PREMIER'S DAUGHTER TO MARRY PRINCE

LONDON, July 23.—(UP)—An unconfirmed dispatch to the Daily Herald from Chiasso, Italy, today, said Premier Mussolini of Italy plans to marry his daughter, Edda, to the Crown Prince Humbert of Italy.

Serely this organization is not meant to be a social one; meeting once a month to hear a song, see a dance, drink a cup of coffee and depart. There must be work to do. The "Parent-Teacher Association" must look around. If there is no work to do there is no need of an organization. If there is work, organize and do it.

There is so much to do! You can give your school clean, healthful, moral surroundings. Your parents can drive out what is unclean and demoralizing. Work from school out to the city and state.

You can create an atmosphere of interest in the school and of appreciation for it. Think it's the best school in town and help to make it so. Help the children to think it is a little better than the best. You will get better work from your teachers and your children if you do.

Many changes have been made since you went to school. Try to understand why they have been made.

Do not try to make our plans but read up on school work. Ask teachers why things are done as they are. Come seeking information and you'll get it. Give part of your meetings to asking about things you do not understand and want to understand. We'll be glad to talk if we know what you want.

Do not form cliques in the Parent-Teacher Association. The public schools are a democratic institution. Children are democratic. They will work and play together and judge by true standards if left alone. Parents should be just as broadminded. Leaders should encourage the timid parents to talk. They may give you ideas. They may help you. Be friendly. Your problems may have been intelligently met by some quiet little woman who will not talk unless urged to do so.

The shiftless, ignorant parent can be helped and encouraged to do better. You want hygienic surroundings for your children. You can't have them as long as there are careless, ignorant parents. Help us to fill the schools with clean, well-fed children. Give them their chance.

Organize to put your school across in a big way. Help it to mean something to the community. Back it up. Stand by it.

Support it and make others want to support it. Be loyal to it. PROVE that the Parent-Teacher Association is not just another unimportant organization, but something vital to your community, your state and your country. —Child Welfare.

Dad Backs Him

George Campbell is only 16, but according to his dad, Alex Campbell, one of the oldest golf pros in the country, the "kiddie" is a player. The elder Campbell believes George is no good a golfer as Francis Oumet was when the famous amateur was 16. The elder Campbell is a member of the Ashland Golf Club and is the only high school champion of that club.
