Junior High P. T. A. Meets—
 Junior High Circle P. T. A. met Wednesday afternoon at three-thirty at Junior High building.

At the business meeting, it was decided to have a food sale the 26th, to add to the milk fund of the organization.

Miss Betz, of the American Child Health Association, who had addressed the chamber of commerce at its forum luncheon and the W. C. T. U. at its meeting, this week, was one of the speakers at the meeting at Junior High. She brought the same message that she is presenting wherever opportunity affords; the value of a milk inspector and she also calls attention to the small amount per capita of milk that is used in the different communities.

Blanche Hicks brought helpful ideas in a helpful way in her talk on the "Companionship of Good Books." How to judge good books was stressed strongly.

The second Wednesday of each month is now the time of meetings.

Mrs. Schwein Entertains—
 Mrs. Hollie Schwein was hostess at a very attractive four course, seven o'clock dinner Easter evening, with covers laid for twelve, at a table lovely in its decorative note of yellow and white. Favors, candles and even the birthday cake was a dream in yellow and white.

The birthday cake bore its legend in candles, although it did not tell the same tale that it did last year.

Presents which were clever jokers made much merriment when opened. Two remarkable essays were written and prizes were offered the successful contestant. Dr. R. W. Sleeter, whose birthday was so happily celebrated, received the prize in the essay contest.

Those enjoying Mrs. Schwein's hospitality were Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Sleeter and sons, Bob and Dick, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crow, Miss Catherine Harkins, Miss Maude Rice, Miss Koss, Medford, and Mrs. Schwein's young daughter.

Camp Wasiyata Meets—
 Camp Wasiyata held a business meeting Thursday, April the eighth. At this, there was the roll call, to which all responded. There were the reports of secretary and treasurer. A song and the Crede were given and a law was chosen to which all must measure up this coming week.

The organization wishes to visit a summer camp and ways and means were discussed pretty earnestly at this meeting.

It was decided to have a cake and candy sale, the girls to supply the materials. This will be Saturday.

Announcement was also made that Miss Squire, editor of "Every Girls' Magazine" plans to stop in Ashland on her way from Camp Fire Girls' National Convention. Plans are already being formed for her entertainment.

An Easter Bride—

"Miss Beulah Arlene Medley and Willard Phelan were married a few days ago, stealing a march on their many friends by slipping away to Yreka where the ceremony was performed one day last week.

"Mr. Phelan is a popular young man of Medford, and the young people will make their home there.

"Mrs. Phelan lived in Ashland prior to her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Phelan have many friends who wish them much happiness along the journey of life."

Upper Valley Community Club Meets—

The Upper Valley Community Club met at the home of Mrs. W. L. Huxley, Tuesday of this week.

At the usual business meeting many things came up of importance to the organization. Mrs. Carl Goetze was principal speaker of the afternoon and talked on Landscape Gardening and placement of flowers and shrubs in grounds for the most artistic arrangement.

Mrs. Goetze used Mrs. Huxley's lawn in illustration. Open discussion brought out interesting suggestions. The topic proved so fascinating that the program hour was occupied in its consideration.

The "Home Study Tour" came up for consideration too, but nothing definite was settled. Cake, coffee and ice cream were served by the hostess. The plan of the silver tea is followed and the money goes to the flower fund. Many flowers have been sent to the sick.

Social Circle Have Meeting—

The Social Circle of the Christian church held another of their interesting meetings at the home of Mrs. Edwin Dunn, south of town. Mrs. Dunn was assisted by the Mesdames Roy Gearhart, DeHaas, Galbraith, Davis and Duncan.

The pleasant, spacious rooms were well filled with the membership which had gathered for a business meeting and social hour. Reports were read from officers, and the committee gave encouraging reports also.

There is now a roster of 90 in this organization and it was voted to give up meeting at the homes in the future and to hold the sessions, social or business, at the church, where there is now plenty of room in the Annex for assembly, and for refreshments, in the banquet room.

The ladies feel justly proud that they have financed the painting of the church and the work is all completed. They are interested, too, in the contest now being staged in the Sunday school attendance and are helping along the friendly rivalry between Klamath Falls and Ashland churches.

The next meeting of the Circle will be at the church in two weeks. There will be a hostess and six assistants, appointed.

