The two teams faced each other with Sunny Mohler pitching for Ashland and the pride of Grants Pass, Pernoll, twirling for the Josephine county team. The first four innings were as pretty demonstration of baseball as one could imagine. During this period Grants Pass was able to get only one man as far as first base.

The sixth, which has become rather an unlucky period for Ashland, netted the Grant's Pass team Ashland had previously brought in four runs. In the seventh Mohler was touched some more and Emory Davis, the spitter, relieved him. However, before Davis could get in his stride and assisted by a little erratic playing and Dunsmuir has been granted throwing by the Ashland players, plate in this inning, giving them
