. They were invited to proceed to open the packages which they did with an interested group of friends watching the process.

They found this "shower" was a somewhat transparent one, in that most of the dainty bundles contained pieces of glassware for the new home. Sets of glasses, sherbet cups, sugars and creamers; pretty odd pieces of china, and glass ware, articles for the kitchen, not to mention a cassetere and a luncheon set were among the many gifts presented.

The recipients were quite overcome, but invited the Guild to come out and use the lovely gifts. A "lisen shower" the week before, by the teacher-friends of the girls was another surprise, bringing many useful reminders of warm friendship.

T. A. Meeting—
 At the P. T. A. Council Meeting at the Library, Wednesday afternoon all three circles were well represented.

Plans were made for the County Council, which will meet here on Saturday, April 6, at ten o'clock for an all day session at the Lithia Springs hotel.

The luncheon will be a popular price, 65 cents per plate. Every one is asked to phone their reservations for luncheon to the president, Mrs. J. A. Rager, 346-J, before April 5.

The organization hopes that all members and any one interested in the work and welfare of children and youth of our community and county will plan to attend one or all of the sessions.

Election of county officers will be held at this meeting. Resolutions will be made of the many activities of the circles all over the county.

The State Vice President, Mrs. Louis Dodge will be present and give an interesting address.

Civic Club Meets—
 Tuesday, April 6, at 2:30 p. m. is the date of the coming Civic Club meeting.

The Ashland Study Club will have charge of the program hour. Mrs. J. R. Robertson and Mrs. A. E. Woods will present a half hour in music and Mrs. V. V. Mills will talk on the Japanese arrangement of flowers.

A splendid program of interesting numbers is promised and it is hoped that there will be a full attendance of the membership for Tuesday's session.

G. A. R. Observed—
 April 6 is G. A. R. Day which will be observed by the W. R. C. at the I. O. O. F. hall.

Dinner will be served at twelve o'clock and all old soldiers of the G. A. R. will be honored guests of the Relief-Corps.

W. R. C. ladies are all asked to plan to be present and the G. A. R. are invited for the dinner and the afternoon, with its program and social hours.

Federation of Clubs Meeting At La Grande—
 The sales sales of the annual convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs is of interest to club women.

"Preparation, Participation, Progress" is the slogan for the 26th annual convention of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs to be held in La Grande, May 3, 4, 5, and 6. The general theme of the convention will be "Unlimited Opportunities for Women Challenge Better Preparation and Utmost Participation."

Mrs. C. W. Hylhurst of Portland has been named chairman of the program committee. Other members are Mrs. C. H. Scrandall, president of the La Grande Neighborhood club; Mrs. William Krasick, Oregon City, chairman of the division of mu-

ALL foods fried in Mazola retain their full, natural flavor—when ready for serving are greaseless—and when eaten are wholesome and easily digested.

Why? Mazola is a pure, sweet, wholesome vegetable oil—free from moisture—and just as good and delicious to eat as the corn from which it comes.
