Annual Trapshoot

Statewide interest is being taken in the first annual trapshoot of southern Oregon to be held May 16 and 17, according to present indications. Several shooters from Portland have already made their reservations at local hotels in addition to a number who have announced their intention of participating. Approximately 80 contestants are expected to take part—Medford Mail Tribune.

LOCAL BRAKEMAN IS SERIOUSLY INJURED

George Stevens Has Foot Badly Crushed; Taken To San Francisco

George Stevens, a brakeman employed by the Southern Pacific, had a foot badly crushed while with his train at Edgewood last night, and was hurried to the Southern Pacific hospital at San Francisco. Mrs. Stevens left here late last night and joined her husband at Dunsmuir in order to accompany him south. According to reports of the accident, the foot was badly crushed and amputation may be necessary.

ALLEGED ACCESSORY THIEF IS CAPTURED

Dunsmuir Man Jailed; Reported Cache of Loot Located in Ashland

A large quantity of auto accessories and plumbing supplies, believed to have been stolen, were located in a private garage in this city, and Gorge King, former Dunsmuir resident, was arrested in Medford yesterday as a suspect while Jackson and Klamath county authorities are checking up on his alleged operations. According to word from Klamath Falls, a quantity of auto accessories were stolen in that city and it is believed King may have been connected with them. According to the police he has been in trouble around Dunsmuir during recent months. He was apprehended in Medford while attempting to dispose of property alleged to have been stolen.

Ashland Hi Loses To Medford Team

Ashland high school was defeated, 5 to 1, in the closing baseball game of the year with Medford high school at Medford yesterday afternoon. The local boys fell into an unexpected batting slump and were unable to start their heavy hitting against the Medford moundsmen. School officials, however, were much pleased with the showing of the team considering the fact that all but two of the boys had never before played high school baseball.

Washington Will Stage Convention

SEATTLE, Wash., May 8.—(UP)—The republican state central committee voted today to hold a state convention this year. Longview was chosen as the meeting place and the date was fixed at June 17. Governor Hartley sent word that he is not opposed to the plan.
