son Chapters was discussed informally. The report of committee on changes in the by-laws was read. It was unanimously decided to name its chair in the new auditorium at Washington, purchased by Mount Ashland Chapter at a cost of $150, for the organizing regent, Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, now State Regent. A message of sympathy was sent to Mrs. Mabel McCoy Stearns in the recent loss of her mother. After the report of the nominating committee had been read and accepted the Regent, Miss Blanche Hicks, introduced the newly elected Regent, Mrs. Harriet Fielding, who, in an address, strongly marked with the realization of her responsibility as chief officer of the Chapter, and of the individual responsibility of each member in making the coming year one of high achievement, told her vision of Ashland and the part the Chapter should play in the picture drawn.

An inspirational address by Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, with an account of the proceedings of the 35th Continental Congress held in Memorial Hall, Washington, was read by Mrs. G. MacCracken. In this, the statement was noted, that Oregon had gone over the top in her subscription to the fund for the new auditorium. In closing, Mrs. Fielding asked that every daughter do her patriotic duty and vote at the primary then being held.

A delightful social hour followed during which fruit, punch and lovely cakes were served by the hostesses. The officers named for 1926-1927 follow: Regent, Mrs. Harriet Chapin Fielding; First Vice-Regent, Mrs. Mable McCoy Stearns; Second Vice-Regent, Mrs. Jennie Johnson Gilbert; Secretary, Mrs. Vtda Henry Hanson; Treasurer, Mrs. Anna-Fox Carter; Registrar, Miss Carrie Mitchell; Historian, Mrs. Grace Owens-Andrews; Chaplain, Mrs. Elizabeth Van Sant; Musician, Miss Imogene Wallace.

May Whelpley, and all persons interested in the estate, appear before this Court on Monday, the 21st day of June, 1926, at the hour of 10:00 o'clock, A. M., then and there to show cause, if any, why a license should not be granted for the sale of such real estate. It is further ordered that service be made by the publication of this order for four successive weeks in the Ashland Tidings, a newspaper of general circulation, printed and published at Ashland, said County.

Dated this 17th day of May, 1926. W. J. HARTZELL, Judge. ATTEST: DELILIA STEVENS, County Clerk. 212-4-Mo.

Distinguished Visitors - The Women's Benefit Association of Ashland, has recently been honored by a visit from one of the national officers of the order, Supreme Medical Examiner, Dr. Ella J. Fielding, of Michigan, and State Commander Julia V. Ward, of Portland, Oregon. An officers' meeting was called on Monday night at the Lithia Hotel to confer with Dr. Fielding in relation to some new plans for increasing the membership of the order. Dr. Fielding then left on No. 15 to return to her work in Michigan, stopping in Oakland, California on her way. Wednesday, May 19, at the regular meeting of the W. B. A. State Commander Ward met with the ladies. Two candidates were initiated, and Mrs. Ward commended the work of the Review very highly. She then outlined the new plans and explained the methods to be used for getting new members, which were enthusiastically received by the membership. The W. B. A. is one of the foremost of our fraternal insurance orders and has an energetic membership which is anxious to see the Review grow. These visits from the national and state officers are a great incentive to work, and it is hoped that they occur often.

Joint Meeting Delphian Chapters - Delphian Chapters of Medford, Klamath Falls and Ashland met in joint session at the Civic Club house, Saturday, May 22, at 10:30 o'clock, with the auditorium comfortably filled with the membership to listen to the inspiring reports, and the thought-provoking address which occupied the time until the luncheon hour arrived. Mrs. Don Whitney presided with grace and dignity, introducing the different speakers. After cordially welcoming the visitors, Mrs. Whitney presented Mrs. Jonas Wold, Medford, and Mrs. Harrison of Klamath Falls, who responded, voicing in no uncertain phrase the advantages of Delphian work. Two solos, sung by Mrs. C. R. Lucas of Klamath Falls, with Mrs. Zumwalt at the piano, gave much pleasure. Mrs. R. B. Hammond, Supervisor, now spoke on what had been found particularly helpful for the work in the Medford Chapter. She discussed the groups speaking especially of leadership. Mrs. Zumwalt, of Klamath Falls, was the next speaker. She presented the work as applied to her particular Chapter. Each stressed the history hour. Mrs. Zumwalt mentioned an interesting fact that an evening class had been formed, which carried on the Delphian program, with a group which could not meet in the afternoon. Mrs. V. V. Mills, Supervisor of Ashland Chapter, discussed points not mentioned by the other speakers; the parliamentary work done in the groups the memorization with the added orsonal word; the criticism of words, and the card index system, furnishing the high lights of topics under discussion. These, and many other helpful plans were presented, before Mrs. J. H. Fuller, with Mrs. E. A. Woods at the piano, led the assembly in a group of Delphian songs, which were sung with a will.

