Chapter Meets—
 The Beta Chapter of the Delphian Society met Tuesday afternoon at the Civic Club. This was an especially interesting meeting and dealt with the early culture of the ancient Greeks.
 Mrs. V. V. Mills, the Chapter Supervisor, opened the meeting with a few brief remarks with regard to the influence the teachings of the ancient philosophers have upon the present, followed by the topics of the afternoon.
 The first of these was The Mission of Socrates, by Mrs. Maxey. Mrs. Briscoe reviewed the life of Plato; Mrs. Dewa, Aristotle and his influence on later thought; Mrs. Elwood Hedburg, Greek Vase-Painting; Mrs. Yeo, Six Famous Greek Sculptors; Mrs. Haines, Six Famous Greek Statues and Mrs. Rose, The Greek Genus and its meaning to us.
 The second half of the program was presided over by Mrs. Dean, president of the Delphian Society.
 Mrs. Perosal, Parliamentary Training Leader, gave a few moments to parliamentary training with reference to nominations, followed by Mrs. W. D. Miller with Cultural Current Events and Mrs. John Enders Political Current Events.
 This splendid program was concluded with a book review of Theodore Dreiser's "An American Tragedy," which was vividly portrayed by Mrs. Randall Woods.
 Out of town guests were Miss Helen Rand and Mrs. R. E. Cordell of Oakland, California.

Music Study Club Meets—
 The Ashland Music Study Club met in regular session at the studio of Carl Loveland on Monday evening, April the twenty-sixth.
 After roll call, to which a number responded with items of musical interest, the regular business meeting was held.
 This included the appointing of a committee to plan the program of study for next year.
 The subject of Choral and Choral Music was discussed and the club found Chapter VIII of H. E. Krehbiel's "How to Listen to Music" of great interest and educational value.
 The fact that singing societies were organized in this country in the New England states earlier than in Germany is deserving of notice, for until recently musical historians have given Germany the credit for the earliest organizations to promote amateur choral culture.
 At the close of the program a is made from Ashland's famous pure mountain water, flavored with the best syrups obtainable. It's a Quality Drink.

Spanish Roses
 These deep red roses are lovely arranged against the cream satin and delicate lace background of a "Spanish" dress.
 The remainder of the evening was spent in the good visit of friends, but underneath it all was the sadness that which comes with the parting of friends.
 Mr. and Mrs. Oldfield have labored and wrought in Ashland for many years and are leaving for a new field of endeavor. With them will go the best wishes and friendship of a host of friends in church and community who regret their going and wish them happiness in the new home.
Special Meeting of Auxiliary—
 A special meeting of the American Legion was held Tuesday evening at which the business and social meeting was combined.
 There were at least forty present, all enthusiastic and interested in the business that brought them together—plans for the "Thank You for a Buggy Ride" dance, which will be held tonight at Jackson Hot Springs.
 Members are confident of the venture being a success for the response from every one has been fine. The fact that it is a benefit dance and the object the Portland Hospital for which it is given, appeals to every one interested in the Portland hospital needs for veterans' there. A part will be used for the new piano recently secured by the Auxiliary for its club room.
 A feature of the dance will be the parade which will call attention to the dance given in the evening at Jackson Hot Springs.
 The difficulty in finding sufficient old vehicles has been an object lesson in the passing of other than motor machines.
 Mrs. John Enders presided at the business session. During the evening refreshments of coffee and homemade cakes were served.

Covered Dish Luncheon—
 On Tuesday, May 4, the members of the Civic Club will have a covered dish luncheon at the Civic Club house, preceding the meeting of the afternoon. Plans for this will be announced in Monday's issue.
 At the luncheon it is hoped that every member will be present to enjoy the social hour and the meeting later.
Supper Thursday—
 A covered dish supper is scheduled for Thursday evening (tonight) at which members, husbands and a friend may be invited to attend.
 After the supper hour, tables are supplied so that all who wish may spend the evening at cards or in whatsoever way that most appeals.
High School Camp Fire Group Meets—
 On Tuesday evening the High School Camp Fire Girls met for a short business session after school.
 The election of a secretary-treasurer was the principal thing to be brought up at this time. Miss Letha Miles was selected to fill the office named.
 Another topic for consideration was the making of the seed bands.
 There will be another business meeting this week.

two-part arrangement of "He Shall Feed His Flock Like a Shepherd," from Handel's oratorio, "The Messiah," was sung by Mrs. Fuller, Mrs. Shepherd, Mrs. Beebe, Miss Wallace and Mrs. White with Mrs. Alkins at the piano.
 The closing meeting for the year occurs in May, at which the election of officers is held.

Bobby Berg Has Birthday Party—
 Little Bobby Berg celebrated his ninth birthday Saturday afternoon from 2:00 to 5:00 p. m. The earlier hours were spent in games, which all enjoyed immensely.

