MERCHANTS WARNED OF MEDFORD FORGER

Name of W. E. Gore Signed to Spurious Checks, Say Police

Some busy forger around Medford is forging the name of W. E. Gore, to spurious checks on the First National Bank of Medford and has succeeded in getting some of them cashed, according to word received this morning by Chief of Police McNabb. The forger is said to have the checks made out to "Elmer Holt," which is believed to be a fictitious name. Ashland merchants are warned by the police to be on the lookout for any such checks and to notify the police department if anybody makes an attempt to cash them here.
