Civic Club Meets—

An official board meeting opened the last regular session of the Civic Improvement Club. It was held at 1:15 p. m. Tuesday, and affairs of the club were carefully considered.

At 2:30 p. m. the regular program began. After the patriotic opening, the reports of secretary, standing committees and treasurer were given. Interesting letters from Mrs. Meikel and others were read to an interested audience.

The full reports received their meed of praise and a vote of thanks was given the treasurer, Mrs. Wilshire for her faithful services.

Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, the out-going president, took this time to express to her committees and the membership her appreciation of their help throughout the year and she thanked them very earnestly for the cooperation so efficiently given in the club program of activities for the year.

She then turned the program over to the chairman of the music committee who presented several performers in a delightful musical program that was all too short for the attentive listeners. Schubert's "Serenade" and "Killarney" were given by Miss Rose Atkins, with sympathetic interpretation and much feeling. Her instrument was the cello with Mrs. H. S. Atkins at the piano. A piano solo by Everett McGee, an arrangement of favorite selections from "Il Trovatore," was the second number; to insistent applause Mr. McGee repeated a pleasing theme from the arrangement played.

Mrs. H. S. Atkins and Mrs. Alice Willits were heard in duet, in two selections from Moszkowski's suite "In Foreign Parts," the first, "Italy" with its characteristic movement and tempo. The second was "Russia," both of which were enthusiastically applauded.

At the close of the pleasing program all voiced appreciative thanks. At a table, a harmony in pink and white, with its great bowl of fragrant LaFrance roses, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Mary Wilshire poured.

The hostesses were Mrs. L. A. Roberts, Mrs. Mary Wilshire and Mrs. Martin. There were several visitors present to enjoy with the members the interesting program and social hour.

The report of the nominating committee will be given at a later date, for it has not been completed.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Putney Entertain—

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Putney entertained at a picnic supper Thursday evening. Because of the rain it became an indoor picnic.

The feast was honoring little Jack's first birthday and the celebration was a very happy one.

After the delightful supper, a radio concert, with the happy visit of good friends made the evening pass quickly.

Those who enjoyed the pleasant hours were Mr. and Mrs. Forest Michelson, Mr. and Mrs. Wick Fox, and daughter, Jean, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Isaacs, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Elhart and son, Billy; Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Weren and the host and hostess and little son.

P. N. G. Club—

Mrs. Wm. Myer was hostess Friday afternoon at the meeting of the Past Noble Grand's Club with the majority of the club present to enjoy the social hour together.

Fancy work employed busy fingers, while the pleasant visit of fellow club members made time pass quickly, until at the close of the afternoon the hostess, Mrs. Myer, assisted by Miss Mollie Songer, who poured, served ambrosia and delicate cakes.

At the business session, among other things, the announcement was made that the next meeting would be the second Friday in June.

A happy feature of the afternoon was the presence of Mrs. Story, who has just returned from many months visit in Wisconsin and Idaho and will be the next hostess. She will be assisted by Mrs. Gilbert.

Sewing Class—

Miss Ada Brewster, County Home Demonstration Agent has been having a three days' dress-making class, with perhaps a dozen ladies taking advantage of Miss Brewster's presence to secure help on many a puzzling problem.

The class, which was held at the Parish house, closed today. All who attended felt that they were well paid for the time taken in going and feel appreciative for Miss Brewster's help.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McNair Entertain—

Honoring Mrs. Mary Ueber, of Oakland, California, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Waldo Gill, Mr. and Mrs. McNair were host and hostess at a delightful dinner Saturday evening last.

Covers were laid for nine for this pleasant function: Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Harnere, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Gill, Nancy on and Lawrence Gill, Mrs. Mary Nger, with the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McNair.

Surprise Shower For Miss Jarmon—

Miss Beryl Jarmon, a June bride-elect was happily surprised by a number of her friends Monday evening at the Practice House.

