OHI MY BACK!

It isn't right to suffer day in and day out with dull, aching backache. Or a heavy, dragging weight on your back. Or a sharp, stabbing pain in your back. Or a numb, tingling feeling in your legs. Or a feeling of weakness and exhaustion. You will suffer these tormenting aches and pains as long as your weakened kidneys are neglected. You may have headaches, too, spells of dizziness and urinary disorders. Then use Doan's Pills - a stimulant specific to the kidneys. Experiences of Ashland people prove the merit of Doan's. Mrs. Jennie Hammond, 649 E. Main St., Ashland says: "I had such severe backaches it was hard for me to keep going. It was hardly ever free from dizziness and headaches and my kidneys acted irregularly. Doan's Pills helped me more than any other remedy I ever tried and it was not long before I was free from the backaches and other signs of kidney complaint."

MEN NOW EAT LESS SAYS VETERAN WAITER

YOUNGSTOWN, O., May 15. - (UP) - Those halycon days when business men sat down at a restaurant table, and slowly and peacefully consumed big, hearty meals, are now things of the past, and together with pretzels and free lunches, have been thrown into the limbo of retrospection. This is an "eat-on-the-run" generation, according to Tom Robinson, 67, who has completed more than 40 years service as a waiter.

"Today," Tom recites ruefully, "they rush in breathlessly, give their orders and rush out, after devouring a few graham crackers and a glass of milk. "Why, a man who ordered such a meager dish would have been looked upon as queer in the old days."

WAR PICTURES WILL REVIVE OLD TIMES

Y-cow, Gang! Member, the creepy feeling that ran up and down your spine when you were standing knee-deep in slush, in those old front line trenches between 4 and 5 a. m., waiting for the word? When one minute you were hot, and the next minute freezing, you went through your pockets to find a crummy piece of hardtack to chew, to keep your teeth from chattering; then your thoughts wandered back to those birds, behind the lines snoozing away and dreaming of home? Then your thoughts pictures the home folks, and you wondered whether you would ever see them again - Well, anyway we're here to fight, and you swore inwardly to yourself that you would "get" a dozen before they drowned you. Member wondering what time it was? And those minutes seem like hours, and hours, and how you were waiting to go "over"; then at last the whisper came along, and Zowey!

You remember when it was all over, you wondered how in the world you ever lived through it all, and carefully felt yourself over to make sure you were not wounded!

You bet you remember it all, and how when you came home, everyone invited you to pink tea parties, and wanted you to tell them how come! And you could not begin to tell the story.

Well, fellows, the American Legion is bringing "On Flanders Field" the official government picture to the Vining theatre this Thursday and Friday, especially so that you can recall those old days, and bring your mother, brother, sister, sweetheart, father, or wife, and show them just what you wanted to tell them - but couldn't. Every Nation that saw real service in Europe is shown in actual action.

Patterns of Progress

An American home - its bathtub, breakfast foods, furnace - set down in the heart of Europe would be unmistakably an American home. An American man - the cut of his coat, the tie of his tie, the comb of his hair - walking the streets of Europe is in all his obvious tastes an American.

Advertisements stamp American homes and owners of homes with a kind of national pattern. They create desire for the same kind of things; make particular people know and want the most advanced of things, houses - what to put in homes. People - how to dress, nourish, entertain the people. Offices - how to equip and operate offices. They set America right about radios and falcons - tell businessmen, housewives, government officials how to brush their teeth!

We cut the pattern of our personal lives and surroundings from advertisements. We keep modern only with their intimate help. We go forward with them, as we would stand still without them. We form our tastes and discriminate values by using their truths. Advertisements offer us patterns of progress that mean quick steps to the fore.

Keep pace with progress by reading the advertisements every day
