

ASHLAND DAILY TIDINGS

(Established in 1878)

Published Every Evening Except Sunday by THE ASHLAND PRINTING CO.

Bert R. Greer Editor, George Madden Green Business Manager, W. H. Perkins News Editor

OFFICIAL CITY PAPER Telephone 39

Entered at the Ashland, Oregon Postoffice as Second Class Mail Matter Subscription Price, Delivered in City

Table with rates for One Month, Three Months, Six Months, One Year for Single and By Mail and Rural Routes.

Table with DISPLAY ADVERTISING RATES for Single insertion, Political, Daily insertion, and Yearly Contracts.

WHAT CONSTITUTES ADVERTISING: All future events, where an admission charge is made or a collection taken is Advertising.

DONATIONS: No donations to charities or otherwise will be made in advertising or job printing.

THE EMBLEM OF FREEDOM RECOGNIZED

The West Coast Lumbermen's Association offers new masts for rebuilding "Old Ironsides," the historic battleship Constitution that some would see go to the junkman.

The West Coast Lumbermen make a prosaic business of selling lumber for houses, barns, fences, pigpens, every commercial use to which lumber can be put.

A MOSLEM LEAGUE

There is talk now of a "Moslem League of Nations" uniting the 220,000,000 Mohammedans of the world.

An Islamic Congress is to meet at Cairo in May to elect a new Caliph of the Mohammedan faith.

"The consequences of this plan would be incalculable," says a British observer.

Moslem scares are periodical and eternal, and it is seldom that anything comes of them.

It would be "some job", assuredly, to unite the 220,000,000 Moslems of the world for joint action.

If the fiery sheiks of the desert, however, can drum up some sort of Moslem League of Nations, it might really be a good thing in some way.

THE COST OF RULERS

It is reported that the German people are finding presidents far less expensive than Kaisers.

Lately this difference in upkeep of government heads has been called to general attention by the former emperor's demands for a "settlement."

It is a wholesome sort of reminder. Right now it may help to discourage any schemers who have been hoping to get one or another Hohenzollern back on a German throne.

The Last Gentle Hint

STEWART'S WASHINGTON LETTER

BY CHARLES P. STEWART NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON — "Free speech is safe; it pays," H. L. Mencken told me, in a talk I had with him, at his home in Baltimore.

Indications are that he's going to have a chance to test this theory thoroughly. He's won the first round of his "Hatrack" fight; there may prove to be a good many more to come.

Mencken, personally, is just like his magazine. He's a nice chap to meet, he's extremely interesting and he's hospitable and polite, but his conversation is one uninterupted, roasting of the entire universe — not a single good thing in it, according to H. L.

If he ever does say a good word for anything, it invariably is preliminary to some qualification which makes it the reverse.

In this interview he gave to me this country, he observed, is the most wonderful place on earth for making plenty of money easily.

STANFIELD — SLACKER AND WAR PROFITEER

Before the senatorial campaign can proceed in an orderly and moderate manner it seems necessary to do a little straight talking.

In an open letter, signed by one of our local muckrakers, whether really written by him or not, appears this statement:

"Senator Stanfield could have served his country during the war, but preferred not to do so. Instead of military service he chose a career of war time money making.

hally the only buyer in the market. Uncle Sam needed wool for the manufacture of blankets and uniforms.

"They (the service men) owe him nothing. On the contrary, they owe their country a debt and abiding obligation to support patriotic men for public office."

This is a direct charge against Senator Stanfield—first, of being a slacker; second, of being a war time profiteer; third, of lacking in patriotism and love of country—three damnable, bare-faced falsehoods.

Senator Stanfield's war time record will not be attacked by any but the ignorant or the venomous. His father died when Robert was a mere boy. He took charge of the family affairs and in time built up a great farming and livestock business.

great armies. This Government did not want the prodigies of essential war requirements to enter the army and practically all who grew were refused admission.

Mr. Stanfield was a war time profiteer. He was a young lawyer in a small town, practicing nothing more profitable than briefs and complaints. To enter the army was an opportunity and a privilege which any one possessing an adventurous spirit and a patriotic impulse would naturally embrace.

Now, a real honest-to-goodness war profiteer came through this war period with his loot salted down. Robert Stanfield, in common with other farmers and stock raisers, came out of the mess busted—flat broke.

I am going to submit to you a reasonable proposition: if Senator Stanfield was a slacker and a profiteer, I was one, and if I was one there were thousands in Southern Oregon.