Here the principal speaker of the forenoon session, Mrs. Goble, Pacific Coast Director, who "came to inspire" but received inspiration" presented the work for the coming year. Tribute was paid the units whose individual successes built up the success of the organization; to officers for their vision and plan. In discussing the future work of the society, "Modern Drama," which will have place was cleverly analyzed, under three groupings: psychological, religious and sex plays. The change in drama, as now presented, was wittily told. In the work in history, the middle ages will be considered during the coming year. What the work embraced was given so forcefully and interestingly that anticipation was a-tiptoe for the new program. Luncheon was now announced, and the Chapters adjourned to the Lithia Springs Hotel where an informal reception was held on the mezzanine floor with Mrs. Goble and Delphian officers in the receiving line. Covers were laid for perhaps one hundred and fifty guests at the pleasantly appointed tables, with decorations of beautifully aranged flowers in the pastel shades, the wild rice leading to delicate beauty to every table. Officers and complimented guests were grouped at the head of the table and place cards, attached to corners of seats were so arranged that the different Chapters were intermingled. During the luncheon, two musical numbers were given; the first, a group of old French songs, delightfully rendered, "Viens Aurore" and "Love Me or Not", sung by Mrs. J. C. Collins of Medford. She was accompanied by Miss Janice Butler. Mrs. E. A. Woods, with an interesting preface interpretative of Indian music and the story of Thurlow Lieurance's "Waters of Minnetanka," played the beautiful composition with sympathetic touch. The speaker, Prof. Stevenson Smith, of the University of Oregon, was introduced by Mrs. V. V. Mills, who presided during the luncheon hour. In an arresting fashion, Prof. Smith claimed the close attention of guests, carrying that interest through a discourse dealing with the relation of literature and social life. Speaking in generalities, at first, the speaker held his audience through social as well as the critical approach; the making of literature as shown in the literary colonies - the symposium; the French and English solons. Vivid word pictures of the great personalities in literature and of the scenes enacted brought the periods described very near. It was a rare treat for the student of literature. Two of the Delphian songs are given below:

TO DELPHIAN Here's to the chapter that we love, Here's to the help she'll give; Here's to her texts and outlines too Teaching us how to live, Here's to the self-improvement too. That comes with every plan. Here's to her members staunch and true, Here's to Delphian. HISTORY SONG We're a long, long way from Egypt and we're a long way from Rome, But Delphian study makes us feel in them we'd be at home; We're a long, long way from Athens, and we're a long way from Troy, Yet study of these ancient towns

MAKER OF KARNAK SURE DID KNOW HIS BUSINESS

"Why, This Medicine Has Made Me Feel 15 Years Younger," Declares Portland Cabinet Maker. "Believe me, the maker of Karnak sure knew his business, for this medicine has made me feel 15 years younger," declares John R. Stein, cabinet maker, of 383 E. 41st St., Portland Ore. "Before I got Karnak dieting of nothing else would help my four year of stomach trouble, although I paid out $1,000, I guess, and I finally just seemed to 'go all to pieces' and lost hope completely," continues Mr. Stein. "I had such terrible gas pains through my side and around my heart it felt like my heart was cramped in a vice. Why, it caused me such agony I'd just beat on my chest with my fist, and many nights I'd walk the floor in order to breathe. A little milk and bread was all I could eat, and there was a terrible burning in my stomach all the time. I had to give up the idea of steady work, and it looked like I was at my row's end. "I tell you, Karnak has simply made life worth living for me." Karnak is sold in Ashland by East Side Pharmacy and all leading druggists.

John R. Stein has brought me. I eat anything I want now, and don't have any bad after effects. All the bloating, pain, burning and shortness of breath are gone. My strength and energy have come back and I'm ready for regular work again. I tell you, Karnak has simply made life worth living for me." Karnak is sold in Ashland by East Side Pharmacy and all leading druggists.