The closing feature was the lovely birthday luncheon, at which the central figure was the pink birthday cake, with the appropriate number of candles.
 Of course all enjoyed making the wishes when the candles were blown out.
 Seven little friends helped Bobby celebrate and each brought pretty gifts in honor of the occasion.

Ladies' Art Club Meets—
 The Ladies' Art Club met at the home of Mrs. J. Edward Thornton on Almond street Monday evening of this week.
 There was not as many present as usual, owing to conflicting engagements for a number of the members.
 The evening was spent in a social way; cards and fancy work as the guests decided.
 Delicious refreshments were served in closing, by the hostesses Mrs. Thornton and Mrs. S. B. McNair, assisted by Mrs. Cliff Jenkins.

Auxiliary to Trinity Guild Party—
 Auxiliary to Trinity Guild had a very successful card party, Wednesday night last, at the Parish House.
 There were seventeen tables at cards, fifteen of bridge and two of five hundred.
 Prizes were given in both five hundred and at bridge; Mr. E. M. Borg received the first prize in five hundred, and Mrs. Blumenauer first for the ladies. Mr. B. Burnett secured the men's consolation and Mrs. E. M. Borg the ladies' consolation prize.

Mr. E. V. Carter held first honors at bridge as did Mrs. Emma Oeder. Mr. W. T. Moore won the consolation prize in bridge for the men and Mrs. Tony Franco for the ladies.
 The committee in charge served delicious salad and cakes and coffee during the evening.
 This evening at cards was so enjoyable that it is expected that others will be given.

W. C. T. U. Meets—
 On Tuesday of this week the W. C. T. U. of Ashland observed its 42nd birthday. Interesting articles were read, one of them by Mrs. Stella Leavett, had to do with the coming primary.
 Mrs. Ann H. Russell was present, and as one of the pioneers in the society, she told of the earlier efforts in law enforcement. Mrs. Sylvester Paterson also spoke of its early history. Both talks were given the same attention.
 Reports were read at the business meeting and plans were made to have a food sale Saturday of this week.

Part of the proceeds of the sale will be spent for the Children's Farm Home. Members are to bear in mind the date of the sale and bring their contributions down in the morning.

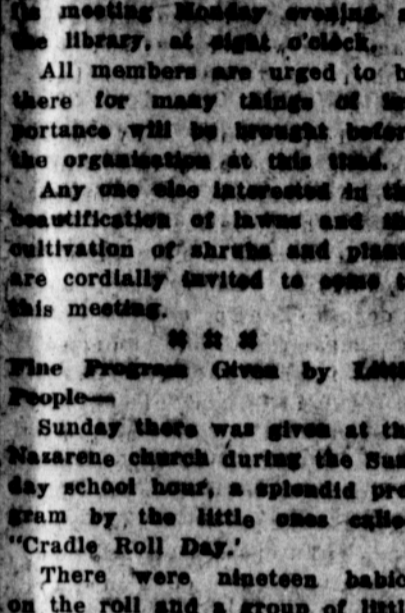

Surveys Planned For the Rev. and Mrs. Oldfield—
 On Wednesday evening the Congregational Parsonage, beautiful in its wealth of spring blossoms, was filled with friends, old and young, who had gathered in a farewell reception for the Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Oldfield.
 The Ladies Aid of the church had planned the pleasant affair, but the program was given by the Juniors, of which Mrs. Oldfield was the efficient and well-loved superintendent.
 Recitations and recitations made up the interesting program at the close of which the children greeted about Mrs. Oldfield and presented her with a gift expressive of their appreciation of her work with them.

These deep red roses are lovely arranged against the cream satin and delicate lace background of a "Spanish" dress.

Huge Flowers

A tendency toward huge flowers worn at the side over the hip has been noticed this season at Paris openings. This one is of rose silk edged with gold.

Floral Display

Everyone is interested in the "Floral Display" which is to be held Thursday, May 6, at the Lithia Springs Hotel, from 2:00 to 9:00 p. m.
 The committee in charge of the exhibit is composed of Mrs. Leona Jacobs, Mrs. G. M. Yeo, Mrs. M. F. Tilden, Mrs. A. H. Pracht, Miss Elizabeth Palmer, Mrs. Dan Kay, and Mrs. Frank Jordan.
 These ladies will attend to the placement of the flowers and are asking that every one who has spring blossoms that are suitable to exhibit bring them to the hotel in time to arrange to the best possible advantage. No doubt the same arrangement obtains that did last fall, that each exhibitor bring his flowers in his own receptacle.
 For those that cannot get their flowers to the hotel, the ladies will be anxious that if the owner will notify some member of the committee, that the flowers will be taken to the hotel.

 It is hoped that, as was expected, that every one having flowers will be willing to exhibit them, thus helping "over the top" the "Spring Floral Display."