Calvin Coolidge, Robert Stanfield, Geo. Roberts, Bill Coleman, B. E. Harder, Jesse Wolf, Bill Grieve, Kenneth Beebe, Glen O. Taylor, A. B. Quanningham, Hamilton Patton, Fort Hubbard, Guy W. Conner, Seth S. Bullis, F. C. Reimer, B. J. Palmer, H. W. Conger, Carl Fichtner, Bert M. Sullivan, W. F. Isaacs, Volney Dixon, M. E. Root, W. M. VanScyoc, E. M. White, Frank Bellinger, John Billings, Ben Moller, A. Panwell, James Dally, John Miller, George L. Howard, Henry D. Reed, J. O. Isaacson, Dr. L. A. Salade, M. B. Chase, W. J. Hartzell, R. G. Coleman, George Alford, A. H. Miller, A. F. Noth, Fred L. Colvig, C. M. Thomas, Robert W. Stearns, F. G. Carlow, Olen Arnsperger, Wm. A. Aiken, D. R. Wood, Sid Brown, H. J. Berrian, H. K. Hanna, E. H. Lampert, E. E. Gore, C. W. McDonald, B. W. Paul, B. J. Woodford, H. F. Platt, J. W. Wakefield, Ralph G. Bardwell, F. M. Kershaw, C. M. Kidd, Bert Thierolf, Mike Hanley, Justin Judy, John Tomlin, Martin Bowers, Vern Marshall, Vernon Vawter, W. H. Gore, George Porter, C. Lemmon, C. E. Gates, Geo. W. Neilson, John Perl, W. E. Brayton, George Trechler, Pat Dally, C. I. Hutchinson, A. J. Hanby, Harry Walther, Fred W. Weeks, W. H. Bailey, W. F. Biddle, C. W. Conkita, Dr. G. A. Gitzer, Donald S. Clark, W. R. Lamb, J. B. Coleman, Victor Bursell, Sam Sandry, Ira Love, Jap Pendleton, F. S. Dillard, E. T. Newby, Carl Gesgow, W. T. Watt, Scott V. Davis, H. D. Powell, J. L. Demmer, F. G. Thayer, W. W. Howard, J. W. Smyle, W. J. Warner, F. J. Newman, Ed Brown, A. L. Hill, Tom Fuson, A. R. Hedges, Earl C. Gaddis, Tip Davis, C. A. Meeker, O. O. Alenderfer, T. W. Miles, J. B. Andrews, George Hilton Jr., O. C. Boggs, W. H. Crandall, Eddie Carlton, Harry Tomlinson, Fred Homes, John Orth, Chris. Gottlieb, Bob Boyl, Chase Gardner, Bill Roberts, H. H. Williams, Chas. Talent, W. H. Stratton, Charile Brown, Chanler Egan, Oris Crawford, Bill Bates, Chas. Battenfield, A. B. Rosenbaum, J. R. MacCracken, Gordon Stout, Glen Abbott, Chas. Slack, A. C. Joy, Dr. R. W. Sleeter, Geo. L. Barker, Royal Brown, Fletcher Fish, Paul McKee, D. H. Jackson, Bob Hammond, Earl B. Day, R. E. Robinson, E. B. Dimeck, I. T. Gallier.

The time has come when we slackers and profiteers must stand together. The nominating primaries are held on May 21st. Vote for Comrade Stanfield.

BERT ANDERSON. Pd. Adv. 124-14

Prehistoric Skull Weighs 700 Pounds

LINCOLN, Neb., April 19—A prehistoric skull, almost solid, discovered in Wyoming and as yet unclassified, has been placed in the University of Nebraska museum here.

REPORT OF CONDITION OF THE STATE BANK OF ASHLAND AT ASHLAND IN THE STATE OF OREGON AT CLOSE OF BUSINESS APRIL 12, 1926.

Table with RESOURCES: Loans and discounts, Cash on hand in vault and due from banks, U. S. government securities, Other bonds, warrants and securities, Banking house, furniture and fixtures, Cash on hand in vault and due from banks, Individual deposits, Cashier's checks, Demand deposits, Time certificates, Savings deposits.

Table with LIABILITIES: Capital stock paid in, Surplus fund, Undivided profits, Loss current expenses, Demand deposits, Individual deposits, Cashier's checks, Demand deposits, Time certificates, Savings deposits.

STATE OF OREGON, County of Jackson ss. I, G. G. Eubanks, cashier of the above named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

G. G. EUBANKS, Cashier

My commission expires January 1, 1928.

W. J. MOORE, J. H. FULLER, Directors

Advertisement for THE CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER COMPANY. Features text: 'Civilization In some countries, wives pull plows. Then, between-times, they do the housework. Even now, in the year 1926. In other parts of the world, electricity does the housewife's work of sweeping, washing, ironing. An electric wire fetches the fuel for cooking and heating. Electricity lights the lamps. The extent to which we use electricity is a fairly accurate measure of our civilization. It takes some degree of civilized culture to appreciate that we should employ our time better than in merely doing heavy chores. And it takes highly civilized ingenuity and management to make and deliver electricity so cheaply that it will run a sewing machine for less than half a cent an hour. Electricity is the cheapest service you can buy.' Includes logo for THE CALIFORNIA OREGON POWER COMPANY and list of offices: Medford, Oregon; Roseburg, Oregon; Grants Pass, Oregon; Klamath Falls, Oregon; Yreka, California; Daguerre, California.

OUT OUR WAY By Williams

J.R. WILLIAMS © 1926 BY NEA SERVICE, INC.