County Health Meeting in Ashland
The Jackson County Health Association held a community meeting in Ashland, at the Civic Club house Thursday, June 3, at which a large delegation from Medford and representatives from Gold Hill, Central Point, Rogue River, Phoenix and Talent were present. The meeting was called to order by Miss Mildren Carleton, president of the association and representatives of the different unities gave their reports on the recent membership campaign which were very gratifying. All felt encouraged with the growing interest manifested in the work.
Miss Carleton then introduced the speaker of the afternoon, Dr. W. W. P. Holt of Medford. Before taking up his subject, Dr. Holt expressed his appreciation of the splendid manner in which Mr. Geary and his efficient staff were dealing with the county health problems and educating the display, to listen to the program of interesting speakers who will be present and enjoy the toothsome and satisfying delicacies which the boxes will contain.

Every one who is interested in seeing this splendid club receive the benefit of the summer term at Corvallis, is invited to come Thursday night.

Piano Recital
The pupils of Roberta Ward-Bebb were presented in a Piano Recital, in the beautifully decorated ball room of the Lithia Springs hotel, on Wednesday afternoon last.
The program was especially well balanced and the selection of pieces splendidly well chosen. Each player showed a certain poise and quality of interpretation, convincingly the result of careful training. Especially noticeable was the flawless manner in which all the students' pieces were committed to memory.
An added outstanding feature of the program was the reading given by Dr. Mattie B. Shaw, in her characteristic, cleverly interesting manner, which delighted the listeners.
Many lovely flowers were given to the pupils and a beautiful basket and several bouquets to their teacher, Mrs. Bebb.
The large audience was most appreciative, as evidenced by the hearty applause given each performer. The program in its entirety was as follows:
Program—Part One
Duet—March Militaire, Schubert—Mabel Stennett and Maxine Emery.
Dolls Dream and Awakening. Oesten; Zephyrs, Cesana—Jeanette Stearns.

A Week-End Outing
The Chattin Cabin has been secured by Mrs. Louis Schwein for a few days' outing at the Lake of the Woods, one of a number of pleasant happenings that Mrs. Schwein is planning during the vacation visit of her daughter, Miss Ramona Wise, who is taking nurse's training at Immanuel Hospital at Portland.
Mrs. Schwein, her daughters, Ramona, Rosalind, and Wanda, with Carl Loveland and son Carl Junior, will make up the party. Mr. Loveland will drive the car. Miss Wise expects to remain until the sixteenth of the month.

A feature of the evening will be the organization of a Board of Sponsors.

Ashland is justly proud of its growing in Camp Fire groups, there being two from Junior High and one from Hawthorne and the High School groups.
There will be representatives here from Jacksonville, Talent, Rogue River, Grants Pass and it is understood there will be 80 girls brought from Klamath Falls to this meeting which is planned for Pinehurst for Friday.
At that meeting, which takes the nature of an outdoor picnic affair there will be over 300 girls present to enjoy the conference with the distinguished leader.
Every one interested in the work of the Camp Fire Girls is invited to attend the reception Thursday night.

Marriage Announcement
Announcement was made Friday last, of the marriage of Miss Arlene Johnson and Lee Duncan at Yreka, California, on May the eighth. The marriage was kept a secret until the past week. It

WAS SIMPLY AFRAID TO EAT, SAYS PORTLAND MAN

That's How Terribly He Suffered With Indigestion and Dyspepsia Till Karnak Stopped All His Troubles And Made Him Feel 15 Years Younger, Declares Welch.

hours afterward. I was actually afraid to eat. I suffered so from extreme nervousness I couldn't sleep or rest, and I had headaches and dizzy spells, and was so weak that I didn't feel worth a cent.
"But Karnak seemed to take up where the others left off, and five bottles of the medicine had rid me of all that miserable stomach suffering and built me up to where I feel every bit of fifteen years younger. Why, I just eat cabbage and anything else I want now without it causing me a particle of trouble afterward."
"My nerves are good and steady, I sleep like a log at night, and just feel like a new man from head to foot. I tell you, I will always keep a bottle of Karnak in a handy place, and I feel like it's a duty to help others by telling them of this medicine. Just have 'em see me about it."
Karnak is sold in Ashland at the East Side Pharmacy and by all leading druggists.

"You bet your life you can put me down as one of those who say 'Karnak has rid me of all my troubles and made me feel like a new man,' for that's what this medicine has done for me," declares J. R. Welch, of 6744 Whitman Ave., Portland, Ore., well known retired grocer.
"I tell you, money couldn't buy the good Karnak has done me," continues Mr. Welch. "I had about one of the worst cases of indigestion, dyspepsia and stomach trouble on record, I guess, and had spent sums of money without being able to find any relief.
"Gas pains just pressed around my heart and kept me 'worried sick.' My stomach just felt as sore as a boil all the time, and the little I ate hurt me for