Entertain for Mrs. Chaney—

The "Who Do" class were entertained at the home of Miss Jean Anderson, Thursday of last week when Mrs. S. J. Chaney, who was here visiting, was the complimented guest.

Thirty five members of the class of which she was a member were present to meet her. Games were played, and the cozy social visit made the time pass all too rapidly. Delicious refreshments were served.

The next regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Rollie Rimabarger in Medford, Friday the 16th. There will be a covered dish luncheon. Cars will be at the church at 10:30 a. m. for all who wish to go. Election of officers occurs at this meeting.

A Surprise Party—

"Mrs. E. J. Teters was the happy hostess at a surprise party, Saturday, April 10, which was planned by her daughter, Mrs. J. E. Vallmer of North Bend, Oregon, who is visiting now in Ashland.

The fact that Mrs. Teters was sixty years old, occasioned the party.

There were only a few intimate friends invited, because Mrs. Teters has been quite ill since her return from San Jose, where Mr. and Mrs. Teters spent the winter with their son, W. V. Teters.

The invited guests were: Mrs. James Williams, Mrs. Oscar Harris, Miss Mildred Martin, Miss Louise Martin, Mrs. Hibbs, Mrs. Mary Sweet, Mrs. Addie Smith of Medford, Mrs. Chester Parkman, Miss Lucile Smith, Miss Mary Smith and Mrs. J. E. Vallmer.

Mrs. Teters was surprised, truly, and the afternoon so happily planned passed all too fast in the pleasant visit of friends.

W. C. T. U. Meets—

Mrs. L. B. Powell was hostess at Tuesday's meeting of the W. C. T. U., which presented a wonderfully interesting program during the afternoon.

Miss Neven O. Bell, the first speaker, urged closer supervision of supply and sale of milk. She declared that a survey the past year showed that children of this, and other localities were not drinking enough milk and suggested the employment of a full time inspector to analyze and grade the milk of every dairy at least once a month.

The next speaker was L. A. Leach, deputy state food and dairy commissioner, who gave a brief talk, urging local supervision of the dairies.

After the business session which occurred at this time, Mrs. C. W. Fraley spoke on "The Child, the Chief Asset." Mrs. L. B. Powell talked on "Child Labor and Kindergarten Work." "Story Hour—What to Tell and How to Tell It" was the subject of an address by Mrs. Lawrence Coder.

"Welfare of the Child—The Supreme Issue" was discussed by Miss May Benedict.

All of these addresses were very interesting and well received by the members present. Mrs. Sam McNair left a message with the ladies in regard to the new juvenile hospital in Portland, the drive for which is being put on just now. She urged the ladies to be prepared to assist materially in the work when solicited.

The W. C. T. U. sent a letter of appreciation to Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh, former financial secretary of the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis, in recognition of her faithful work in that department.

Mrs. Stella Leavett gave a talk on the "Effects of Narcotics on the Human System" and Mrs. Angell told of "Work with Children," and of visits to jail at Jacksonville.

The social hour followed the splendid program, during which the hostess, Mrs. Powell, served dainty refreshments.

Civic Club Meeting—

Founders' Day will be celebrated at the meeting, Tuesday afternoon, of the Civic Club.

A very clever program, bearing upon events of earlier days, is being prepared. This is in charge of Mrs. Otto Winter.

Mrs. Alice Willits will plan for the musical numbers for the afternoon.

This meeting is in honor especially of those who binned the way, in the earlier years, and all older people are particularly invited to be present and enjoy the afternoon with the club.

Those more recently come to town are asked to be present, also, to get acquainted with what has been and what is being done along civic lines by the Civic Improvement Club in Ashland.

Members, too, are urged to let nothing hinder their presence, Tuesday.

It is of interest to many that those who first planned for the organization of the Civic Club were Mrs. Lou Reeder, Mrs. C. H. Vaupel and Mrs. Otto Winter.

A cordial invitation is given anyone interested in Tuesday's meeting to be present. The hostesses will be announced Monday.

Southern Oregon District Meeting—

The Southern Oregon District Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its annual convention in Roseburg, Saturday, April 24, 1925.

Mrs. James O. Fonzler, 515 W. Oak street, is president and Miss Fannie Abraham of Grants Pass is treasurer.