A dinner guest at the home of Mrs. C. E. Pell, Miss Jarmon was away when the friends assembled. Coming home early in the evening she found the rooms filled with a merry company.

A three-act comedy put on during the evening afforded much amusement and gave scope for the histrionic ability of the cast which not only presented the play, but some one of its numbers prepared the lines. Improvisation, too, was utilized to a considerable extent—affording opportunity for clever play.

With the dramatic ending of the third act, the lovely gifts which had been brought were prepared to Miss Jarmon. Earlier in the evening games were played, all of which were entertaining and surely kept everybody alert.

Dainty refreshments were served at a late hour, and reluctant good nights were spoken. With them, all sorts of good wishes came to the complimented guest whose marriage has been announced for the coming month.

The guest list included: The Mesdames G. A. Briscoe, H. H. Elhart, I. Bateman, Lizzie Merritt, B. Forsythe, Guy Good, and the Misses Ila Myers, Ethel Reid, Mell Carter, Edna Goheen, Nora Ward, Florence Hurd, Allison Shepherd, Mildred Crain, Eva Poley, Beat. Grace Hawkward, Irene Berg, Nollmier, Calmenson, Helen Holman, Juanita, Carr, Casad, Edna, Kennedy, Gerlie Haan, and Alice Robertson.

D. A. R. Meeting—

Mrs. Harriet Fielding is hostess at Friday's meeting of Mount Ashland Chapter D. A. R. Mrs. Gardner is social chairman and Miss Blanche Hicks assists.

The place of meeting is the Greer home, which is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Backus, who kindly offer their home for the coming gathering.

All members are urged to be present Friday.

Mrs. Monroe Entertains—

Mrs. J. H. Monroe was hostess Tuesday at a most delightful afternoon, with a number of her friends invited to enjoy the happy visit and luncheon which was served during the afternoon.

Wild and cultivated flowers vie in beauty and decorative effect in the rooms and the out of doors at this lovely suburban home was a bower of loveliness which all enjoyed so much.

Spanish broom and variegated myrtle were used at the beautifully appointed table where guests were seated for the delicious two course luncheon.

Those enjoying Mrs. Monroe's hospitality were Mrs. W. D. Gill and her mother, Mrs. Nehrer of Oakland, California, who is visiting her at present; Mrs. Spaulding, Mrs. W. L. Maxey, Mrs. B. B. Balis, Mrs. W. L. Huxley, Mrs. S. A. Peters, Mrs. Blair, and Mrs. Otto Winter.

American Legion Auxiliary—

Friday, May 14, American Legion Auxiliary entertained the Civic Club House with a Box Supper. Dancing and playing cards during the evening helped to make the affair a success.

American Legion Auxiliary Meeting—

The American Legion Auxiliary met at their club rooms Monday evening. Much business was transacted and plans for Poppy Days, Thursday, May 20, Friday, May 21, and Saturday, May 22, were decided and will sell Poppies on the street on these days. The losing side during the membership drive will entertain the winners at the next meeting.

Monday, May 24, the W. R. C.

will have its social in the park, from 2:00 until 5:00 p. m. Mrs. Jennings and Mrs. Koch are the hostesses. They will have a number to assist.

It is hoped that the membership will keep the date free that there may be a goodly number present to enjoy the afternoon together.

Out-Door Dinner—

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Forsythe entertained the high school teachers and a few other guests at a daintily planned dinner which had for its artistic setting the big-outdoors.

Small tables were set on the lawn under the beautiful trees. Dinner was served cafeteria fashion, from the porch and the guests enjoyed the repast, with its heaping bowls of strawberries as the delicious finish, still more because of the lovely setting.

The guest list included, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Briscoe, Mr. Allison, Mr. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Howell, the Misses Casad, Beryl Jarmon, Ethel Tomplin, Juanita Carr, Grace Hawkward, Schmidt, Beat, Allison Shepherd, Eva Poley, Mildred Crain, Nollmier, Calmenson, Irene Berg, Gervie Van Dyke.

