POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS RALPH P. COWGILL Candidate for the Republican nomination for state senator, subject to the May 21st primaries.

CONGRESS WILL KILL OFF APPROPRIATION MEASURES

By WILLIAM J. McVOY (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, April 16.—(U. P.)—Andrew W. Nelson would be out of a job and the Federal Treasury might well be closed if Congress were disposed to grant all appropriations that have been sought during the present session.

Only the repetition of an emphatic "no" by leaders in both Houses to demands for funds has prevented the hanging of a "For Sale" sign on the massive Treasury building, across the street from the White House, when the legislators start trekking home for the elections.

With a campaign staring them in the face, members of the Senate and House, with few exceptions, have presented bills proposing the expenditure of federal funds for various and sundry projects in their districts. In addition to these measures, there have also been proposed numerous bills for pension, farm relief, aviation and several other purposes, all involving big expenditures.

Aware that the passage of any of these measures might endanger the administration's economy program and force an upward revision of taxes, leaders are planning to adjourn Congress as soon as all necessary legislation is disposed of. Leaders hold high hopes now of adjourning the session by May 15. They are certain that it will not last beyond June 1.

Exclusive of the "home town" bills, such as measures proposing construction of new post offices, legislation is now pending in the House and its committees which, if enacted, would cause more than $600,000,000 to be spent from the federal treasury.

Relief for agriculture which has been demanded by the farm bloc would cost approximately $200,000,000 while a civil service retirement bill now on the House calendar would send $125,000,000 rolling out of the treasury. Legislation proposing upbuilding of the Army and Navy air services at a total cost of nearly $200,000,000 has been passed on favorably by the Military and Naval committees. Retirement legislation for Army and Navy Nurses at a cost of $50,000,000 and liberalization of the Soldier Bonus Act calling for about $12,000,000 has been proposed. A pension bill for Spanish war veterans at a cost of $19,000,000 awaits consideration.

To all of these proposals would be added more than $100,000,000 if members were successful in securing appropriations for all proposed river and harbor improvement work.

Aside from bills proposing direct appropriations and authorizations, hundreds of bills creating new government bureaus and reorganizing existing ones at an additional expense have been introduced.

One the "must" legislation is out of the way, leaders will press for adjournment to prevent a spending spree which would
