Daughters of the Nile Luncheon
On Saturday the Daughters of the Nile met in Ashland, with a luncheon at the Lithia Springs hotel. This preceded the meeting.

A feature of the luncheon was the entertainment of the sixteen ladies composing the Patrol; by the past Queen, Mrs. Belle Schwein, in whose reign it was organized.

During the meeting later, Mrs. Schwein was presented in well chosen words, with a beautiful Past Queen's pin by Past Queen Herman of Grants Pass.

Mrs. Alice Winetrou of Grants Pass is Queen and presided very efficiently over Saturday's meeting.

The Ceremonial will be held in Grants Pass in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Porter On Tour
Mr. and Mrs. Irving Porter, whose marriage occurred a few weeks ago expect to visit in Ashland within the next fortnight and pleasant plans will be carried out for their entertainment.

The orchestra of which Mr. Porter is a member, leaves soon for an engagement of some length in Oregon and California.

A feature of the departure of the orchestra will be an additional member recruited in Spokane; Mrs. Irving Porter, wife of Irving Porter, saxophone artist. They were married about a month ago. Mrs. Porter was formerly Miss Marjorie Ream. The musicians expect to play in Medford.

P. N. G. Club Meets
Mrs. N. M. Long, assisted by Mrs. Frank Jordan, entertained the Past Noble Grands' Club, Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. N. M. Long.

The usual routine of business was carried out the first hour. Fancy work and visiting occupied the remainder of the afternoon, at the close of which the most delightful of refreshments were served.

The day happened to be Mrs. Long's birthday anniversary, and her daughter had sent a beautiful birthday cake adorned with candles, and Mrs. Jordan, who discovered the fact had also made a lovely cake and it, too, bore the candles to mark the years.

Since but two things may be served at this club, and delicious sandwiches and Spanish

The piano numbers were also well received. Miss Kaspars Hagen announced her number in charming Swedish accents for she has been visiting in this country but a few months. In June she plans to return to Sweden in company with Mrs. Wright for a concert tour of that country, Norway and Denmark.

The concert here which was sponsored by the Ashland Music Study Club was so successful that the club hopes to secure other artists to appear here at future dates. The Club also desires to give much credit to the Women's Civic Improvement club which so generously gave the use of their lovely auditorium and dressing rooms without charge.

Yeoman Social
A social and box supper will be held at the I. O. O. F. hall this evening given by the Yeomen.

Yeomen and their friends are invited. A program is planned of interesting numbers and the contents of the boxes will also be interesting to the fortunate ones who will enjoy them.

The box supper will engage the attention of the guests first; this will be followed by the program and dance.

Art Club Meets
Mrs. J. V. Miller is hostess for Monday evening's meeting of the Ladies' Art Club, at her home at 77 Fifth street.

She will be assisted by Mrs. Haberly.

Ladies Aid Meets
Mrs. Henry Carter was hostess at a meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Congregational church Thursday afternoon.

With the usual business meeting, sewing on a quilt and social hour the afternoon passed quickly.

During the afternoon, delightful refreshments were served. There was a good attendance of the membership present to enjoy the work and the pleasant visit.

W. C. T. U. Meets
The W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Mrs. B. B. Powell on Nutley street on Tuesday, April 13, 1926, from 2:30 to 4:00 p. m.

There will be an interesting program and a social hour as usual.

Marriage Announcement
Announcement of the marriage of Dr. Thomas J. Halloran and Dr. E. Elizabeth Bush, which occurred Friday, April the second, nineteen hundred and twenty-six, at Oakland, California, has been received by friends in Ashland.

Dr. and Mrs. Halloran were guests at the Lithia Springs hotel over the week end. They drove to Ashland, Mrs. Halloran's former home, upon their honeymoon.

They will be at home in Ashland, having established their offices there.

To give opportunity for friends to greet Dr. and Mrs. Halloran, a reception was planned for Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McNair, with Mrs. W. H. Day, Mrs. Frank Jordan and Mrs. McNair, hostesses.

The rooms were lovely with the masses of Spring blossoms which were used in profusion.

The bride, gowned in a smoke gray crepe was very lovely and very happy to meet so many of her old friends.

The evening was spent in a delightful visit with bride and bridegroom. Later tables for cards were brought in, and bridge and rummy proved entertaining for a number. Others just visited.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses at the close of the pleasantly spent hours.

The guest list included Dr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Halloran, Mr. and Mrs. George Looney, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Peters, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Thornton, Mr. and Mrs. Gill, Mrs. Cliff Jenkins; the Misses Emma Jenkins; George Coffee and Ruth Osmun; Mrs. Leah Caldwell, Mrs. Belle Schwein, Mrs. Bertha Denton, Mrs. Elizabeth Van Sant, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Baughman, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ruger, Mr. and Mrs. Nate Bates, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stock, Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Whittle, the Rev. and Mrs. P. H. Hammond, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Winland, Mr. and Mrs. Hal McNair, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McNair and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Day.

It was a matter of regret that the honored guests could not spend more time in Ashland for there were many others who would have liked to have added their word of greeting.

Congratulations were offered during the evening and the best of good wishes will follow Dr. and Mrs. Halloran to their new home.

Quiet Wedding
Robison-Flackus—
A wedding of interest to the many friends of the young people occurred Sunday, April eleventh at two o'clock at the parsonage of the Christian church when Miss Ruth Flackus and Ralph Robison pledged their vows, the Rev. V. K. Alford, officiating clergyman.

The bride and groom were unattended, with the exception of a friend of the bride, Miss Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Robison left on the evening train for Palo Alto for a short wedding trip. Upon their return they will be at home in their pretty bungalow 888E on East Main; which the bridegroom has in readiness for his bride.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Robison are graduates of Ashland high school and have been identified with the various school activities and interests.

Mrs. Robison is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Flackus. Mr. Robison is the son of Mr. W. V. Robison of near Talent and both are popular young people.

He holds a lucrative position with the Southern Pacific. A host of friends of the young couple join in wishing them every happiness in the world.

Bridge Dinner
Another of the delightful bridge dinners of the Bridge Club occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Wagner, Saturday evening.

There were seventeen to enjoy it, and the happy evening which followed, with the interest of the club members centered on bridge, the honors won by Mr. A. E. Kinney and Mrs. T. H. Simpson; Mrs. E. V. Carter and Irving E. Vining receiving the consolation prizes.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mattern, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kinney, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McNair, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Wagner, Irving E. Vining, C. E. Pell, Mrs. Emma Oeder and host and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Wagner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Gabriel
To Ashland—
Mrs. W. W. Gabriel, state president of Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers, will be in Ashland, Thursday evening. She
