Society

came as a surprise to her friends and class mates.

Miss Johnson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Johnson, of Seaside Drive and is a member of this year's graduating class.

The bridegroom is an employee of the Southern Pacific. The young people will make their home in Ashland, on Union street.

For them, their friends offer good wishes for a happy and prosperous journey through life.

Series of Parties For Out-Of-Town Guests —

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Thomas and Mrs. Millon, mother of Mrs. Thomas, from Seattle, who have been house guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Provost, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Carter and Mrs. Angle Engle, have been the motif for a number of very delightful affairs.

On Monday last, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Millon, who are old-time residents and have many friends in Ashland and the valley, arrived by motor from Seattle, where they now reside.

Tuesday following their arrival, they were guests at an attractive dinner at the Provost home.

A picnic dinner at the Summit Ranch on the Siskiyou, marked Wednesday, with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Millon and Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Provost and Sylvia Provost members of the party.

Mrs. Miles of Medford was hostess at luncheon, Thursday with Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Millon, Mrs. E. H. Wagner, Mrs. P. S. Provost guests from Ashland and Mrs. Alford from Medford, entertaining in honor of Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Millon.

Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Carter were host and hostess at a delightful dinner, with the Seattle visitors as guests of honor.

A picnic luncheon in the park with a number of old friends made Friday a day long to be remembered.

At this were gathered: those in whose honor given, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Thomas, Mrs. Millon; Mrs. H. S. Sanford, Mrs. Don Whitney, Marietta Whitney, Mrs. Angle Engle, Mrs. Eugenia Atkinson, Mrs. E. H. Wagner, Mr.

and Mrs. E. V. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Provost, Sylvia Provost and Mr. I. R. Storm of California.

On Friday evening, the pleasant finale of a happy visit was a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Domino Provost with the visitors complimented guests.

During their stay, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Millon called on a host of old friends.

They left Saturday, enroute for Seattle after a week spent most happily with friends.

Delightful House Party at Lake of the Woods—

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vining, with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Winter, Mrs. Grace R. Fountain and Mrs. Mabel Russell-Lowther as guests, were members of a delightful houseparty at the Vining cottage at Lake of the Woods a few days last week, returning on Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Vining return this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vining are here for a short visit and when they came brought Mrs. Fountain and Mrs. Lowther with them. Sketching and painting occupied some of the artists' time, and boating and bathing, walks and talks filling the hours most enjoyably.

Mr. and Mrs. Vining, Mrs. Fountain and Mrs. Lowther are the guests of relatives while here.

Normal Notes—

An attractive feature is added to the social columns of the Tidings, beginning with this issue. It is expected to have from half to a column of items of Normal happenings, with the personal note prominent.

From now on there will be much of interest to every one in the various events transpiring at the Normal, hence the special feature.

At Mrs. Jordan's—

Miss Margaret Armentrout of Tillamook, who arrived the first of the week to take the position as stenographer for President J. A. Churchill of the Southern Oregon Normal, is at home at 678 Boulevard, with Mrs. E. A. Jordan.

Miss Armentrout expects to do some teaching in the Normal later.

Here For Normal—

Mr. and Mrs. Elgin S. Altimus have taken an apartment at the "Hardy Apartments" on Second street.

They expect to enter Normal when it opens, having moved here for that purpose.

Guests at the Goheen-Haan Residence—

There will be a number of young women spend the summer with the Misses Edna Goheen and Gerlie Hann, at the pleasant home on Palm Avenue, among them Miss Ree Morrison of Grants Pass will be there for the opening session.

Mrs. Norcross Has Guests—

There will be a number of students make their home with Mrs. Norcross, formerly of Central Point, who has recently purchased the comfortable Beeler residence on the Boulevard.

A Delightful Afternoon —

Mrs. E. A. Woods was at home to a group of her friends at an informal afternoon, Thursday, of last week.

Music from Swedish composers, and the inspection and discussion of interesting collections of old music, with the pleasant visit of friends claimed the hours.

Later in the afternoon, refreshments, typical in Swedish hospitality were served.

Those enjoying with the hostess the delightful afternoon were: Mrs. Herman Mattern and daughter, Mrs. Hille, Mrs. H. G. Gilmore, Dr. Mattie B. Shaw, Mrs. A. H. Pracht, Mrs. Gordon MacCracken, Mrs. J. H. Fuller, Mrs. P. K. Hammond, Mrs. Ella B. Mills, Mrs. V. V. Mills, and Mrs. Reed.

J. C.'s Have Business Meeting—

The J. C.'s, a class of the Presbyterian Sunday school, under the supervision of Mrs. W. M. Poley, held its regular business meeting this, Saturday, afternoon with their teacher.

At this the usual business incident to the work of the class will be taken care of and the remainder of the afternoon will be of a social nature, during which the class do special work.

At the close the hostess served light refreshments.

This class has done, during the past year, unusually successful work, for a class of young girls and its contributions have been liberal. From all indications, the girls plan to go still beyond the goal set for last year.

Wednesday Club Picnic—

Wednesday, June 9, in Lithia Park the Wednesday Club and their families will hold their annual picnic.

The membership will assemble at 430 p. m., for the business session which will conclude the regular activities of that body until fall.

Later in the afternoon, the families will congregate and the feast will be spread at 6:00 p. m. This is a covered dish dinner and judging by the menu usually furnished it will be a feast, indeed.

Every one will bring a covered dish and come prepared to enjoy the social hour during the late afternoon and evening.

All members are asked to hold the date for this pleasant affair.

Home Recital—

About twenty were assembled to enjoy a delightful evening, with Mrs. A. A. Madden, hostess, when her pupils were heard in a home recital, of pleasing numbers.

First, second and third grade pupils appeared, on this occasion, in numbers which evidenced the careful, painstaking work of the teacher and advancement of the pupil.

All who performed did exceptionally well, some playing from memory and others using their music.

At the close the hostess served delicious refreshments. Lovely flowers were presented Mrs. Madden from her pupils.

The following program was rendered by the young performers.

May Waltz, Ahearn, by LaVonn Tonner.

Sweet Bye and Bye, Butler, Norma Peterson.

Ben Bolt, Butler, Mabel Clary, Minnie's Galop, Long, Helen Madden.

Jolly Times, Guthrie, Mercedes Tonner.

Liberty Waltz, Weber, Mae Clary.

Carry Me Back to Old Virginia, Butler, and Lyric Theatre March, Beaumont, played by Wanda Schwein.

Cedar Brook Waltz, Perry, duet played by Mae and Mabel Clary.
