CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE TO HOLD BIG REVIVAL MEETING

The young people's society of the Church of the Nazarene is putting on a revival campaign beginning April 25th at the local church. Though new, the plan is said to be taking well with the young people hence they expect a big crowd for the opening meeting.

The plan of the meetings will be of more than usual interest, featuring music, experience talks and platform meetings by the young people. The church trio will act in the capacity of evangelists, working with the young people to make each evening service attractive. They have worked up an orchestra of several pieces and a woman's quartet that will add much to the music.

MEDFORD WILL OBSERVE BETTER HOMES PROGRAM

All is in readiness for the Better Homes in America Week, which will be observed in Medford, April 26 to May 1, with receptions to visitors to the demonstration house at 30 North Peach street, from three to five and seven to nine o'clock daily, and with a series of lectures given afternoons and evenings at the Methodist Episcopal church, by experts in all lines of home furnishings and home making.

Aside from the novelty of viewing a home completely furnished and equipped with the best the local firms have to offer at the lowest possible expenditure, there will be much to profit by in the way of example, for all furnishings and their prices will be listed, to assist in budget compilings or for the purchase of individual pieces.

Previous publicity has acquainted news readers with the purposes and methods of the Better Homes movement, although more than appears on the surface is the idealistic aim, set forth in the following words of President Coolidge: "The American home is the foundation of our national and individual well being. Its steady improvement is, at the same time, a test of our civilization and of our ideals. The Better Homes in America movement provides a channel through which men and women in each community can encourage the building, ornamenting and owning of private homes by the people at large. We need attractive, worthy, permanent homes that lighten the burden of housekeeping. We need homes in which home life can reach its finest levels, and in which can be reared happy children and upright citizens. I commend participation in Better Homes demonstrations and in the other work of the movement to the American people."

While communities surrounding Medford will have special days for visiting the demonstration house, any and all interested persons are welcome during any reception hour. There is no cost for either viewing the home or for the lectures, the financing having been handled through Medford business firms, who are also loaning the necessary furnishings and equipment.

Remember, a cordial welcome awaits you, and that the untiring efforts of all concerned with the campaign, have been only for the purpose of educating, by these well planned measures, the means wherewith a finer type of home and family life can be secured.