Wedding—

Saturday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Billings, Miss Hilda L. Hanson and Harvey F. Morgan were united in marriage, the Rev. H. F. Pemberton officiating clergymen. The impressive ring ceremony was used.

The bride was very sweet and dainty in a becoming gown, the work of her own skilled fingers.

"Miss Hanson has lived at the Billings home for the past seven years, ending with her graduation from Ashland High School in 1925. She made a good record as a fine student and for the past eight months has taught successfully the school at Forest (Upper Rogue River) and has been engaged to teach there again next year.

Mr. Morgan is a native of Jackson county, and has lived on the Upper Rogue for a number of years. He has proved himself to be an honest and industrious farmer of whom all his neighbors speak very highly.

For the event, the rooms had been made lovely with roses. Hearty congratulations and good wishes were offered bride and bridegroom after the ceremony from the group of friends assembled.

Delightful refreshments were served and at the close of the pleasant evening the company dispersed, the happy couple leaving for the Mr. Morgan's homestead on

The Upper Rogue

Among those present were: the father of the bride, H. F. Hanson of Clatsop, her sister, Mrs. Mabel Werts and two daughters of Clatsop; Mrs. N. H. Lewis, Medford; the Rev. and Mrs. H. F. Pemberton, Mrs. E. B. Smith, Mr. Will Willis, the "father of Perseus" and his wife, who have made a pleasant home for Mrs. Morgan during the school year; Mrs. Alice Willis of Ashland, Mr. Frick of Medford and the members of the Billings clan.

The marriage comes as quite a surprise to Mrs. Morgan's many friends in Ashland, but each and all unite in wishing for both a long, happy and useful life's journey.

Guild Meets—

Miss Blanche Hicks was hostess at Tuesday evening's meeting of Westminster Guild.

The devotionals were led by Mrs. Fred Hitchcock. The chapter studied dealt with the Slave as he enters the U. S. Miss Hays gave the review very interestingly.

As the theme developed, the difficulties which are faced; the living conditions; help needed; help given; the church affiliations and interest in, or loss of interest; and cause; migrant labor—all were subdivisions of a vital story, well told.

During the social hour, Miss Hicks served punch and home cookies.

For the "Quarterly" meeting, when mite bags are brought in, there will be a picnic in the park, June first. Details will be announced later.

A pretty gift for Mrs. Mergler, a valued member and one who will be missed greatly, was presented her as a slight indication of the love which all feel for her.

Reception for Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Churchill—

Beautiful in its floral decorations of roses and sweetpeas, the Parish house was the scene of a brilliant reception Saturday honoring President and Mrs. J. A. Churchill, who have but recently come to Ashland to make their home.

An informal musical program of delightful numbers was presented, which gave great pleasure to the guests. Those appearing in order were Mrs. Roy Bobb, Mrs. Edward Medford; Mr. Earl P. Hays, each singing twice; Miss Marguerite Hammond accompanied all those who sang, at the piano.

Mrs. H. E. Sanford and Mrs. Norman Malforn served. They were assisted by a number of young girls.

One hundred and fifty were present to greet the complimented guests and enjoy the repeated hours with them.

Those in the receiving line were: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Churchill, the Rev. and Mrs. P. K. Hammond, Mrs. G. H. Hedberg, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hedberg, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bariges, Mrs. Norman Malforn, Mrs. H. E. Sanford, Mrs. Harris Fielding.

Piano Recital—

The pupils of Miss Berna Haight will appear in public recital at her home at 525 E. Main street, Saturday, May 23, 8:00 o'clock p. m.

The program presented will offer the following numbers. In opening, "Flowers of Spring," Le Farge, Françoise Spindler, 2, "Sweet Violet," Smallwood James Baughman, J. Voice, A. "Sweet Spring Time," Churchill Grindell, B. "The Fountain," Jessie Gagnor, James Baughman and Howard Mayberry, Eleanor Coombe at Piano.
