PAN AMERICAN RED CROSS CONFERENCE OPENS TODAY

WASHINGTON, May 24.—With delegates from every National Red Cross Society on the American continent present, the Second Pan-American Red Cross Conference opened here today.

CHAMBER LUNCHEON IS PEPPY AFFAIR

Old-Time Music and Short Talks Feature Weekly Chamber Luncheon

A peppy chamber of commerce forum was held today at the Lithia Springs hotel, with Fred Holmes, of Bellview, in charge of the program.

The meeting was opened with old-time music by Messrs. John Tucker and Davis, and later in the program when the musicians gave another rendition, those attending became so enthusiastic that they marched around the table.

Ed Staples told of his recent trip to points in California and A. C. Joy, prominent farmer of the Bellview district, stated that the development of the community only started last year when the water supply for irrigation was started. He said he saw great possibilities for the district in the way of berries, chicken, dairying and etc.

Secretary Fuller announced that a public reception would be held next Tuesday evening for President and Mrs. Churchill of the new normal and advised all to reserve June 26th, the date of the formal dedication of the normal, when Governor Pierce, Sec. of State Kozier and other prominent citizens would be here. He recommended that the alumni of the old normal organize for the celebration.

The guests included A. E. Ealder, a new settler here, Jim McCracken and Messrs. Rosenau and Bigelow, the former stating he visited Ashland 21 years ago and that the improvements he noted now were very gratifying.
