but no prizes were awarded. The Ashland Floral Society voted to conduct a similar display of spring flowers in the near future in cooperation with the Civic Improvement Club instead of the exhibit previously discussed.

Anyone who has flowers in bloom, that they will display is urged to watch for announcement of date and cooperate with the above mentioned organizations in revealing the possibilities of Ashland.

The informal discussion of native wild flowers that was conducted by Miss Blanche Hicks, Mrs. Winters and Mrs. Vaupel unable to be present, was exceedingly interesting and instructive and evidently thoroughly enjoyed by all. The society also appointed representatives to express to the city council their approval and cooperation in the preservation of the trees in the new sidewalk district. The council last night assured the representatives of their earnest endeavor to preserve all trees in any way possible and they were giving the matter serious consideration.

The society is anxious to greatly increase its membership. Anyone who desires to encourage the work and receive the benefits of the association with other flower growers is urged to give his name and dues of $1.00 to anyone of the members. Mrs. Frank Jordan is secretary-treasurer of the society.

MOTOR NEWS

ALL STEEL BODY IS HELD LOGICAL STEP

The Dodge Brothers are known the world over for one contribution of immeasurable importance to the automobile industry — successful production of the first passenger automobiles fitted with all steel open bodies and the first with all steel closed bodies. The importance of this achievement will, in the future, be regarded just as much an epoch in the automobile industry as the successful building of the first steel passenger coaches is to railway transportation and all-steel steamships to navigation.

The Dodge Brothers, according to C. E. Eakin of The Eakin Motor Co., of Medford, saw clearly the need for the all steel motor car. "And now the whole automobile industry," says Mr. Eakin "has begun to recognize that the all-steel body is the automobile body of the future."

"It is entirely logical to look to Dodge Brothers motor car — on which have been devoted over eleven years of constant effort toward improvement of this type — for the highest development of the art of building all steel bodies. The low graceful all-steel closed bodies now displayed stand out as the crowning achievement. The slender steel pillars afford breadth of vision heretofore unapproached in closed car bodies, yet the strength and safety for which Dodge Brothers motor cars have become so well known are unimpaired. The method of welding and riveting the pressed steel body frame members and panels into one well-braced assembly insure absolute freedom from loose joints and squeaks throughout the long life of the sturdy body.

"Substantial reduction in weight, increased quietness, improved flexibility and smoothness, all are the results of adherence to the policy of constant refinement. All these improvements have contributed toward increasing the safety, driving ease and riding comfort of Dodge Brothers motor cars.

To Those Who Judge Quality by Price

The quality of Ford cars cannot be judged by the prices at which they are sold — because Ford prices are made possible by conditions that are absolutely unique in the automotive industry.

The price advantage which the public enjoys in purchasing Ford cars is the result of volume production, coupled with manufacturing facilities and resources that are without parallel.

From mine to market the Ford car is the work of a single organization. The Company owns and operates the mines and forests that furnish the raw materials for its products. This material is carried over Ford transportation routes, fabricated in Ford mills, manufactured in Ford plants — and the finished product is sold to the public through the Ford dealer organization.

Thus there is but a single manufacturing profit on the car.
